DUBOIS SAYS IT IS PARKER

Declares Democrats Can Agree Upon No Other Candidate.

ANTI-POLYGAMY PLANK FOR PLATFORM

Former Senator Cannon Asserts He Will Gulp Down Any Sort of a Candidate Rather Than Bolt.

ST. LOUIS, June 30.—Some western delegates to the democratic convention arrived today, but aside from their individual opinions they had no knowledge of what was going to be done when the democratic national convention meets next week. Everything seems to await the arrival of the leaders, when it is said there will be the usual life antedating an interesting national convention.

Senator T. Dubois of Idaho came to this evening and when asked what he thought of the presidential outlook, he said he saw nothing but Parker.

"Who will you nominate after he has beaten Parker?" he asked. "Would it be Cleveland?" he continued. "Why, there is more than a third of the convention that will stay here until after the election before allowing the nomination of Cleveland. An attempt to nominate Cleveland will throw the convention into the hands of Bryan. The convention will nominate Parker, because they have no other man to nominate."

Senator Dubois declared that he will get an anti-polygamy plank in the national platform. That will be his principal work in St. Louis. He says that the resolutions feared by those who would like Utah, Idaho and Wyoming if they declared against polygamy, but he claims that a strong declaration of that kind in the democratic platform will carry those states for the democratic party.

at the head of the procession to the arch, the 25th brass band furnishing music. At the arch ten little girls stepped forward, robed in white, with blue sashes, and each held a letter in gold letters the names of ten of the principal countries which Dubois had visited. The children carried large bunches of roses, which they threw over Dubois and his party, and then unlocked the gates of the arch, handing over to Dubois the key, which over Dubois' address was then made by Dubois, his wife and Elizabeth Dowie. The white-robed choir sang an anthem and Dowie went into retirement to receive reports from his lieutenants.

TWO CONTESTS IN MICHIGAN

Warner Nominated for Governor and Dr. Bradley for the Auditor Generalship.

DETROIT, Mich., June 30.—But two contests were on the issue marked today's state republican election. One of these was the fight in the resolutions committee in the convention by Congressman William Alden Smith of Grand Rapids and State Senator Charles Simons of Detroit for a broader declaration in the platform favoring the reform of the county local option declaration favored by the so-called machine element of the party. The other was on the nomination for auditor general.

In addition to the name of Fred M. Warner of Farmington, who was nominated for governor, Homer W. Warner of Detroit and George B. Horton of Fruit Ridge were also placed in nomination. Before the first ballot was finished, however, it was evident that Mr. Warner had received a large majority, and Mr. Horton moved that the rules be suspended and the unanimous vote cast for Mr. Warner, which was done amidst much enthusiasm.

The amendment to the resolutions prepared by Congressman Smith and Senator Simons, pledging the party to the nomination of a governor by direct vote was defeated by a vote of 74 to 34.

Three candidates were placed in nomination for auditor general, Dr. J. B. Bradley of Eaton Rapids, Malcolm J. McLeod of Detroit and E. A. Wilsey of Paw Paw, the present state land commissioner. On the first ballot Bradley polled 49 votes, McLeod, 34, and Wilsey, 24, with 64 votes necessary to nominate. Before the ballot was finished, when order was restored by Bradley, there was no opposition and Dr. Bradley was declared the nominee.

The head of the ticket is as follows: Governor, Fred M. Warner of Farmington; lieutenant governor, Alex. Maitland of Chelsea; state treasurer, Frank P. Glasgow of Chelsea; secretary of state, Geo. A. Prescott of Tawas City; auditor general, Dr. J. B. Bradley of Eaton Rapids; attorney general, Charles A. Blair of Jackson.

HOT FIGHT AT ST. PAUL

Minnesota Republicans Heat Before Convention Which Will Name a State Ticket.

ST. PAUL, June 30.—The republican state convention which met today was the culmination of the longest contest for the gubernatorial nomination since 1888. Judge Loren W. Collins, who resigned a seat on the bench of the state supreme court in order to become a candidate, is recognized as the candidate of the present state administration. Robert C. Dana, for eight years state auditor of Minnesota, a newspaper man of great popularity, is the other leading candidate. Former congressman Frank M. Eddy is a third factor in the contest. Between the two principal contestants, there has been a contest of bitter personality.

An attempt, though not a very successful one, has been made to inject the issue of the anti-consolidation law, but both candidates have declared their intention to follow the precedent established by Governor Van Sant and see that the anti-consolidation laws of the state are carried out to the letter.

The convention was called to order by Judge Robert Jameson, chairman of the state central committee, who announced that no temporary roll had been prepared. He then introduced Senator Moses Clapp as the presiding officer. Mr. Clapp was received with an outburst of applause and was frequently cheered. His reference to President Roosevelt and his fight for the anti-consolidation law of the state was particularly applauded.

A conference of the leaders resulted in an agreement to adjourn until tomorrow morning, after committees have been appointed.

CONTESTANTS ARE WRITING

Democratic Convention Contesters Persuaded to Notices Sent to Secretary Walsh.

ST. LOUIS, June 30.—Notice of contests among delegates to the democratic national convention are beginning to reach Charles A. Walsh, secretary of the national committee, at the headquarters in this city. Up to today contests in fourteen districts had been reported to him. The districts are the First to Sixth in Pennsylvania, the Twelfth and Fourteenth in Ohio, the three in the District of Columbia, the Tenth Indiana, Second Maine and the Twenty-third Illinois.

Rumors have reached the headquarters that the entire Illinois delegation is to be contested, but the only notice received so far is from the Twenty-third district.

BUTLER GIVES UP BOODLERS

St. Louis Millionaire Gets Off of Bonds of Man Who Has Been Charged.

ST. LOUIS, June 30.—Colonel Edward Butler, who was on the bonds of Charles A. Guitek, charged with bribing a witness, today declared to say whether he would now insist on the examination of Dowie.

Attorney Samuel Etzelson, who represents the petitioning creditors in the case, said today that unless Dowie failed to live up to agreements with the creditors it was probable there would be a bankruptcy case. Attorney Etzelson said: "Dowie has promised to pay his debts dollar for dollar. He has made two 10 per cent payments. There is always a chance for reverses, but unless some dissatisfied creditor gets busy I think he will pull through all right."

Though many residents of Zion City were busy all night making the finishing touches in the preparations for the arrival of Dowie, the entire place was astir early today. The streets were decorated with flags and bunting. The streets had been rolled and sprinkled and all the stores were closed. Aside from a triumphal arch, the tabernacle was the chief object of decoration. Here Zion flags, blue and gold, with a cross in the center, flourished in the breeze in large numbers. Higher up was the "Union Jack" of England, and surmounting all was a huge American flag.

The arch of triumph, situated near Ellis avenue, was made of imitation blocks of stone. Each block bore the name of a city that Dowie had visited in his travels. Black letters denoting the cities where Dowie had been received, while the names of the cities that had spurned him showed in glowing red. The red letter cities were San Francisco, Sydney, Melbourne, Adelaide, London.

At the sound of the whistles the entire population spent two minutes in silent devotion, and were then given six minutes in which to assemble for a procession that was to greet Dowie.

Ten companies of Zion City guards, seventy men each, formed in line, while the so-called "Red Guard" of the city, lined up at the tabernacle. At the arch the guards met the Dowie seniors and juniors, robed in purple, and the march to the depot was taken up, the other residents falling in behind.

Upon the arrival of the train at Zion City, Dowie's carriage, a Victoria, trimmed with oakleaves, ferns and cacti, conveyed the "auditor" and his chief "over-

TALK OF PHONETIC SPELLING

National Educational Society Appoints Committee to Investigate Subject.

BOOKER WASHINGTON IS A SPEAKER

Negro Instructor Denies that Education Has Injured Morals of His Race and Cities.

ST. LOUIS, June 30.—The question of supporting a movement for the general adoption of phonetic spelling will not come up before next year's convention of the National Educational Association. The matter was brought up by the association here, but has been laid over another year. The national council of education in adopting the report of the committee on investigations and appropriations refused the request of the department of superintendence for the appointment of a committee to investigate the appropriateness of $10,000 for reforming the spelling of the English language. However, a concession was made to the phonetic advocates in the appointment of a committee to investigate the plans for reformed spelling that have been submitted, and to report next year whether it is considered advisable for the National Educational Association to lend either its financial or moral support to a spelling reform propaganda.

There was a good deal of quiet discussion of the question among the educators at today's meeting of the convention. Some of the speakers, however, expressed themselves as opposed to it.

Other Addresses.

Samuel Lindsay, commissioner of education, San Juan, P. R., talked on "Education in Porto Rico" and told of the advancement of educational methods in that island in accordance with American standards, notwithstanding the many intervening obstacles.

"The New Departure in Secondary Education" was the subject of an address by J. J. Shepard, principal of the High School of Commerce of New York City.

"Education in the Navy" was discussed by Robert Casper F. Goodrich, U. S. N. who said:

"The one great defect in the educational system in this country is the apparent deficiency in the primary department. The boys we get as apprentices in the navy are always found to be deficient in reading, writing and arithmetic."

Next speaker on the program was Booker T. Washington. Before he could be introduced educators began pouring into the hall in throngs and proceedings were for the time suspended. When order was restored President Cook introduced Mr. Washington, who was greeted with resounding applause.

Booker T. Washington spoke of "The Education of the Southern Negro." He said:

"Judged purely from an economic and industrial point of view, the education of the negro is paying and will pay more largely in the future than any other educational opportunities are increased. The careful examination shows that of the men who were trained in Hampton and Tuskegee, not 10 per cent can be found in any of the professions of the year. They have learned the value of work, the discipline of industry, and the value of education. I have secured direct information as to the criminal records of the graduates of fifteen of the great and older negro colleges and industrial schools, and the facts are that only two graduates out of the whole number have ever been sentenced to prison, and at the present time not a single man of these fifteen institutions wears the prison garb."

"The records of the south show that 90 per cent of the colored persons in prison are without knowledge of trade and industry, and that 90 per cent of the criminals are negroes. It is more criminal than his brother at the north it is largely because the poor negro has no opportunity for employment that the south gives. It is not the educated negro who is the criminal, but the uneducated negro who is the criminal. It is, as a rule, the one who has a mere smattering of education or who is in total ignorance."

"After years of civilization and opportunity in Italy, 31 per cent of the population are illiterate. In France, 28 per cent. In Russia, 18 per cent. In the average South American country, 14 per cent. In the United States, 10 per cent. Improvement of the negro has only 10 per cent of illiteracy to his credit."

Maxwell is President.

W. H. Maxwell, superintendent of instruction of New York City, was today elected president of the National Educational Association for the next year.

The report of the committee on nominations was unanimously adopted. The other officers elected include W. H. Swayne, Montana, and H. A. Mathews, Arizona, vice presidents, and A. W. Crabtree, Nebraska, treasurer.

The recommendation was unanimously adopted that the association should adopt the Philippine Islands as grand representation in the association and directors were elected.

The report of Treasurer Rhodes of Kentucky, which shows total receipts during the past year of $1,000 and total disbursements of $7,000, was approved, as was the annual report of the Board of Trustees.

The convention then adjourned. The selection of a place for holding was left to the new Board of Directors.

R. L. DUNN HOME FROM EAST

Photographer and Correspondent Returns from Seat of Russo-Japanese War.

R. L. Dunn, staff photographer and correspondent for Collier's Weekly in the Russo-Japanese war, passed through Omaha last night on his way back to New York. Mr. Dunn defied the Japanese regulations and instead of waiting at Tokio until permitted to go forward by the government, persisted in pressing to the front. He was "in" on the naval battle at Chempulpo and clung to the Japanese army up to the crossing of the Yalu, when he was compelled to return to Tokio, where 20 other correspondents were waiting to get into action. He was not allowed to leave with them, but was detained for an indefinite period and returned home, leaving Japan the last of April.

"People in this country really have a better idea of the war than any of the correspondents," said Mr. Dunn. "The men reporting the battles don't know very much except what takes place under their very eyes. The Japanese are getting the best of it, but not so much so as the dispatches would make it seem, as everything that gets out is censored by the government at Tokio. Japanese losses and successes are never reported."

"It costs tremendously to gather news in the far east and each man must be equipped with a suite of servants and interpreters and a vast quantity of paraphernalia."

Green Diamonds Are Seen.

Considerable interest, writes a correspondent, has been aroused in Johannesburg by the discovery of a mining property on the border of a great diamond of about three-quarters carat. The find had slipped into a crevice in the iron plates of the dismantling of the mill to make room for a new stamp battery.

In 1903 over seventy similarly colored diamonds were found upon the same property. They had all slipped between the plates of the dismantling of the mill to make room for a new stamp battery. It is conjectured that escaped diamonds. It is conjectured that escaped diamonds. It is conjectured that escaped diamonds.

For the first time since the date the Klerksdorf G. & D. company intends to resume operations on this particular ground and the prospects of unearthing more of these green gems are being eagerly watched from the Rand.
