WORKING FOR SUCCESS.

235 Students in SHORTHAND and TYPEWRITING ALONE Are Preparing For Success Now in

BOYLES COLLEGE

235 students are being made into expert shorthand writers and lightning, accurate typewriter operators, by NINE INS-TRUCTORS, who know by actual, hard experience just what ability and what knowledge a stenographer MUST have to secure a position where promotion will hold out its hand-where the cashier will hand out a fast envelope on pay day.

Is there one other school in Omaha with one-half 235 students in these two branches? We think not.

Is there another school out of Omaha between Chicago and Another leading business college has adopted it; others will do so in the near future. It is growing rapidly in popularity. No one who examines it will ever want to San Francisco that has 235 students in SHORTHAND AND TYPEWRITING ALONE?

We know not.

Quantity of enrollment proves quality of course-of instruction-of methods.
