SPRING TERM

OF THE

Omaha Commercial College

17th and Douglas Sts.

ROHRBOUGH BROS., Prop's.

Opens April 1. As usual new classes will be organized n all departments. It will be a good time to begin.

GENERAL INFORMATION,

Government Examination.

The U. S. Government recently issued a call for twenty telegraph operators. Four of our students took the examination and passed a high grade, as a result they received their appointments and given a salary of $65 per month. No greater compliment could be paid our Telegraph Department.

Courses of Study. Regular Business, Shorthand, Typewriting, Telegraphy, English, Normal, Penman-ship and Pen Art.

Mosher Shorthand. An improvement upon the Gregg. Easy to learn, easy to write and easy to read.

New text, now ready. Shorthand Journal just out. First three copies free. Send name and address. New Students Now Entering.

Good time to begin. Students coming in right along. SEND FOR CATALOGUE AND ILLUSTRATED CIRCULERS has done this very thing. The management desires it distinctly understood, however, that it does not, never did, and never will, advocate or teach a 'greased lightning, easy to learn, easy to write, and easy to read" system of shorthand; that it does not know any royal road or short cut to a scientific knowledge of accounting; that it does not solicit students who are not earnest, wide-awake and progressive.

COLLEGE NOTES. aken. A more enthusiastic body of students would be difficult to find. A number of new students will enter Monday. The work is so arranged that tudents may enter any time and progress as rapidly as their ability will permit, During the past month the young men have been taken in squads to the county cords and given practical explanations of the work, records of deeds, mortgages,

They appreciated the work very much. There were over forty students in the advanced class of shorthand on March 1 out the demand for the graduates during the past week has been so great that many have gone into positions. On Friday we had ten calls for permanent and temporary positions. Four students will go into permanent positions Monday. The following are the names who answered the calls mentioned above: Miss Carey, Miss Bartos, Miss Glennan, Miss Youngs, Miss O'Connor, Miss Hacket, Mr. Dalzell, Mr. Hutchings, Miss Crawford, Miss Hollandsworth, Mr. Eckstrom and

From the above record it is self-evident as to what is being accomplished for the students of this institution. The business men have learned from experience what school to call on for competent, thoroughly trained help. We had two calls from the Standard Oil company last week. This makes six of our graduates placed in permanent positions with this company within the last You have only to examine the merits of this school; ask any student, ex-student business man and you will be convinced of the thoroughness of the work done.
