Takes Pitchers' Battle with Pfelster Opposed to Ohinn.

HOME TEAM PLAYS ERRORLESS GAME

Phenomenal Work in the Box is Matched by Gilt-Edged Support in Both Out and In-

Two-base hits: Carter, McBride. Struck out: By Pfeister, 4; by Chinn, 2. Double play: Dolan to Howard to Thomas. First base on balls; Off Pfeister, 2 Left on bases; Onaha, 1; St. Joseph, L. First base on balls; Off Pfeister, 2 Left on bases; Caruthers.

Caruthers. they are scarce articles in the Western or other old league. Pfeister, for Omaha, let the St. Joseph sluggers down with a lone hit and no runs, and Chinn, for the visitors, allowed two hits and two runs.

Rain stopped the game just as the visltors were going to bat in the eighth inning. It came near putting an end to things in the first of the sixth, just in time to let Omaha have the victory, but J.
Pluvius was good to the Jo Jos and let things drift along a little further, but it was no use. Pfeister simply was invincible and the support behind him fauitless.

phenomenal achievements were wrought in the first inning. Hartman led off with a fly to Dolan at short. McBride laced one down the left field line for two clean bases.

Big La Zoote poked three cavities in the atmosphere and big Bill Kemmer drew four wide ones. In the manufact McBride who like Brutus, was ambitious, decided he would move up a peg, but J. Gending shot the ball down to Shinks were ready that Mac scarcely knew he had been rest of the game, and in the sixth inning-Pfeleter actually pitched just three balls, one to Mr. Garvin, one to Mr. Chinn and one to Mr. Hartman. Garvin and . Hartman drove theirs out into Dusty Miller's hands and Chinn consigned his to Dolan. But be it said for Dusty that Mesers. Garvin and Hartman were not careful in placing the piglet exactly in his mits. Hartman's certainly would have been a triple had Dusty been two-eighteenths of a second later, and Garvin's took a long run. It was a day for the Omaha outfield, Dusty aking two, Carter two and Welch three, all the chances they had, Lazotte Draws a Base

The only other time St. Joe got a man on base was in the seventh when Lazotte walked. Pfeister twice had struck him out after giving him three balls. This time the Pirate threw three wide ones and then wo strikes and it looked as if the big felow would fan again, but the last one went to the bad and he took a base. McBride had already flown out and Kemmer followed Lazotte with a hot grounder to Dolan which Joe took care of very nicely, passing it over to his friend Howard, who in turn, continued the sphere on its way to the gentleman over at first, Mr. Thomas, the result of all which was a nest double

Pfeister then, it is demonstrated, was a veritable Jonah to the visitors—giving them one hit, no runs, a total of only four bases and striking out four. But, on the other hand, Chinn was no mark. The best Omaha could do with him was a pair of hits in the lirst inning, and while Pfeister was steady. Thinn gave no free passes and fanned hree men. He held up his end of the

LOTUS LOSES THE FIRST RACE Challenger from St. Joseph Beaten

Handily by the Defender Argo.

The boat race for the Manawa challenge cup between the Argo of the Manawa Yacht club and the Lotus of the Lotus Yacht club and the Lotus of the Lotus Yacht club of St. Joseph was won by the Argo in 1:08:06%.

A heavy full sail breeze was blowing when the start was made at 3:38. The Lotus got the best of the start, crossing the line seven seconds ahead of the Argo. Before the first buoy was reached the boats engaged in a short luffing match. The Lotus rounded the first buoy six seconds in the lead. On the run before the wind the Argo caught and passed the Lotus, rounding the second buoy four seconds in the lead.

The boats immediately split tacks and on the first tack the Argo commenced to gain. After coming about the Lotus carried away one of its jib halyard blocks and its mast began to give way. It stuck to the race and on the long beat to windward the Argo continued to gain, rounding the third buoy one minute and thirteen seconds in the lead. On the run home the Argo set its spinnaker and slowly widened the gap between the boats. The Lotus, on account of its weakened mast, did not dare to put the extra strain of its spinnaker on it. They sent a man aloft to fix the break, but could not strengthen it enough to attempt the second round, so after crossing the starting line they hauled off for home, the Argo continuing the race alone.

This race did not give a very good test Handily by the Defender Argo.

This race did not give a very good test of the boats, as it was very close until the Lotus rigging broke. The Lotus crew said that they will be ready by this afternoon for the second race. IOWA FIREMEN'S TOURNAMENT
