Think Only Two Battles Fought.

A careful study of the reports that have reached America and Europe from the east, including press dispatches and communications through official channels, would indicate that but two actual conflicts of any moment have so far occurred. These are the Japanese naval attack on Port Arthur on Monday night and Tuesday morning and the affair at Chemulpo on Monday and conditions in that part of the world allows them to speak with accuracy the various reports of other engagements are considered but echoes of these two fights. News travels slowly in north China. Cable and telegraph facilities are limited is evident that as reand -11 of the Port Arthur and Cheports sulpo affairs reach various points they are promptly cabled by resident correspondents, resulting in a natural confusion of dates. The circumstantial report of another engagement, sent by the Reuter Telegram company from Tokio, under date of February 10, published in this country yesterday afternoon, also undoubtedly referred to the original Port Arthur engagement. news of which had just reached Tokio. This belief is strentghened by the fact that no official confirmation has been received of subsequent engagements, and it is pointed out that such official advices were received through the various embassies at Washington promptly on the heels of the press reports of the events of Monday and Tuesday.

Disregard Rumors of Battles.

The flood of conflicting dispatches from various north China points during the Boxer revolution is recalled.

For this reason the report cabled by the Tien Tsin correspondent of the London Standard that a Russian fleet had bombarded Hakodate is entirely disregarded. Naval men in this city say that so far as known the only Russian vessels in position to make a move are those at Vladivostok, and that it cannot for a moment be thought that they would be withdrawn from the defense of the important depot, even if they are free from the ice and not blocked up by a Japanese squadron, as re- to Mukden. They profess to have no doubt ported. In view of the fact that there is cable communication between Japan and China, except by way of Shanghai, it is, to say the least, improbable that such important news would be first heard in the inland town of Tien Tsin.

The official notice sent out last night from St. Petersburg that the cable from Vladivostok to Nagasaki, the telegraph line from Seoul to Masampho and the telegraph line from Seoul to Won San are broken, limits communication with Japan to the cables that land at Shanghal, which are under Japanese consorship. This is additional reason to discredit the vague reports of further engagements.

Tokio Has no Official Reports.

LONDON, Feb. 12 .- The Japanese minister here, Baron Hayashi, has received a dispatch from the government at Tokio announcing that the latter has not yet received an official report of the battle fought off Port Arthur, and ad-ling that apparently tics almost exactly similar to those inproceeding satisfactorily and without disorder at Chemulpo, the port of Seoul, Korea, and elsewhere.

When we read that saying of Caesar's, "Veni, vidi, vid," we think of his conquering career through Germany and Gaul. When we read of that saying of Napoleon's to his troops in the shadow of the pyramids, "forty centuries look down upon you," we think of one whose chief ambition was to conquer empires. When we read the words of Daniel Web-ster, "union and liberty, one and insep-arable, now and forever," we think of the masterly statesmen whose fervent hope was that the federal union might be perpetual. When we read the words of Abraham Lincoln, in his second inaugural address, "with malice toward none, with charity for al." we think of a patriot, whose but whose would then forgive his erring brethen. retained it. At 6:10 Senator Hanna's brother on leaving the sick room said: "Mark had a very severe chill, but is slowly coming out of it under the influence of powerful stimulants and oxygen. His temperature is lower and he is breathing better.'

Prior to this those coming from the sick oom scarcely knew what to say regarding the senator's condition, so much depended on his power to rally. It was stated several times that his breathing was better, but at first it could not be told whether the breathing was natural or superficial and only induced by the oxygen. Later the bulletin announcing the reaction and improved condition was issued by the doctors, giving relief to the large number of the senator's friends who were in his office and in the corridors of the Arlington.

Gain in Business the Past Year.

NEW YORK, Feb. 12 .- (Special Telegram.) In the face of the general depression in Anancial circles and the shrinkage in infustrial and other securities, no better evidence of the general prosperity of the country and the thrift of the people could e given than is contained in the recently ublished statement of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company. This company shows a great gain in assets and, notwithstanding market depression, a handsome gain in surplus. It issued in 1903 $338.859,-074 of new insurances, a larger amount than that issued by any company in the world. It has done this for the last ten cars. It has 7,528,915 policies in force, which is a larger number than is held by all the other regular life insurance companles in America put together, less one; equivalent to policies on one-tenth of the total population of the United States, greater than the combined population of wenty-nine states and territories, or, as the report puts it, greater than the combined population of Greater New York. Chicago, Philadelphia, Boston and St. Louis. When one realizes that an average of one out of every ten human beings, men, women and children, one passes on the street is insured in the Metropolitan Life he widespread beneficence of this great ompany can be appreciated. The income of the Metropolitan Life in 1903 was $49,887,804.11 and it paid out to colley holders and added to its reserve fund $98,582.76 every business day of the past year. The company now holds avaits of $105,656,311.60 for the benefit of its po'ly olders and a reserve fund consisting of capital and surplus over and above every iability of $10,691,872. The success of the Metropolitan has been so great that i recently announced a special dividend. which will amount to about $650,000 (in addition to over four and a half millions paid in the past seven years), for certain classes of policy holders who had continued with the company-a dividend not nominated in the insurance contract and which is A windfall to the policy holders. The growth of this company from $63,000,000 in 1883 to $1,342,381,457 of insurance in force in 1908 is one of the wonders of the insurance world.
