The census was taken as planned, because the people wanted it taken. Many opinions were expressed as to its practicability and the Spaniards and some of our army officers, especially those who had served in Samar and Leyte, believed it to be either impossible or capable of being finished only after a year or two of difficult work. Much opposition was apprehended by them from the disaffected and criminal classes, more especially the ladrones and insurrectos. However, there was no serious opposition encountered in any of the larger islands, and this was especially true of Samar and Leyte, where there was no interference whatever with

They are trying to arrange it so that man may safely fly;
They are trying to learn more about the stars up in the sky;
They are digging up old ruins so that each of us may know

Just what people did for pleasure and for profit long ago;
Here and there is someone trying to revive the love of art,
Here and there some poet bravely sings a song that's from the heart,
But away with art and science and the Babylonian brick,
What we want is some sure way in which to Get Rich Quick.

Men are fighting still for freedom, fighting still to have the right
To address their God unhindered when they kneel to pray at night;
They are chafing 'neath oppression as their fathers did before.
They are tugging at the fetters which their luckless parents wore;
Here and there some man arises and attempts to let us know
How to make fair Peace forever the sweet mistress here below.
But we have no time to bother over such affairs; we stick
To the hope of finding wavs in which to Get Rich Quick.

The preachers keep on preaching of the glories over there.

Where the boodlers cease from troubling and the prospects all are fair;
The anxious, eager doctors keep on striving to defy.
