CHARGE FOR STREET SIGNS

City Council Proposes to Impose a Yearly License in the Future.

HARRISON STREET PEOPLE FILE PROTEST

Insist that the City Council Compel Contractor Wickham to Complete the Paving of that Street.

An ordinance regulating the construction and maintenance of signs on the public streets was introduced at the meeting of the city council last night and referred to the committee of the whole. The ordinance provides that no signs can be placed in front of a building without a permit from the city clerk, for which a fee of $1 will be charged. For all signs extending over an annual license of $2 will have to be paid, while the license for signs extending more than six feet will be $3; for signposts and posts supporting a sign across the side-walk the license will be $4; for signs having office, city.

Demand Street Paving.

John F. Helwig, heading a number of indignant residents of Harrison street, appeared before the council and demanded that the city take some steps to compel Contractor Wickham to complete the paving of this street. The contract for the paving of Harrison street was let over two years ago and called for Council Bluffs brick, top and bottom courses. To date as being the least dangerous and least borders, of $400,000 or more, while our incontractor Wickham has paved about two blocks and now claims that he cannot seblocks and now claims that he cannot sever, is handicapped somewhat by lack of this should be increased $100,000 the unicomplete the paving this fall as far as the Intersection of Harmony street, but Mr. Helwig claimed that from reliable information residents on the street understood Mr. Wickham had no intention of continuing the work this year.

Alderman Fleming gave it as his opinion that Harrison street would never be paved until the city refused to give Wickham any more contracts. From the city englon the street. Regarding the statement F, care Bee office, Council Bluffs. that Wickham was anxious to get the consent of the interested property owners to use Galesburg brick for a top course, Mr. Helwig stated to the council that a prop-osition to this effect had been made, but that Wickham wanted to charge them $1.93 a yard, a price equal to that for Galesburg brick on concrete base, and the property owners would not consent to any such

Deepening Indian Creek,

The matter of deepening and widening Indian creek from Nineteenth avenue to the river was brought up by a communication BLYDENBURG from the motor company offering to rent the city its Lake Manawa dredge for such work for $500, the city to make such repairs as were at present needed on it. As this contemplated work will cost several thousand dollars and as City Engineer Etnyre was not prepared to give an estimate as to the cost, it was decided to defer action until the aldermen have gone over the ground. Mr. Etnyre explained that the work was absolutely necessary, in order to carry off the water from the sewer system which empties into the creek at Nineteenth avenue.
