Wants Senate to Conduct Investigation Into Affairs of Postoffics.

SENATOR MORGAN SCORES PRESIDENT

Says Chief Executive Has Pailed to Carry Out Terms of Spooner Act and Ignores Act of Congress.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.-In the senate Mr. Carmack (Tenn.) today offered a res- ate committee agreed upon in the republolution authorizing the committee on con- lean caucus today. The democratic memduct of the executive departments to in- bership heretofore has been published: vestigate the Postoffice department. It went over, without discussion, until tomor-

Today's session began with the presentation of a resolution by Mr. Allison (Iq.) providing for the appointment of Rev. F. J. Prettyman of this city for chaplain of the senate for the present session. The resolution was agreed to.

Mr. Cullom (III.) presented the report of the committee on foreign relations on the bill to carry into effect the Cuban reciprocity treaty. The bill went to the calen-

Mr. Hale (Me.) then moved to seconsider the vote by which the Newlands resolutions for the annexation of Cuba was referred to the committee on relations with Cuba. He made the motion the basis of a speech in opposition to the policy proposed by the resolution, saving that this country had already declared its policy with reference to Cuba by enacting the Teller resolution into law. He would not extend such an invitation to Great Britain for the annexation of Canada to the United States. In this nection Mr. Hale said incidentally he had no doubt that there were men who would live to see the annexation of Canada to the United States. He closed by urging the senate to take no step to clog progress

In Cuba Mr. Newlands (Nev.) expressed gratification that his resolution should have so early attracted attention. He agreed with Mr. Hale in much that he had said concerning the progress of Cuba and the character of its people. Still it was a fact that Cuba had been compelled to confess its inability to cope with other nations in business affairs. He also referred to the conession of the privilege granted to the United States for erecting fortifications on Cuban soil and to our supervisions of the foreign relations of the island, as well as to the conduct of its sanitary affairs, and said that as a matter of fact Cuba had already assumed the attitude of a ward of the United States. He also advanced the argument that in asking a reduction of the duty on Cuban products exported to the duty on Cuban products exported to the United States, Cuba was making an exceptional request and he thought we would respond by offering political rather than commercial union.

In Interest of Caha.

For himself, he had in mind Cuba's interests in presenting the resolution and he wanted it understood that he represented no Spanish Dons or American spees ulators. He had offered the resolution in no spirit of spoilation, but because he had believed that the measure would appeal to the good sense of both the Americans and Cubans.

Mr. Newlands said that he had provided for the streetheast of Porto-Rice to Cubans.

for the attachment of Porto-Rico to Cuba as a county or province in the conviction that such a union would give the smaller teland of stability of government which it could not otherwise acquire.

Mr. Platt (Conn.) said he did not believe the Newlands resolution represented the business sentiment of the United States and that its introduction caused uneasiness Cubs and Porto-Rico. He hoped that there would be no growth of expansion sentiment. He believed that the best interests of the United States and Cuba would be observed by separate existence.

Mr. Lodge (Mass.) expressed the opinion that the present debate would embarrass other Cuban matters and said that the resopution did not represent the wishes of the government of the United States.

Morgan on Panama Canal.

Cuban debate concluded at 2:10 and Mr. Hale presented the list of committees as agreed upon by the republican and democratic caucuses. When the last of the committees was read Mr. Morgan said he did not regret being removed as chairman of the Interocean committee. He then discussed recent canal affairs at some

Mr. Morgan discussed the presidents who had favored an isthmian canal and he followed many republican presidents on the ger. Ball. aubject as well as officers of the army and navy. He said that he had no doubt a canal would be built at Panama "because they said so." Mr. Morgan said President Roosevelt has used his official position to advance his personal views. One man in the presidential office might be able to crush all opposition, but it remained to be seen whether he could crush the statutes of congress.

The president had appealed to party prejudice and in doing so showed strong symtoms of heart failure. The revolution in the isthmus was a Caesarian operation. Mr. Morgan criticised the good faith of the president in not enforcing the Spooner resolution. The president, he said, had completed his campaign against that act house leaders regarding the published program of the senate to take a vote on the Cuban bill on December 16, and adjourn the present session within a few days. Such action is declared to be a reflection on the president who assembled congress in extra session and emphasized the necessity of immediate action on the Cuban measure. Should the senate transmit to the house a resolution for adjournment of the special session the disposition of that body will be to ignore the reso lution on the ground that there is not a quorum present to consider it.

WASHINGTON, Nov. E.-The annual report of Commissioner of Indian Affairs Jones, advocates the education of the indian in the rudiments of the English language and that he be taught that he must work or starve. The commissioner thinks this policy in a generation or more will regenerate the race, and that the Indian should be protected only to the extent that he may gain confidence in himself.

There were 257 Indian schools in opera tion during the year, ninety-one being reservation boarding schools, twenty-six nonreservation and 140 day schools. The enoliment of pupils was 24,357 and employes umbered 2,382. Mr. Jones strongly deunced the "sun" and other "religious" dances of the Indians, and says that sworn reports of eye witnesses to these performces show the yare revolting in the extreme. A total of $757,173 has been paid to the Indians for their inherited lands under the act of May 27, 1902.

Campbell Must Explain. The secretary of the interior has suspended from office D. F.
