He received splendid support, almost perfect, and himself contributed the most disastrous error of the afternoon. Besides being touched for eight hits in bunches, he walked four men and was generally out of if. A fine crowd was out to watch the proceedings, and the Rourke family did its best to win, but could not under the handicap. The head of the St. Joe batting list liked what was being served and proceeded to make merry at the expense of Schafstal's rainbows. For instance, Helden made a three-base hit in the sixth with Lezotte on base and brought him in. Then Webster followed with a clean one and Belden pranced down the stretch. Beside there were Kemmer's pair of two-base hits and McBride's one. It was plainly another gala day for the Josies, and they carried out their part of the proceedings with not a little eclat. And to wind things up properly, they belted two hits in the ninth and scored thrice. Hermis shot out in the lead again, but it was his dying effort, Colonial Girl was surely and speedily overhauling him. As they rounded into the stretch a cry went up from the 50,000 spectators that the great Hermis was beaten. "Colonial Girl wins." 'Hermis has enough." Sure enough, Hermia had shot his boit. Colonial Girl, beautifully ridden by Booker, had overhauled him before the turn for home was made and was going away.

Fisher on Moharib then made his move. His mount responded gamely, but was not good enough to get to the fast tiring Her The horses passed the wire with Colonful under wraps three lengths to the good; Hermis, tiring at every second jump, six lengths shead of Moharib, with the rest of the field beaten off.

Fair handicap at the fair grounds today. The eastern champion, Hermis, was second, three lengths back; Moharib, owned by John W. Behorr, was six lengths behind him. Colonial Girl won the race very easily in 2:69½. Time: 0:24½, 0:56½, 1:16, 1:43, 2:09½.

The World's Fair handicap is at a mile and a quarter and is worth $41,500 to the winner. The track was in fair condition, about six seconds slow.

After a delay of seven minutes at the post, caused by the restlessness of Bugler, Moharib and Flying Torpedo, Starter A. B. Dade caught the field in alignment and gave the word to go. Redfern, on Hermis, was the quickest to get his mount into motion, followed closely by Gold Heels, Moharib and Colonial Girl. The others were running well bunched behind the three leaders.

Hermis Tires Out.

Taking up the long run down the back stretch, Hermis showed the way, leading by six lengths, with Colonial Girl running easy, and a length shead of Moharib. Six Shooter was fifth and Bernays, clearly outrun, ninth. Hermis carried the field to the half in 6:50%, a terrific pace for a slow track. Colonial Girl still hung on, running well within herself. Moharib was third and Sambo fourth.

At the three-quarter pole Hermis seemed to have the race at his mercy, but little A. W. Booker, noticing that the eastern horse faltered and was tiring rapidly, sent

The first run was to the far buoy, with the wind on the quarter. The Argo made good the loss sustained in the start, overshauled the Lotus and passed it to windward, and gradually left the other bont astern, rounding the buoy in 9.34, the Lotus being fifty-six seconds behind.

On the long beat to windward the Argo only gained four seconds, rounding the buoy in twenty-two minutes, the Lotus masing it in twenty-three minutes.

Then started a straight run dead before the wind sround the point and then a long leg on the quarter for the starting line. The Argo broke out its spinnaker as a balloon jib, but several puffs that were more than it could stand caused it to hand it down. The starting line was crossed

This gives the Argo two races, with only one more to win to keep the cup. The third race will be sailed this morning.
