

FORGER DOES DARING TRICK

Gets Money Order Cashed by Company Offering Reward for Him.

LATER CAUGHT BY OFFICER HEELAN

Despite This and that Picture Adorns Wall, He Enters American Express Office and Draws Cash.

John Lane, who is said to be one of the smoothest crooks in the country, yesterday succeeded in getting the cashier at the office of the American Express company to cash a $50 money order for him.

Lane was arrested at the Union station shortly after 2:30 p. m. He was found to have $500 in money and several large diamonds in his possession. He admitted to the police his guilt, saying he "could see a long Lane before him."

Several express company officials were watching the train in an attempt to identify the man if he should try to escape from the city. It was Officer Heelan, however, who made the arrest, and it is thought he will receive the reward offered of $500. Lane had a small valise and had changed his headgear for a new straw hat. He admitted working under various aliases given in addition to John Lane, George W. Edwards, George W. Cayer, George W. Hees, James Keigh and A. S. Keigh.

The man travels under the name of John Lane and several other aliases. He walked into the express office soon after the opening hour this morning and presented an order drawn to John Lane with the name of the remitter given as William Lane. The cashier had some hesitancy in cashing the order and asked Lane to give some reference or secure someone to identify him. After some explanation on the part of Lane the order was finally cashed and Lane walked out with the money.

Find Picture Afterward. Five minutes after the money had been paid over it was found that the man's picture circled the wall of the express office and that the company had long since offered a reward of $500 for him, which now stands. The money order cashed was one of a number which had been stolen from the offices of the company in another city and on the reward circular the numbers of the stolen order blanks were given and among them was the number of the order cashed.

Lane's home is said to be in Newark, N. J., and it is also said that he has been cashing the orders in all parts of the country, but has never before shown the nerve he displayed here by entering one of the offices of the company to secure money. He has heretofore been in the habit of getting the orders cashed in banks and business places.

While Lane is said to be a very smooth individual with his conversation, his picture on the reward circular shows him to be a very rough and uncouth looking person with a criminal appearance. One of the clerks in the express office who noticed Lane at the cashier's desk happened to notice the circular immediately after he left, and it was thus that the identification came about.

T. H. FONDA RESIGNS HIS PLACE

Leaves Burlington, Where He Has Been Many Years as Depot Ticket Agent.

T. H. Fonda, depot ticket agent for the Burlington, has handed in his resignation, which will take effect June 1. Mr. Fonda has been with the road for many years and believes the time has come for him to take a much needed rest.

E. A. Elmiger, who has been assistant in the depot ticket office, will take the position made vacant by the resignation of Mr. Fonda, and W. L. Harper, who has been ticket agent for the company at Council Bluffs, will become assistant at the local depot. Just who will fill the vacancy in the Council Bluffs office has not been made public.

NEW SCHEDULE FOR DUNDEE

Twenty-Minute Service Throughout the Day Will be Instituted First of June.

The Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Railway company is to inaugurate a new schedule on the Dundee line beginning June 1. This will give the people of that suburb a twenty-minute service during the whole day, instead of one car every half hour. The first car under the new schedule will leave Dundee at 5:30 in the morning and on Sunday mornings at 6:30 o'clock. The last car at night will leave Dundee at the end of the line at 12:30 o'clock. For those from Dundee the last car will leave Sixteenth and Farnam streets at 12:10 o'clock.

PEOPLE DESTITUTE IN YAZOO

Five Hundred Homeless Victims of the Fire, but No Official Call for Aid.

YAZOO CITY, Miss., May 28.—A committee headed by Mayor Holmes reported today that 500 families lost their homes in the fire and that one-half of that number were destitute. The committee declined to body without killing the tissues, too. There is nothing else known which will do that. Any drug that kills germs is a poison, and it cannot be taken internally. For that reason, medicine is practically helpless in any germ disease.

Liquozone is so certain that we publish on every bottle an offer of $1,000 for a disease germ that it cannot kill. The reason is that germs are vegetable, and an excess of oxygen—the very life of an animal—is deadly to vegetable matter. Liquozone is certain destruction to the cause of a germ trouble, yet to the human body it is the most helpful thing in the world.

We paid $100,000 for the American rights to Liquozone, because this product alone can end a germ disease.

Germ Diseases

These are the known germ diseases. All that medicine can do for these troubles is to help nature overcome the germs, and such results are indirect and uncertain. Liquozone kills the germs, wherever they are, and the results are inevitable. By destroying the cause of the trouble it invariably ends the disease, and forever.

What Liquozone Is

Liquozone is the result of a process which, for more than 20 years, has been the constant subject of scientific and chemical research. Its virtues are derived solely from gas—largely oxygen gas—by a process requiring immense apparatus and 14 days' time. Each cubic inch of Liquozone represents the virtues of 1,250 cubic inches of the gas. The result is a product which does what oxygen does. Oxygen is the nerve food, the blood food, the scavenger of the blood. It is the very source of vitality, the most essential element of life. But oxygen is a gas and unstable, while Liquozone is fixed and concentrated. It gets an excess of oxygen virtues into the blood, to go wherever the blood goes. The result is a vitalizing tonic with which no other known product can compare.

Kills Inside Germs

But the great value of Liquozone lies in the fact that it kills germs in the

PRICE WARS NOT PROBABLE

General Coal Sales Agent of the Reading Testifies Before the Commission.

NEW YORK, May 28.—More coal purchase contracts, said to be identical in form with two-score other contracts previously introduced, were produced today by G. T. Brownell, general counsel for the Erie railroad, when the Interstate Commerce commission held its usual session of the present series of hearings on the alleged coal combination pact.

Thomas F. Richards, general coal sales agent of the Philadelphia & Reading, said there existed a better feeling today among the railroads with reference to their coal interests than formerly. The petty jealousies had decreased and this in a measure explained why prices were better maintained than in past years. Conditions were such that price wars were not probable.

"I believe," he said, "the coal under late rail contracts is not carried at a loss."

SHORT LINE TO TAKE CHARGE

Southern Pacific Will Turn Over Operating Department Between Reno and Ogden.

RENO, Nev., May 28.—A trainload of officials of the Southern Pacific and the Oregon Short Line visited Reno today and made final arrangements for turning the operating department of the Southern Pacific from Reno to Ogden to the Short Line people. General Manager Markham, who succeeded Julius Kruttschnitt, was a member of the party. The operating by the Southern Pacific company will end one mile east of the city limits, at which point the railroad line will change, instead of at Ogden, as at present.

CADETS FINISH EXERCISES

West Point Military Academy Closed Until the Return of the Class.

WEST POINT, May 27.—The exercises at the Military academy closed today until after the return of the cadets from St. Louis on July 13. Four special trains are required to transport the expedition. Two will be sent out tonight, carrying a troop of cavalry, civilian employes, horses, mules, tents and baggage. The two trains carrying the cadets will leave tomorrow.

GOULD WILL ENTER POLITICS

Railroad Magnate Will Try for a Seat in Republican House of Representatives.

NEW YORK, May 28.—The World tomorrow will say that republican politicians received with much satisfaction yesterday a report that George J. Gould is about to enter politics and that he will try at the forthcoming election for a seat in the house of representatives from the district in New Jersey which embraces Lakewood, where he has his country seat.

PRISONER HAS A RECORD

Man Arrested in Nebraska Wanted for Twenty Burglaries and a Jail Delivery.

KALAMAZOO, Mich., May 28.—Edward Quinn was arrested in Fremont, Neb., at the request of Sheriff Shipman of Kalamazoo. Quinn, alias Quig, is charged with implication in twenty burglaries, a jail delivery and a daring escape from a sheriff at Grand Rapids, Mich.

Lame Back

This ailment is usually caused by rheumatism of the muscles and may be cured by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm two or three times a day and rubbing the parts vigorously if each application. If this does not afford relief, bind on a piece of flannel, slightly dampened with Pain Balm, and quick relief is almost sure to follow.

Movements of Ocean Vessels May 27.

At New York—Sailed: Arabis, for Liverpool. Arrived: Lucania, from Liverpool. At Baltimore—Sailed: Siberian, for Glasgow and Liverpool. Arrived: Philadelphia, from Leghorn. Arrived: Perugia, from New York. At Hamburg—Arrived: Romania, from New York. At Marseilles—Arrived: Romanic, from Boston. At Copenhagen—Arrived: Hoela, from New York. At Newport—Arrived: Minnesota, from London via Philadelphia. Bostonian, from Boston. At Auckland—Sailed: Ventura, from Sydney. N. S. W., for San Francisco. At Sydney, N. S. W.—Arrived: Sierra, from San Francisco. At Rotterdam—Arrived: Rotterdam, from New York. At Havre—Arrived: La Bretagne, from New York. At Southampton—Sailed: Deutschland, from Hamburg for New York. At Liverpool—Arrived: Montclair, from Montreal. At Boston—Sailed: Campania, from New York. At Queenstown—Sailed: Republic, from Liverpool for Boston. Arrived: Cymric, from Boston for Liverpool. Campania, from New York. At Southampton—Sailed: Deutschland, from Hamburg for New York.

REED ANSWERS HIS CRITICS

County Assessor Explains Charges Made from Lincoln of Unfair Assessment.

LAUGHS AT IDEA OF LOSING HIS OFFICE

Says Lancaster County Folks Are Talking Nonsense and Explains Some Things Miller Evidently Had Forgotten.

County Assessor Harry Reed takes the view that the Lincoln Commercial club is to have him removed from office with characteristic and smiling equanimity.

"Folks who do not know what they are going to do to me, ain't it?" he remarked when asked as to what he had to say in answer to the charges that he is extending protection to the big firms of the city in the matter of the assessment of their property.

"Do you know," he mused with much deliberation, "I've heard so much kicking that I rather like it. I wouldn't feel like myself unless there was something doing in this line. I'm particularly well fixed just now, too, for the merchants here are going to have me removed if I don't cut down their assessments and the Lincoln fellows are going to have me thrown out unless I put 'em up. Now, what's a man going to do?" he asked, with mock despair.

"Still," he continued cheerfully, "for a man who is as unmistakably between his satanic majesty and the deep sea as I am, I must say that I feel pretty good."

Mr. Reed felt much more inclined to talk about the big bowling score that was made Friday night than about the axe that the Lincoln reports would indicate is hanging over his head and seemed to consider it of more importance, but was finally switched back to the first subject.

Do the Best He Can.

"What am I going to do? Why, I'm going to do my work the best I can, provided, of course, that I hold my job," and then he swung his chair around and looked at the critics.

"All this talk about the difference between the assessments of concerns here and those in Lincoln is nonsense, every bit of it, and for several good reasons. In the first place, it is altogether premature. I do not even know, officially, what the concerns in Omaha have been assessed by the deputies, though, as a matter of fact, the figures that the Lincoln Commercial club has used are correct and were obtained from me. But none of the returns will be made until Monday, as the law provides. I have done absolutely nothing as yet in an official capacity, and it strikes me that it might be well to wait until I have done something, one way or the other, before I am removed from office, one of the dire threats made are carried out."

Gave Miller the Figures.

"Mr. Miller, the Lincoln assessor, came to me and I gave him the facts and figures and information that he has printed. I also gave him some other facts and figures and information quite as important, which he has not even known, officially, what that I thought the assessment made by the deputies in very many instances with regard to the big retail concerns of the city was too low and stated to him that I had already slated for a raise every one of those he quotes as too low when the figures should be raised to me. You notice, however, that he doesn't say anything about this part of our conversation. Being an assessor he knows not only that the figures of the deputies are not turned over to me until Monday and that after that time I am allowed ten days in which to go over them and make such changes in the line of raises or reductions as I deem proper. He knows furthermore that after I am through with the figures they go to the Board of Equalization before which latter body any interested person can look at it and make such objections against the figures or the assessor or anybody else that he wants to, and he knows, finally, or ought to if he is a competent assessor, that the final conclusion of the Board of Equalization determines what the property shall be assessed at and that this conclusion is not arrived at until the 1st of July or thereafter. Then do I make my report to the state auditor and if I have done anything wrong that is the time to bring it up."

Not a Fair Comparison.

"When they say Hayden Bros.' assessment, for instance, should be four times as high, because some Lincoln concerns have voluntarily handed in $117,000, they are talking more nonsense. Neither Hayden Bros. nor the deputy who took their assessment nor am I responsible for what some Lincoln concern has turned in, nor is this comparison a fair one in any light that you can look at it. It is like comparing the apples in the line of raises or reductions as I deem proper. He knows furthermore that after I am through with the figures they go to the Board of Equalization before which latter body any interested person can look at it and make such objections against the figures or the assessor or anybody else that he wants to, and he knows, finally, or ought to if he is a competent assessor, that the final conclusion of the Board of Equalization determines what the property shall be assessed at and that this conclusion is not arrived at until the 1st of July or thereafter. Then do I make my report to the state auditor and if I have done anything wrong that is the time to bring it up."

Retrieving Lost Ground.

Suddenly, in 1883, Quay startled the state by announcing himself a candidate for treasurer. He had been quietly maturing his plans for months. He saw that he was sliding down hill, and he dared a desperate leap. He wrote letters to his friends in all parts of the state, and announced his candidacy. He was elected treasurer in 1883.

Senator Quay Dead

(Continued from First Page.)

become again secretary of state under Governor Hoyt, but he gave up the secretaryship in anger when Hoyt threw himself into the independent movement which defeated General Beaver in 1882.

From 1882 to 1883 Quay was in eclipse. He and C. L. Magee, the young Pittsburgh lawyer, had run for the office of treasurer in the former year. They crossed swords in the convention and Quay was badly beaten. It came to be noised abroad that Magee was closer to Cameron than Quay. Cameron had taken no part in the fight, but he was in the city and the little he was traveling in Europe for his health, he sent his proxy as a member of the national committee to Magee. Quay did not go to the national committee that year.

Brings Over Thirteen Thousand Dollars.

Portrait Little Over an Inch Across

As soon as the first successful test of the alrship is made outside the shop it will be separated into five sections and prepared for shipment to the St. Louis exposition.

Big Price for a Miniature

Portrait Little Over an Inch Across

As soon as the first successful test of the alrship is made outside the shop it will be separated into five sections and prepared for shipment to the St. Louis exposition.

LONDON DOING ITS WORST

Showing Weather Sharks Just What It Can Do in Its Line.

(Copyright, 1904, by Press Publishing Co.) LONDON, May 28.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—The leading meteorologists of Europe assembled here this week confessed themselves wretchedly by the samples of London weather they have experienced.

"Two days of biting east wind were followed by two of steam heat, so that the slightest exertion led to utter exhaustion, and the atmosphere was that of a tropical swamp. Then on Friday torrential rain was succeeded by absolute darkness at 10 o'clock in the morning, which fell in about three minutes. The electric lights were turned on everywhere, but the voltage not being sufficient, the lamps only gave a dim glimmer, and London seemed really the city of dreadful night."

BALFOUR TAKES SEA TRIP

Crazed for Golfing Induces Him to Break His Twenty-Year-Old Vow.

(Copyright, 1904, by Press Publishing Co.) LONDON, May 28.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Prime Minister Balfour, who declared that never again would he venture himself on the sea after agonies of seasickness he suffered on his repeated trips across the Irish sea, twenty years ago when chief secretary at Dublin, has violated his vow by going from Dover to Calais to open the new golf links at Le Touquet, near Arras.

JUDGE DENIES APPLICATION

Permanent Injunction Against Santa Fe Strikers Not to be Issued Until Need is Shown.

OTTAWA, Kan., May 28.—District Judge Smart today denied the application of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railway company for a permanent injunction against the striking machinists here. The judge said that no evidence of an intention to commit a disturbance was shown and "government by injunction" would not be permitted until need for issuing a restraining order to protect property or the men who took the strikers' places was demonstrated.

VALUATION OF THEIR STOCKS, AND CONSIDERING THE HARMING THEY GET FROM THE

Something Miller Forgot.

"One thing we do not do here that Mr. Miller was careful not to mention is with regard to the assessment of real estate of national banks. In Lincoln the national banks are allowed to deduct from their capital stock at its assessed value instead of the amount carried out in their return made to the United States comptroller. For instance, the First National bank of this city carries its real estate in its statement to the comptroller at $125,000, which is the figure that it would be assessed at according to the Lincoln method of doing business. It is assessed at $25,000 here without regard to the better made the Secretary of State, so that we collect taxes on $100,000 more in this one instance than they would in Lincoln. I might make some further comparisons if I thought it worth the while, but I do not."

As to the reported decrease in valuation of Douglas county anybody who knows anything at all about the difference in the class of the property assessed here and in Lancaster county understands why there is a decrease and that it is on the level and for natural causes. It is a well known fact that during the past years while the property of the counties outside has been turned in at a twelfth to a fifteenth of its valuation, property in this county has been turned in at one-fourth to one-fifth, so that under the new law it is perfectly patent why we do not show a corresponding raise with the other counties.

Mr. Reed felt much more inclined to talk about the big bowling score that was made Friday night than about the axe that the Lincoln reports would indicate is hanging over his head and seemed to consider it of more importance, but was finally switched back to the first subject.

Do the Best He Can.

"What am I going to do? Why, I'm going to do my work the best I can, provided, of course, that I hold my job," and then he swung his chair around and looked at the critics.

"All this talk about the difference between the assessments of concerns here and those in Lincoln is nonsense, every bit of it, and for several good reasons. In the first place, it is altogether premature. I do not even know, officially, what the concerns in Omaha have been assessed by the deputies, though, as a matter of fact, the figures that the Lincoln Commercial club has used are correct and were obtained from me. But none of the returns will be made until Monday, as the law provides. I have done absolutely nothing as yet in an official capacity, and it strikes me that it might be well to wait until I have done something, one way or the other, before I am removed from office, one of the dire threats made are carried out."

Retrieving Lost Ground.

Suddenly, in 1883, Quay startled the state by announcing himself a candidate for treasurer. He had been quietly maturing his plans for months. He saw that he was sliding down hill, and he dared a desperate leap. He wrote letters to his friends in all parts of the state, and announced his candidacy. He was elected treasurer in 1883.

Senator Quay Dead

(Continued from First Page.)

become again secretary of state under Governor Hoyt, but he gave up the secretaryship in anger when Hoyt threw himself into the independent movement which defeated General Beaver in 1882.

From 1882 to 1883 Quay was in eclipse. He and C. L. Magee, the young Pittsburgh lawyer, had run for the office of treasurer in the former year. They crossed swords in the convention and Quay was badly beaten. It came to be noised abroad that Magee was closer to Cameron than Quay. Cameron had taken no part in the fight, but he was in the city and the little he was traveling in Europe for his health, he sent his proxy as a member of the national committee to Magee. Quay did not go to the national committee that year.

Brings Over Thirteen Thousand Dollars.

Portrait Little Over an Inch Across

As soon as the first successful test of the alrship is made outside the shop it will be separated into five sections and prepared for shipment to the St. Louis exposition.

Big Price for a Miniature

Portrait Little Over an Inch Across

As soon as the first successful test of the alrship is made outside the shop it will be separated into five sections and prepared for shipment to the St. Louis exposition.

LONDON DOING ITS WORST

Showing Weather Sharks Just What It Can Do in Its Line.

(Copyright, 1904, by Press Publishing Co.) LONDON, May 28.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—The leading meteorologists of Europe assembled here this week confessed themselves wretchedly by the samples of London weather they have experienced.

"Two days of biting east wind were followed by two of steam heat, so that the slightest exertion led to utter exhaustion, and the atmosphere was that of a tropical swamp. Then on Friday torrential rain was succeeded by absolute darkness at 10 o'clock in the morning, which fell in about three minutes. The electric lights were turned on everywhere, but the voltage not being sufficient, the lamps only gave a dim glimmer, and London seemed really the city of dreadful night."

BALFOUR TAKES SEA TRIP

Crazed for Golfing Induces Him to Break His Twenty-Year-Old Vow.

(Copyright, 1904, by Press Publishing Co.) LONDON, May 28.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Prime Minister Balfour, who declared that never again would he venture himself on the sea after agonies of seasickness he suffered on his repeated trips across the Irish sea, twenty years ago when chief secretary at Dublin, has violated his vow by going from Dover to Calais to open the new golf links at Le Touquet, near Arras.

JUDGE DENIES APPLICATION

Permanent Injunction Against Santa Fe Strikers Not to be Issued Until Need is Shown.

OTTAWA, Kan., May 28.—District Judge Smart today denied the application of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railway company for a permanent injunction against the striking machinists here. The judge said that no evidence of an intention to commit a disturbance was shown and "government by injunction" would not be permitted until need for issuing a restraining order to protect property or the men who took the strikers' places was demonstrated.

VALUATION OF THEIR STOCKS, AND CONSIDERING THE HARMING THEY GET FROM THE

Something Miller Forgot.

"One thing we do not do here that Mr. Miller was careful not to mention is with regard to the assessment of real estate of national banks. In Lincoln the national banks are allowed to deduct from their capital stock at its assessed value instead of the amount carried out in their return made to the United States comptroller. For instance, the First National bank of this city carries its real estate in its statement to the comptroller at $125,000, which is the figure that it would be assessed at according to the Lincoln method of doing business. It is assessed at $25,000 here without regard to the better made the Secretary of State, so that we collect taxes on $100,000 more in this one instance than they would in Lincoln. I might make some further comparisons if I thought it worth the while, but I do not."

As to the reported decrease in valuation of Douglas county anybody who knows anything at all about the difference in the class of the property assessed here and in Lancaster county understands why there is a decrease and that it is on the level and for natural causes. It is a well known fact that during the past years while the property of the counties outside has been turned in at a twelfth to a fifteenth of its valuation, property in this county has been turned in at one-fourth to one-fifth, so that under the new law it is perfectly patent why we do not show a corresponding raise with the other counties.

Mr. Reed felt much more inclined to talk about the big bowling score that was made Friday night than about the axe that the Lincoln reports would indicate is hanging over his head and seemed to consider it of more importance, but was finally switched back to the first subject.

Do the Best He Can.

"What am I going to do? Why, I'm going to do my work the best I can, provided, of course, that I hold my job," and then he swung his chair around and looked at the critics.

"All this talk about the difference between the assessments of concerns here and those in Lincoln is nonsense, every bit of it, and for several good reasons. In the first place, it is altogether premature. I do not even know, officially, what the concerns in Omaha have been assessed by the deputies, though, as a matter of fact, the figures that the Lincoln Commercial club has used are correct and were obtained from me. But none of the returns will be made until Monday, as the law provides. I have done absolutely nothing as yet in an official capacity, and it strikes me that it might be well to wait until I have done something, one way or the other, before I am removed from office, one of the dire threats made are carried out."

Retrieving Lost Ground.

Suddenly, in 1883, Quay startled the state by announcing himself a candidate for treasurer. He had been quietly maturing his plans for months. He saw that he was sliding down hill, and he dared a desperate leap. He wrote letters to his friends in all parts of the state, and announced his candidacy. He was elected treasurer in 1883.

Senator Quay Dead

(Continued from First Page.)

become again secretary of state under Governor Hoyt, but he gave up the secretaryship in anger when Hoyt threw himself into the independent movement which defeated General Beaver in 1882.

From 1882 to 1883 Quay was in eclipse. He and C. L. Magee, the young Pittsburgh lawyer, had run for the office of treasurer in the former year. They crossed swords in the convention and Quay was badly beaten. It came to be noised abroad that Magee was closer to Cameron than Quay. Cameron had taken no part in the fight, but he was in the city and the little he was traveling in Europe for his health, he sent his proxy as a member of the national committee to Magee. Quay did not go to the national committee that year.

Brings Over Thirteen Thousand Dollars.

Portrait Little Over an Inch Across

As soon as the first successful test of the alrship is made outside the shop it will be separated into five sections and prepared for shipment to the St. Louis exposition.

Big Price for a Miniature

Portrait Little Over an Inch Across

As soon as the first successful test of the alrship is made outside the shop it will be separated into five sections and prepared for shipment to the St. Louis exposition.

LONDON DOING ITS WORST

Showing Weather Sharks Just What It Can Do in Its Line.

(Copyright, 1904, by Press Publishing Co.) LONDON, May 28.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—The leading meteorologists of Europe assembled here this week confessed themselves wretchedly by the samples of London weather they have experienced.

"Two days of biting east wind were followed by two of steam heat, so that the slightest exertion led to utter exhaustion, and the atmosphere was that of a tropical swamp. Then on Friday torrential rain was succeeded by absolute darkness at 10 o'clock in the morning, which fell in about three minutes. The electric lights were turned on everywhere, but the voltage not being sufficient, the lamps only gave a dim glimmer, and London seemed really the city of dreadful night."

BALFOUR TAKES SEA TRIP

Crazed for Golfing Induces Him to Break His Twenty-Year-Old Vow.

(Copyright, 1904, by Press Publishing Co.) LONDON, May 28.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Prime Minister Balfour, who declared that never again would he venture himself on the sea after agonies of seasickness he suffered on his repeated trips across the Irish sea, twenty years ago when chief secretary at Dublin, has violated his vow by going from Dover to Calais to open the new golf links at Le Touquet, near Arras.

JUDGE DENIES APPLICATION

Permanent Injunction Against Santa Fe Strikers Not to be Issued Until Need is Shown.

OTTAWA, Kan., May 28.—District Judge Smart today denied the application of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railway company for a permanent injunction against the striking machinists here. The judge said that no evidence of an intention to commit a disturbance was shown and "government by injunction" would not be permitted until need for issuing a restraining order to protect property or the men who took the strikers' places was demonstrated.

Advertisement for Barker Collars and Cuffs. Features a circular logo with 'BARKER' in the center, surrounded by names of cities like VACUUM, GARAGAS, and others. Text includes 'ALL "Barker" COLLARS and CUFFS ARE STAMPED Warranted Linen' and 'You can get them at many reliable dealers in Omaha.' Manufacturer: FACTORY WEST TROY, N.Y.

Advertisement for State Medical Institute. Features two portraits of men. Text includes 'DOCTORS FOR MEN' and 'It is not so much of a calamity that a man contracts disease or weaknesses, but that he neglects them or fails to secure the proper treatment for their cure.' Location: 1308 Farnam St., Bet 13th and 14th Sts., Omaha, Neb.

Advertisement for Automobiles. Features an illustration of a vintage automobile. Text includes 'Another Cut in Price' and 'Our prices mean business. We are closing out everything in the buggy line, and this last cut will clean them out. Come early or you will be unable to purchase.' Dealer: H. E. Fredrickson, 15th and Capitol Ave., OMAHA, NEB.

Advertisement for Ak-Sar-Ben Ice Cream. Features an illustration of a man in a top hat. Text