AUDITOR SETS DOWN ON JUNKET BILL

Lincoln Business Men to Make a Tour of the Northwestern Territory in Interest of Trade of Capital City.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, March 13-(Special.)-Mayo Adams and Attorney James Maunhan, at one time democratic cominces for congress had a fight in the county courtroom this morning and both live to tell the tale. I started over the payment of some costs in a case in which both were interested and ended by Judge Waters stepping between the belligerents.

His honor, who is considered well fit to hold his own in the heavyweight class called Manahan a "flar." The little "bantam" promptly responded with that good old democratic argument, "you're another. The big man then let fly his fist, but by this time Manahan was doing the windmill act with both hands and the huge project tile was brushed lightly aside. This ended round one, with the mayor's temperature the case. Gould was a preacher, married at 125 and Manahan Wat 1.2. Pulse of both and the father of seven children. He was mapld.

Neither showed marks of the encounter and neither spilled blood.

Allows for No Junkets.

In discussing state affairs this morning Auditor Weston said he did not intend to Lindsay would be able to leave the hos- willow-covered sandbars, apparently with allow any claims for junket trips that the legislature had not specifically provided for by appropriation. The auditor holds ters and beginning his campaign work, that if the legislature wanted any state but was taken with a fresh cold, which made of the unfertile tract, either on the officer or employe or appointee to make a gave him a severe setback. trip it would have made an appropriation to pay the expenses.

There has been much controversy over the allowance of claims and the stand Auditor Weston took in turning down the claim of the three officers of the National Guard by reason of their trip to Florida has been favorably commented upon over the state. Recently the State Board of Publie Lands and Buildings sent out a committee, including Architect Tyler, to look up normal school buildings, and one of the members filed his claim for allowance. It was intimated that Auditor Weston would refuse to allow this and the member withdrew It

Judging from the condition of the body, the act must have been committed Saturday or possibly Friday night Tha lies seen of him was in this city on Friday afternoon. A neighbor, "noting the fact that there had been no signs of life at the place, called and upon looking through the window saw the man suspended to a rope, with the knees almost touching the floor. A brother, residing at some distance, and neighbors were summoned and they decided to immediately call the coroner. Coroner Sutherland and Sheriff Taylor returned late last night from the scene and found that no inquest was necessary. Thode had up to two years ago lived with his mother and after her death lived alone. He was very much attached to his mother. Her estate still being in an unsettled condition of affairs, owing to differences of opinion among some of the heirs, he is said to have brooded over the affair generally, though he never gave any indication of taking his own life.

He was a member of Harmony lodge, Ancient Order of United Workmen, his mother, though dead for two years, still being named in the policy as the beneficiary. He leaves two brothers, one residing in this county and one in the southeastern part of the state, and some relatives in Iowa. The family moved from Davenport, Ia., to this county in 1884. He was 52 years of age and was born in Schleswig-Holstein, Germany.
