THE OMAHA DAILY BEE: MONDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1903.

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE.

E. ROSEWATER, EDITOR. PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

Daily Bee (without Sunday), One Year. Daily Bee and Sunday, One Year. 1000 DELIVERED BY CARRIER.

Complaints of irregularities in delivery avoid be addressed to City Circulation De-

OFFICES

OFFICER Omahus-The Bee Building. Twen-South Omaha-City Hall Building. Twen-ty-fifth and M streets. Council Bluffs-10 Pearl Street. Chicago-160 Unity Building. New York-228 Park Row Building. Washington-60 Fourteenth Street.

CORRESPONDENCE. Communications relating to news and edi-torial matter should be addressed: Omaha Bee, Editorial Department.

REMITTANCES. Remit by draft, express or postal order payable to The Bee Publishing Company. Only 2-cent stamps accepted in payment of mall accounts. Personal checks, except on control which the government now mas Omaha or eastern exchanges, not accepte THE BEE PUBLISHING COMPANY.

STATEMENT OF CIRCULATION. State of Nebraska, Doug'as County, 85.1 George B. Tzschuck, secretary of The Bee Publishing Company, being duly sworn, says that the actual pumber of fail and complete copies of The Daily Morning. Evening and Sunday Bee printed during the month of September, 1903, was as fol-lows:

1	16
2	17
3	18
4	19
5	20,
6	21
7	22
8	23
9	24
10	25
11	26
12	27
13
14	291
15	89

Total Less unsold and returned copies 9,486 relieve this situation. This would sim-852,744 Net total sales. Net total sales. Net average sales. GEORGE B. TZSCHUCK. Subscribed in my presence and sworn to before me this 30th day of September, A. D. 1203. M. B. HUNGATE, (Seal) Notary Public. . 28,424 go into depositories, as is now the case

The campaign in Iowa will now consider itself duly opened.

The reorganization of the Union Pacific seems to be still on.

saved by this time. Let Jack Frost certain that none will be made by the come along.

So far Ak-Sar-Ben has not been troubled with the problem what to do with its ex-kings.

Nebraska university is starting out well on the gridiron. Let the boys only land and France marks another step, keep up the gait.

At all events it is to be a short cam- the settlement of international disputes. paign. But the campaign next year It appears that the model of this agreewill make up for its brevity this year.

treaty, which the United States semate When the district judges let up on rejected, and according to a Paris dis-Omaha with injunctions and man- patch the officials view the negotiations damuses they injunct and mandamus as evidence of the sympathetic attitude South Omaha just to keep in practice, of the United States, France and Great

ALLISON ON THE CURRENCY. Senator Allison's reference to the cur terests or treaty rights may be invaded. rency in his speech at Elinton conveys the assurance that there will be no legis-Washington and there can be no queslation at the coming session of congress tion that it is the proper position as that will revolutionize the existing sysconditions are at present.

over bank circulation.

other sources.

ten and as a member of the semite CHAIRMAN GOSS RULING finance committee he speaks with au-The only test vote in the organization thority. It is a fair inference from his of the republican county committee was statement that the senators who have icen considering a currency bill do not the decision of Chairman Goss on the in the basement. contemplate proposing an asset curright of the members of the state comrency. Mr. Allison said there will be mittee to participate in the work of nothing done which would deprive the organization. The rule providing for government of the substantial control it now has over bank circulation, "nor mittee, as embodied in the draft adopted will any modification be made that will by the outgoing committee and reafnot provide absolute security of the firmed by the convention, reads as folnotes issued by or under the authority lows:

of the government and their converti-The chairman of the county committee blity at the will of the holder into gold." The opposition to the plan of committee consisting of five members who asset currency is partly because it shall perform such services as required by would operate to revolutionize the exthe chairman. Said members of the execu listing system and at least impair the tive committee and members of the state ommittee from Douglas county shall have the same voice in the meeting of the committee as any member from a voting dis-

It is not to be doubted that the substantial and legitimate business inter-The amazing thing is that language so ests of the country will concur in the plain should be deliberately misconview of Senator Allison that under pres strued by a man who pretends to be so ent conditions there is no pressing nefair as Mr. Goss always does in order cessity for great changes as respects to gain factional advantage. It is almost our money circulation. The president of as surprising that Chairman Goss should one of the New York banks, writing in a current magazine, expresses the opining to support him in such an arbitrary ion that it will be enough for our presruling. The untenable position of Mr. ent necessities if there is legislation Goss was re-enforced when he held making the treasury of the United further that a member of the state com-States a co-operator with the business mittee claiming a seat under this rule man and which will make the boarding had no right to appeal from his decision of money by the government impossible. because his name had not been placed Mr. Allison referred to the inconvenion the temporary roll. As the roll had ence caused by the hoarding of money evidently been made up by Mr. Goss' in the national treasury and said that direction in defiance of the rules, the congress probably will adopt supplecommittee had nothing left to it but to mental legislation so as to absolutely reverse the hold-over chairman. It would seem that a man of Mr. Goss' ply allow the receipts from customs to reputed astuteness would learn that he has nothing to gain by such distortion with revenues of the government from of the fundamental law upon which the committee organization is based, and As Senator Allison pointed out, our which was drafted and put into opera-monetary laws have operated well. Untion by his own factional friends. der them the country has progressed and the credit of the government has The defeat of the first proposition for been maintained. All legitimate busimunicipal ownership of street railways ness interests find them to be satisfacsubmitted to the voters of San Frantory. If faulty in some details these isco affords by no means a conclusive should be corrected, but no radical proof that the city at the Golden Gate The corn crop must be pretty well changes are required and it seems quite is committed to corporate ownership and fifty-eighth congress. At any rate such ing population of 70,000 only 25,226 citia conclusion is plainly warranted by zens of San Francisco voted on the tours. the remarks of Mr. Allison.

THE ANGLO-FRENCH AGREEMENT. The arbitration agreement reported to have been entered into between Eng-and a very important one, in the advance of the principle of arbitration for ment is the Hay-Pauncefote arbitration upon the assumption that our trade in- Just now. But Argus himself never kept a closer watch upon any one, and the This is understood to be the view at steep to these vigflant eyes. Bear commands no flute notes to bring ing completed the census of the Philippine Islands. The result of that compliation is It is growing more peaceful in Wall already known and the labors incident to it street. You hear only the noise of the have furnished Washington correspondents wringer up in Mr. Morgan's laundry squeezing water out of stocks, and the material for many good stories. One of the sounds made by a noted phlianthropist features of life on the Islands commented that precipitated by an appeal from in skinning a few flints for dinner down on by Mr. Gannett is the paucity of American investments. "The only industrial enterprise of any magnitude in which Ameri-

Wringer Working Overtime, Brooklyn Eagle.

The Way to Live Long. Bill Barlow's Budget.

that I can recall." said Mr. Gannett, "is The time-tried truth would seem to be the Manila electric rallway. A syndicate the composition of the new county com- that there are no lead-pipe rules govern- of Americana is building a large electric ing what we eat and drink-except, of plant in Manila, to supply light to the city ourse, that common sense ukase-which and to operate a first class city rallway lays down a law agin a man making a system. There are several small mercantile hog of himself. And that the best way establishments and one or two banks run to husband health and live long is by Americans, but comparatively speaking for us to resolve that life is good and little money has yet been invested. Things shall have power to appoint an executive to take such of its good things as each will undoubtedly improve, however. One of may find are good for him or her. I've no the biggest forward steps that has been diploma-but that's my prescription. Gratis. taken was the placing of the currency sys-

Concerning the Theater Hat. New York Sun.

they can be turned in and the new Filipino A manager has the right to make any currency is taking their places. The change reasonable rule as to the conduct of those has given an air of confidence and stability who patronize his playhouse. There can to all business operations which is very be no doubt that a simple regulation which helpful."

is designed to give all who purchase seats an equal opportunity to see the show is The postoffice building in Washington "reasonable." Therefore anybody who says a correspondent of the Chicago-Rec makes a fuss and refuses to consider othord-Herald, can boast of a unique gallery ers is wholly unreasonable, and should be of pictures from the pencil of Dame Nature prepared to feave the theater or give way herself. The latter gives evidence, in these to reason. A woman who insists on wear- words, of a characteristic capriciousness find any member of the committee will- ing a big hat in spite of protests is just both in the selection and execution of her as absurd as if she took a squalling baby subjects, not unmixed with a mischlevous to a performance of a Duse play. dash of caricature. For instance, the late

Patti Comes Again. Brooklyn Eagle.

him in the act of delivering one of his sar-The announcement that Adelina Patti is castic and pungent replies to an opponent. actually and positively to make her con-The picture gallery in question is found at ciuding and final farewell appearance in the extremity of the western corridor of this country must excite interest among the first floor of the building, in the neighthose who have heard this fair woman and borhood of the window of the registry divisremarkable artist sing the florid music of ion. Some of the carriers are generally to the old operas in the past. No doubt, too, be seen around here, and any one of them she will be a subject of curiosity among a is always ready to point out to the curious younger generation that knows its Wag- visitor the famous "cat." "Tom Reed."

ner, but has yet to hear a technically perfect performance of the Italian melodies. Taste has changed in the years since Patti fame of these extraordinary natural deline was a familiar figure here, and neither the ations in the veined marble (Mexican onyx) Italian opera nor the miscellaneous concert of the walls in this portion of the postoffice thrive with us as they did, but Patti's suc- building has spread far and wide, so that a cess has been partly that of personality, partly that of method, and these often purpose of seeing them. The pictures are survive change. Of one thing we may be aure-that if this singer keeps her volce, to the peculiarly dark and numerous markas many assure us that she does, those ings in the stone. who attend her concerts will hear such The "cat" is a most graphic representasinging as cannot be heard elsewhere. The tion of a plump, well-to-do domestic feline awiing through an uproar of drums and sitting in prim attitude characteristic of the rumpets that Wagner requires does not species. The picture is of heroic size and tend to lengthen the life nor preserve the the variegated markings of the sleek fur temper of a voice, and in Patti we have a are both striking and beautiful. From its delicate vocal instrument, as accurate as a prominent position this is the most noticetuning fork, as flexible as a flute, as sweet able, as it is the most famous of the as a violin. She will be welcome as long natural pictures. as she chooses to keep up her farewell "'Ben' Butler," however, can scarcely escape the notice of one familiar with the visage of that once prominent figure in JUDGE JOHN B. BARNES. law, politics and war. Benjamin is dis-Syracuse Journal: The reputation of drooping eyelid and round head "like a cannon ball." His flowing outline of wais' zen is such that no voter can object to his coat is also clearly to be traced, although election to the supreme bench upon other he is unceremoniously curtailed of the than partisan reasons. And no republican major portion of his lower extremities. will object on this score for he is a life-long

Facing the redoubtable Benjamin from the other side of a doorway is a figure Ponca Journal: Judge J. B. Barnes was Thomas B. Reed and by others to look twice appointed supreme court commisrather more like nobody in particular. The sioner by unanimous consent of the three likeness to the late gentleman from Maine supreme judges, including Judge Sullivan, is, sooth to say, somewhat dublous and requires much imagination to amend; the head is a great deal confused and so does and that his opponent so considers him. not resemble in this regard that of the de-

BITS OF WASHINGTON LIFE.

Minor Scenes and Incidents Sketched

Henry Gannett of the United States Geo logical Survey is back in Washington, hav-can capital is invested in the Philippines tem of the islands on a stable basis.

Mexican dollars are being retired as fast as

"Ben" Butler is delineated much as a contemporary cartoonist might have pictured on the Spot.

a Mate to the Reading Fublic. We are issuing this day the first number of a new mon The Sopalan Mayazan It will be denoted strictle fiction - The kind of fiction that appeals to readers with rad blood in Their vines and will contain stories (by mon who know how to write them) of Hall street life, of The stage, of college life, and of Alconnon adventures at house and abroad. Street, Smith. At all news stands. Price Ten Cents.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Even the Salt trust is said to have lost its savor. Colonel Bryon has delivered his three peeches in Ohio, but has thrown up the contract to deliver the goods. It cost Boston $60,000 to give a banquet to the Honorable Artillery company of London, and it was Ralph Waldo Emer-

A roll of greenbacks in a Chicago man's pocket stopped a bullet which was speeding to his heart. This confirms our previous opinion that a large roll of money

Dr. John Bates Johnson, who died in St. Louis the other day, founded in 1843 the first public medical dispensary west of the Mississippi river. He was one of the fore-him, announced that he was willing to acman in the Fifth assembly district.

closed en profile, with the characteristic likely seems to be the booming of the in-

Senator Depew congratulates Senator

"the ductive of disorder.

diet Arnold,

because he first had the temerity to shake this colossal structure of wind. He is disliked because he first called a halt upon Wall street's march of imposition. He is disliked because he stands between Wall screet and its future plans of oppression. The fact, however, that he is disliked makes him doubly popular among the great and vote-giving masses.

LINES TO A LAUGH.

"Some people," said Uncle Eben, "is kind o' unlucky in gittin' de kind o' friends dat is always wantin' favors instid o' de kin' dat is always tryin' to do favors."-Washington Star

"I suppose your son is still studying hard to become a doctor?" "Oh, no, he's taking a good long rest now, with nothing to do. He has gradu-ated and started to practice."-Philadelphia Press

"Do you have any trouble supporting your family, Sambo?" "No, indeedy; why, boss, I'se got one ob de best wifes in 'dis 'ere town. - Yonkers Statesman.

Baltimore American. Mrs. 1 The attitude of the so-called Wall street Malaprop-No. she ain't exactly re conciled yet, but they do say she's got the man picked out.-Philadelphia Press. rowd toward the candidacy of Mr. Rooseelt will, if persisted in, prove one of the most helpful factors to the republican party during the progress of the campaign. Just at this time Wall street is hated with a bitterness difficult to describe. Its work during the past five years has been destructive rather than constructive. It is very true there has been a series of cor-poration developments which many argue poration developments which many argue -Judge to be wonderful pieces of constructive GREATNESS THRUST OPON THEM. The whole process, however, has skill. turned out to be a monumental failure, son who used to talk about "plain living and high thinking." "Ben Butler," the "Abyssinian Warrior, "Lady looking Through Portiers," etc. The may be useful at times. number of persons come with the express purely of natural formation, and are owing cept the republican nomination for alder-

They have attained a speed of over 126 miles an hour upon that electric road in Germany, but as all the passengers thought it necessary to have their lives insured before starting, the only practical result surance business,

Platt upon the announcement of his apwhich by some is held to depict the late so necessary to preserve youth in its reali-

ROOSEVELT AND WALL STREET.

filled with the elements which are pro

Wall street has played so unenviable a public. It has robbed the public. By foisted upon a confiding following an enormous pile of securities which have conditions have already exacted a disproportionate tribute from the great consuming public in order to meet the financial money, which flow is the indispensable preserver of sound commercial prosperity.

The consequence is, the public in multi farious ways has suffered incalculable

Mr. Roosevelt is disliked by Wall street needs of over-capitalized corporations.

the Republican Party.

Press.

most medical practitioners in the country and a lecturer in several colleges. Major General Daniel E. Sickles, U. S. A. retired, for years a Tammany Sachem, as were his father and grandfather before

"The weather's got quite coid," maid one broker to another. "It has," was the reply. "There must be something wrong with the idea that the wind is always tempered to the shorn lamb,"-Town Topics.

"Don't be skeered," said the first foot-pad. "It's only two women." "But one o' them's got a revolver," pro-tested his pal. "Aw! dat's nothin'. Come on, an'-Ges whizz! light out, Bill! De other one's got a hatpin."-Philadelphia Ledger.

Platt upon the announcement of his approaching marriage. Senator Platt is 70 years old and his sprightly colleague, who is only 60, assures him that there is "no period when home and domestic bliss are so necessary to preserve youth in its realities and illusions as when one is past 60."

Opposition of Promoters Helpful to Mrs. Browne-And how is that pretty young widow? Is she reconciled to her control of public utilities. Out of a votproposition, of whom 14,481 voted for and 10,745 against the proposition. But inasmuch as it required a two-thirds vote to ratify the proposed bond issue Judge Barnet as a jurist, a soldier and citi-

for the purchase of the street railway system that was to have become the experimental municipal line the proposition failed. When a test of public senti- republican. ment is made at a general election in which the whole voting population participates the outcome may be altogether different. On broad lines the municipal ownership and operation of street rail-ways does not appeal to popular senti-is well qualified for the position he seeks ment as much as the municipal owner-

Post.

Municipal politics in Greater New York appear to be growing daily more muddled. By election time the situation should be as clear as mud.

The Servian prince who is looking for a good school in which to learn practical soldiery can doubtless be accommodated wisely-directed efforts of King Edward if he will come to this country and for the promotion of international good apply to the proper parties.

The Nebraska Retail Merchants' association evidently considers Governor Mickey persona non grata. For some reason not hard to find it neglected to ficant of the tendency toward a rearelect him an honorary member.

-

Of course its different for congressmen and senators to accept the hospitality of William Hearst for a junket arrangement. The obvious fact in conof the territories rather than to make it solely at the expense of the railroad exert rather more influence in conticompanies.

Nebraska is the favorite visiting place of Congressman Cannon of Illinois, who Is to be the speaker of the next house the other powers. of representatives. Congressman Cannon is also a favorite visitor in Nebräska.

President Roosevelt is standing by Senator Hanna in his campaign for reelection to the senate. And Senator "Hanna will be expected to stand by President Roosevelt for election to a full term in the White House.

The street repairs so long awaited above question. What seems to be at once.

The champions of the so-called non-ernment against the action of Russia partisan judicial ticket, dictated over a in Manchuria and Corea. While such lunch table by a handful of lawyers, popular manifestations may exert no try to make out that it is superior to the great influence upon the situation the ticket nominated by the republican government will hardly be disposed to indicial convention, which includes wholly ignore it, for the stand it has three of the same candidates. The ques- taken inspired the feeling. Every day tion is, If a republican nomination dis- strengthens belief that Russia does not credits a candidate, how can they dis- intend to evacuate Manchuria or to criminate in favor of the three who relinquish whatever advantage she has in respect to Corea. happen to be on both tickets?

The Nebraska commissioners for the with all countries having trade with Louisiana Purchase exposition are to Manchuria, has an interest in the far be commended for their decision to ex- eastern situation, it is not of a nature pend the $35,000 appropriated by the that calls for any intervention on our legislature for a creditable exhibit .a. part. There may be danger, indeed, of stead of planting $15,000 or $20,000 on Russia shutting us out of the valuable the grounds in a second or third rate Manchurian market. In the event of building which at best could be used war and Russian success it is more than only as a reception resort for visiting probable that that power would exclude Nebraskans. What the commission all others from commerce with the Chidoubtless will keep in view is that the nese territory she controls. We have funds at its disposal should be ex- her assurance, however, that our trade piended for giving Nebraska the most there will not be interfered with and impressive advertising that can be im- we are bound to regard this in good fuith. We cannot properly do anything provined ship of other public atilities, unless as-Britain on the practical adoption of the surance could be given of a material retheory of arbitration. duction in street car fares. The average

The agreement means, of course, a voter is not half as much interested in complete restoration of friendly relathe prospective profits to be derived tions between England and France and provides a way for maintaining those lines as he is in the prospective cheaprelations. This is one of the valuable ening of fares; hence the indifference results of the earnest desire and the manifested by the great majority of voters of San Francisco.

will. The very important service he At the instance of Governor LaFollette has rendered in this direction cannot an investigation of the accounts and he was considered a splendid young man easily be overestimated and marks him records of the Chicago, St. Paul & Minas a ruler of worthy aspirations. It is neapolis railroad is now being conducted suggested that the agreement is signi- by the railroad commissioner of Wisconrangement of the European political alliances and possibly there is something well as other railroads operated in Wisin this view of it, though there is not consin, to pay their just share of taxes any apparent tendency toward a reand to comply with the statutory regulations of railway traffic. The charge has nection with it is that Great Britain will been made that railroads operating in Wisconsin have been paying rebates to nental affairs than she has done for a favored shippers and thereby rendering considerable time, for being on friendly themselves liable under the Elkins law, relations with France will certainly but at the same time they have evaded command for her increased respect from state of the just tribute levied in the The United States has been foremost shape of taxes for the privileges enjoyed among the civilized nations in promotby them. The St. Paul officials are ing international arbitration, so that every step in the progress of that principle has a peculiar interest for the American people.

WILL THERE BE WART

The latest advices in regard to the attitude of Russia and Japan appear to warrant an affirmative answer to the

by the peor s compelled to use trustworthy information is to the effect Omaha thoroughfares are in progress, that both powers are actively preparing but the work is advancing altogether for possible hostilities. The negotiatoo slowly. These repairs should be tions at the Japanese capital, looking to entirely completed before the cold an amicable arrangement, continue, but weather sets, otherwise a good job can- the impression is that little progress is not be done. If there is any way of being made. The feeling throughout expediting the work it should be done Japan is represented to be extremely bitter toward Russia and the people are protesting through petitions to the gov-while in New York they have three weeks for running down repeaters and nonresidents who are injected into the lists at nearly every election. With the discovery of Chinese ginseng growing along the bottoms of the Platte

it will be in order to prove again that Christopher Columbus has been enjoying unearned honors as discoverer of America when the real credit belongs to some inglorious Chinee, While the United States, in common out how it is called upon to transfer its cash for their green paper. Inspiration for Piety. Kansas City Star.

When Rogues Fall Out. Chicago Record-Herald. When magnates get to quarreling over

The Standard Oil company announce nother raise in the price of oll-the third in ten days, No wonder Mr. Rockefeller wants to hire a hall to tell the world what religion has done for him.

The Bear and the Jap New York Tribune

Japan is not going to war with Russia

Norfolk News: Hon. J. B. Barnes ex- ceased "czar." The "Abyssinian warrior," called also the presses himself as well pleased with the prospects for a republican victory at the is in some respects the most "Nublan," coming election. He fails to find any reawonderful of the pictures. The characterson at all why Nebraska will not come up istic African head, the polse of the figure and its distinct outline never fail to excite with a good, old time republican majority in November. There is no evidence anythe surprise of one seeing it for the first from the operation of street railway where that there will be any deflections time. Immediately above the Abyssinian is from the republican ranks. The party is tolerable representation of a woman in united on the state ticket, and all that apa hall dress peering through a curtain. It is said that an artist who saw this freak pears to be necessary will be for party of nature conceived from it a very pretty workers to get the voters out.

painting depicting a woman, elegantly at-Crete Vidette-Herald: Forty years ago tired, looking out of a curtained window. when Mr. Barnes donned the blue, and Roscoe Conkling is traced on the wal marched in the ranks at his country's call, not far from the attractions already noted. though the markings which compose his and a patriot. He has devoted the past visage are not as dark as those in other forty years to the profession of law, as a parts of the stone. There are a number of loyal citizen of Nebraska, and is now a other curious delineations in the walls of candidate for judge of the supreme court. this particular part of the building, such sin and two expert accountants, with a and all at once the World-Herald finds that as the "Irishman smoking a pipe," view to compelling that company, as Judge Barnes is a very unfit man for the horse race," etc. It is apparent that all are place. Let me see, did not this same imfreaks of nature that have not been artimaculate organ say the same about Judge ficially "touched up" in any way.

THE DIVORCE EVIL

Moral Welfare of the Nation Demands a Radical Change.

Detroit Free Press.

Cardinal Gibbons has called renewed attention to an old and familiar subject, and the mere fact that he handles it revives their tax burdens and thus deprived the an interest which it is the duty of the moral and legal agencies in this country to persistently sustain until a radical change for the better is brought about. In Its strongest feature of his discussion the making no opposition to the investiga- cardinal speaks for the church, and if its tion and deny most emphatically that contention that marriage is a sacrament absolutely binding until the death of one rebates have been paid by them. In of the contracting partles be correct, then view of the fact that Governor LaFolthere is polygamy in every state and every lette has publicly asserted that the rallscriptural injunction as to the relation of roads have not complied with the law the sexes is outraged. And the worst of it is, proceeding upon the same hypothesis, is the outcome of the investigation will be that there is a sanction in law for it all watched with a good deal of interest and that some judges strain the meaning not only by taxpayers and shippers of of the law in order to meet the wishes of Wisconsin, but by the country at large. applicants for divorce.

We have reached a point where matri-The registration of voters for the com farce comedies. Some states invite all plied: "Yes, we saw the president, and ing election has been completed in the upon whom the bonds sit heavily to come cities of New York state, but in Neand be relieved. They make a business of braska it will not begin until next it, as New Jersey does of creating corporations, manifesting the same disregard Thursday and will not be completed until the Saturday before election. This for the rights and wishes of the people of other states. It brings in money, adds to leaves no opportunity in Nebraska for the revenues of court officials who are fed. purging the padded registration lists, helps the members of the bar and tends to increase rather than decrease the num > ber of judges required to take care of the dockets. In such asylums for those discontented, almost any excuse for a divorce will procure it. And in many other states this comes pretty near being true. In very many instances the discretion of the and requested a number of leading conjudge is badly exercised. But for the su- greamen to meet them in New York. Canpreme importance of the subject it would be laughable to hear a judge grant a divorce on the grounds of cruelty because a little woman was badgered into throwing You know, I have just come from Illinois, a dish at a big, "husky," domineering man, kicking him out of bed, or occasionally lying down from sheer exhaustion when she would otherwise be preparing him a meal. things are booming along in fine shape Unless a check be interposed it will soon be enough to legally release a husband if a wife burn a beefsteak, warm the coffee over or make a bed without tucking the covers their stock the public is permitted to find in at the foot. Women succeed on applications with a backing in fact just as trivial. The whole thing is demoralizing in every material way and direction, Marriage be comes a convenience or an experiment to be discarded at will. The sterner moralities are held as lightly as the old-time prohibitions against card playing, dancing and Sunday outings. The only feasible way out would seem to be in the adoption of uniform divorce laws so rigidly drawn taht the discretion of the court would not extend to the sanctioning of the deplorable conditions complained of by the cardinal. Chicago Tribune.

know a lot of Dooleys and some Dinkel-spicis and Bowsers, A bunch of Chimmie Faddens, and some cole during the last five years that public Katzenjammers, too; d to know John Henry and his crewd wrath against it is as intense as was the of boon carousers; Some Spoopendykes and Hogans were among the folks I knew, used popular rage of the Continental army against the treachery of Benedict Arnold.

This popular resentment against Wall And yet I never heard them do this keen street is of much the same order as that philosophizing, or talk on current topics in their daz-zing style of wit; I never saw them do a thing amusing or of the loathing directed against Benebecause it is founded more or less upon similar sentiments. approached the business offices of the Wall street has certainly betrayed the

Nor heard them say a single thing that ought to make a hit. campaign of unmitigated deception it

One reads of all the sparkling jests of One reads of all the sparsing jests of Dinkelspiel and Dooley. And notes the subtle fancy that John Henry has in print— Why, there are David Harums all about—from Kansas, but a card which he ex- since been found to be much like gold of all their mots and epigrams they never give a hint. bricks. Nor is that the only way in which the public has been abused. Wall street, he wore a frock coat and felt hat, and in in its endeavors to partially carry out an impossibility, has created conditions which

We wonder why it is that they in life are We wonder why it is that they in life are underrated. And why these joy-inducing funny things they fever speak Until by some ascuteness they are sold and syndicated And put upon the market at a given rate per week.

Who knows but in the future one of us will be a feature-Be fitted with a dialect and manner humorous, And known the world around as quite a scintillating creature. Because some other fellow will think up our wit for us?

third covered by the vest of a dress suit, now threatens to breed a panic. These sparkled a brilliant stone. He hopefully ent his card in to Secretary Loeb, while the mother guarded the baby carriage on the outside. The stranger was finally admitted to the president's room. In about has also interfered with the normal flow of two minutes he came hurrying out to the office door, picked up the child and

One day last week a man and woman president. The former was pushing a baby carriage, in which was an eleven-month's-old child. One of the guards remarked that the man looked as though he came hibited proved that he was a New York

"D. D." His hair was long and uneven, the center of a shirt that was only one-calling for his wife to follow, he disappeared inside the president's office again. After another period of about three minutes the couple came out, the face of each wreathed in smiles.

In a reply to a question as to whether nonial tragedies receive the treatment of he had seen the president, the man rehe took a great liking to the baby. He is going to send it his photograph. When the woman was asked if the president kissed the baby she declined to say, but her happy face led to the belief that she will have an interesting story to tell to the child after it grows up, about their visit to the White House,

Holding on to a Good Thing.

Chicago Record-Herald.

destruction."

president.

defeated later.