AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Superintendent McLean Points Out Need for More School Room.

NO STRIKE IN CANNING DEPARTMENT

Cudahy: The Only Plant Which Operates This Department and Seals Has Been Satisfactorily Settled.

Superintendent J. A. McLean of the public schools of South Omaha completed a report last night showing the enrollment at the various schools in the city for the month ending October 27. These figures show the enrollment: High school, 273; Central, 49; Hawthorne, 89; Jungmann, 253; Brown Park, 521; Madison, 556; Highland, 242; West Side, 523; Corrigan, 261; Lowell, 242; Whittier, 85; Lincoln, 568; Total, 4,258.

In speaking of this report, Superintendent McLean said to a Bee reporter last night: "The attendance has reached a point where in some buildings an additional room is now needed. The new room in the Corrigan building will be opened next Monday. This will help out a great deal. Last year Lincoln school had 448 pupils, as compared with 206 this year."

Superintendent McLean advocates the securing of two or three additional rooms as soon as possible, in order to provide for the pupils coming in almost daily. It is a hard matter for the board of education to secure rented rooms just now, as nearly every available building in the city is occupied. In addition to the high school building, which has just been commenced, the city needs another eight-room ward school building, in order that pupils in the lower grades may be taken care of.

It is likely that some steps with this end in view will soon be taken by the Board of Education.

The strike of operatives in the canning department at the packing houses in Chicago will hardly reach here. At least that seems to be the opinion of leading lights in labor circles in South Omaha. Stephen Vail said last night that all he knew about the Chicago strike was what he read in the newspapers. He stated that Cudahy was the only plant here where meats were canned. About 370 operatives are employed. As far as known at the headquarters of the Packing Trades council here there is no dissatisfaction. If there was any, Mr. Vail said that he certainly would know of it. The sausage makers here have a new scale, and appear to be satisfied. None of the packers here look for any labor trouble, as the demands of the employees have been arbitrated, and a settlement satisfactory to both sides reached.

John Conway Arrested. Acting Chief Elfelder has arrested John Conway, and is holding him at police headquarters on suspicion. Conway is to be turned over to the Omaha police today to be "mugged." It is thought by the police here that Conway was one of the leaders in the gang that made a number of hold-ups in South Omaha four years ago and escaped. Among them was that at Thompson's saloon, Twenty-fourth and K streets, and was also implicated in the Joe Egers affair. Both Thompson and Egers were held up their valuables taken from them, and then they were locked in the ice chest. The police here say that since leaving here four years ago Conway has served some time in prison.

Republican Rally Tonight. The republicans will hold a meeting at Thirty-sixth and U streets tonight. It is expected that several candidates will be present and deliver addresses. All those interested in the present campaign are invited to attend. Saturday night the republicans will hold a big meeting at Ancient Order of United Workmen hall, Twenty-fifth and M streets.

Postmaster Etter Returns. Postmaster Etter and his wife returned yesterday from Cambridge, Ill. Captain Etter was gone twenty days, this being the first vacation he had taken since being appointed postmaster some years ago. The trip was of great benefit to him, as he is in much better health than he was for some time before he left away. While in Illinois Captain and Mrs. Etter visited a number of old acquaintances and they said that they enjoyed the trip immensely.

Will Consider Proposition. There was some comment yesterday about the action of the council Wednesday night in directing the mayor and clerk to notify the agents for the building now occupied by the city that the structure would not be needed after December 1. On investigation it appears that this notice was served because the lease expires soon and that if such notice had not been given the agents could hold the city for another term of five years. As it is now it is up to the agents to see the council and make arrangements for a lease of one year, also some improvements. In the meantime the property committee is hustling for other quarters.

Chicken Fanciers Meet. Last night about fifteen chicken fanciers met in rooms in the South Omaha National bank building and perfected an organization. Clarence Goodin was chosen chairman. Other officers are to be elected at a meeting to be held on next Wednesday evening. All breeders of standard chickens are eligible to membership in this club. The object of the organization is to promote the breeding of first-class chickens in this section of the state.

Special Council Meeting. There was a called meeting of the city council last night. This meeting was for the purpose of passing the ordinance renewing $2,000 of district indebtedness bonds which fall due on November 1. The ordinance was given its third reading and passed and will be published today. Under the law the ordinance must be published before the issue is legal. These renewal bonds will bear the same rate of interest as the original bonds.

Clearing Sidewalks. Policemen in the business portion of the city were busy yesterday notifying merchants to confine themselves to the four-foot limit allowed by ordinance. The result of this crusade was that pedestrians were able to walk along the sidewalks and not be compelled to take to the streets in passing stores where merchandise has formerly been piled on the sidewalks. The officers serving notices said that the first violation of the ordinance would result in arrest and the usual fine.

Clothing On Credit. Buy now, pay later, if you wish a fall suit or overcoat and cannot spare the ready cash. You can come here and select anything you wish in the line of clothing—suits, hats or men's furnishing goods—and pay a little every pay day. Our prices are the same as if you paid spot cash. Suits from $5 to $25; overcoats from $7.50 to $25. Call and examine our stock of goods and investigate our terms.

PIONEER CLOTHING CO., 335 N Street, South Omaha.

Magic City Gossip. Mr. and Mrs. Roger Bourke are visiting friends in Chicago.

Mr. E. Miller has returned from a visit at North Platte, Neb.

Patrick O'Day, Twenty-sixth and Jefferson streets, reports the birth of a son.

A. V. Miller has returned from a western trip, where he went to look after property interests.

There was a son born yesterday to Dr. and Mrs. Dana Dimond, Twenty-fourth and N streets.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gilbert, Twenty-fifth and M streets, report the birth of a daughter.

Coroner Hixley will hold an inquest this afternoon at the Brewer morgue over the remains of J. S. Scully.

Packers say that there is no probability of the reopening of the old Hammond plant for some time to come.

The East Side Press club will give a dance on Tuesday evening at Workman temple, Twenty-fifth and M streets.

You don't know all the comforts of good underwear if you haven't worn the Style The Flynn Food and Clothing House.

The Baptist union will hold a rummage sale on November 3 and 5, at the southeast corner of Twenty-fourth and N streets.

Mrs. Oscar Bruggman, 72 North Twenty-fourth street, is recovering from an illness which kept her confined to her bed for a week.

Marsh of the Young Men's Christian association, will entertain the members of the boys' department at his home this evening.

Clover Leaf Camp No. 8, Royal Neighbors of America, will give an entertainment and dance on Thursday evening, November 12, at the Modern Woodmen hall.

METHODISTS MAKING READY

Local Preparations to Entertain the General Missionary Committee.

PLANS PLACED IN ACTIVE HANDS

Presiding Elder Jennings and His Assistants Have Mapped Out the Work They Must Do Next Week.

The local ministry of the Methodist Episcopal church is busy with arrangements for the coming general missionary committee meeting, which convenes in this city November 12, and in preparation for which a great deal of work is necessary.

The Methodist Preachers' union has held several meetings and has appointed members to committees which will divide among themselves the work. To these pastors all persons having any interest or wishing information can apply. To Presiding Elder J. W. Jennings is left the arrangement of pulpit supplies and program. The committees are as follows:

Entertainment and Finance—Rev. D. K. Tindall, E. C. Smith, M. A. Head, William Gorst, John Crews, J. W. Jennings, and Messrs. C. W. Delamater, John Dale, J. W. Nicholson, C. A. Goss, W. H. Tindall, C. E. Allen.

Local Transportation—Revs. A. Z. Michael, H. Danilisen, W. D. Stambaugh. Hotel Rates for Visitors—Revs. C. C. Caspell, George H. Main, William Esplin. Postoffice—Rev. Thomas S. Watson.

Comment on the Meeting. Of the Omaha meeting the Central Christian Advocate of October 28, published at Kansas City, has this to say:

November 12 the general missionary committee meets in Omaha. This is the great benevolence. It handles and contemplates the entire globe and studies the globe, land by land. In ten years the society has disbursed over $12,000,000. Thirteen million dollars paid to missionaries in every land to help bring this old world to Christ.

This year there will be much to hear about. Thrilling speeches from returned missionaries, bishops and others will be heard in the meetings in Omaha. There will be present the bishops, Secretaries Leonard and Carroll, Recording Secretary Benton, Treasurers Estlin and Jennings, Assistant Secretaries Smyth and Glickman, Field Secretaries Floyd, Taylor and Trimble, the representatives of the board and similar representatives of the fourteen general conference districts, returned missionaries, the superintendents of missions and similar conferences to give information as to the needs of the field. There will be simultaneous meetings in the various churches in Omaha and Council Bluffs.

JUDGE BEFORE GRAND JURY

Presiding Judge of the St. Louis Court of Appeals Gives Testimony.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 29.—The federal grand jury, which has been investigating naturalization frauds and other matters, is expected to make its final report tomorrow. It is said that the report will probably involve some of the "get-rich-quick" schemes that have been operating in the city. The investigation of some of these schemes is the result of instructions given by Judge E. E. Adams on the day the grand jury was impaneled.

Judge Charles C. Bland, presiding judge of the St. Louis court of appeals, was before the jury.

TENTING ON CAMP GROUNDS

Empires at Maneuvers Test Ability of Officers to Care for Men.

FORT RILEY, Kan., Oct. 28.—Camp Sanger was a quiet place today. The severe marching of yesterday had its effect on both officers and men, and nobody was disposed to move around greatly in excess of the requirements of routine duty.

In the afternoon all the forces in camp moved out, and were now in the camp for the night. The Blues, under Colonel Argue of the Tenth cavalry, comprising the Second and Twenty-first infantry, the battalion of engineers acting as infantry, the Eighth cavalry, one squadron of the Tenth cavalry and two batteries, are on the bank of the Republican river; and the Browns, commanded by Lieutenant Colonel Wheeler of the Second infantry, and consisting of the Sixth, Twenty-fifth and Twelfth infantry, the Fourth cavalry, one squadron of the Tenth cavalry and two batteries, are camped along the road between this place and Junction City.

Immediately after reaching their bivouac outposts were established for the day, dispositions for an outpost at night were made and in the morning outposts for the day will be re-established.

The night was hard upon the outposts, who were charged with the duty of visiting the outposts at all hours and seeing if they were properly maintained. The weather during the early part of the night was fortunately of a milder character than the majority of nights at Fort Riley of late.

ARRESTS BRITISH SKIPPER

He is Charged with Felony for Refusing to Help to Deport Sailors.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 28.—Upon complaint of United States Immigration inspector Thomas Crawford a warrant was sworn out today before United States Commissioner Pascoe, charging E. Williams, master of the British ship Ivership, with a felony in refusing to take on board of his vessel John Hiley, John Davis and William Sheehan, the three British sailors ordered deported pursuant to the terms of instructions recently made by Secretary of Commerce and Labor Cortleson. His bonds were fixed at $2,500.

ARMENIAN CAUGHT AT BOSTON

Arrested on Charge of Being Implicated in the Murder of Sagounoy.

BOSTON, Oct. 30.—On the arrival of the steamer Ivernia from Liverpool at its dock today Yelton Krikorian, an Armenian, was arrested at the request of Scotland Yard on the charge of being an accessory to the fact of the murder of Sagounoy on Tuesday, Krikorian claimed that his object in coming here was to attend Harvard, but on being searched only $5 was found in his possession. He will be arraigned before a United States commissioner tomorrow.

To All Catarrh Sufferers

Hymel Guaranteed to Cure by Sherman & McConnell Drug Co., Cor 16th and Dodge Sts., or Money Refunded.

The popularity and increase in the sales of Hymel are unique in the annals of medicine. Such astonishing cures have been made by this remarkable remedy that the proprietors have authorized Sherman & McConnell Drug Co., to sell every package of Hymel under an absolute guarantee that it will cure catarrh. If it does not, the purchaser can have his money refunded by Sherman & McConnell Drug Co.

Hymel is no ordinary remedy. It is the only method of treatment that sends by direct inhalation to the most remote part of the air passages, a balsamic air that destroys all catarrhal germs in the breathing organs, enriches and purifies the blood with additional ozone, and makes permanent and complete cures of catarrh.

The complete Hymel outfit costs but $1.00 and consists of an inhaler that can be carried in the vest pocket, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hymel. The inhaler lasts a lifetime, and if one bottle does not cure, an extra bottle of Hymel can be obtained for 50 cents. It is the most economical of all remedies advertised for the cure of catarrh, and is the only one that follows nature in her method of treating diseases of the respiratory organs.

Breathe through the inhaler for a few minutes four times a day and your catarrh is cured. That's all. If not cured, Sherman & McConnell Drug Co. will refund your money.

AT THE PLAYHOUSES.

"At Cripple Creek" at the Krug.

The bill for the last act of the week at the Krug, "At Cripple Creek," details what might have happened in a mining camp in the event that any such things ever did happen. It has the local color gathered by the author, Hal Reid, during a summer spent at Denver, and mingles a host of characters, white, black, red and yellow, without regard for actual conditions. It is put together with considerable skill, for Mr. Reid certainly knows how to write a "thriller," and is acted by the company having it in hand with vim and dash. A large audience witnessed its first production last night and fairly made the Krug ring with its plaudits, particularly at the end of the third act, where the plot to blow up the mine is thwarted and the villains are sent to final defeat. Two more nights and a matinee end the engagement.
