James Barrett, bearing in his hat a check of the Chicago Labor agency of Omaha, was struck by a train last evening while standing on the Burlington depot platform. He escaped serious injury, but was badly braised and his face was cut in several places. Barrett was under the influence of liquor and stood too close to the track. After his wounds had been dressed by City Physician Houghton Harrett was removed to the city [21].

William Johnson and "Kid" Sawyer.

William Johnson and "Kid" Sawyer, colored men, were arrested last evening by John Quinn, special officer at the Transfer depot after they had broken into Quinn's residence at 1819 Eighth avenue. The family was away from home when the negroes entered the house. Neighbors telephoned Mr. Quinn and he overnauled the men near the Smith Refining company's plant. They claimed they went into the house to get a drink of water, but left when they found no one in. "Kid" Sawyer la said to be a well known colored pugilist.

Dolliver May Speak Next Week.

If the necessary arrangements can be made Sénator J. P. Dolliver will open the republican campaign in Council Bluffs Chalrman Wright of the county central ommittee received word yesterday from F. C. Dawson, in charge of the republican speaking bureau, that Senstor Dolliver could be secured for Council Bluffs for Tuesday night of next week.

On hearing this from Mr. Dawson Mr. Wright at once sought to secure the opera house for that evening, but found that it was engaged. He was told, however, that he could have the house for the following evening. Mr. Wright at once telegraphed Mr. Dawson, inquiring if Senator Dolliver could arrange to speak here Wednesday in place of Tuesday

In the event of Senator Dolliver being unable to give any date except Tuesday of next week for this city every effort to secure some other hall will be made.
