

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Y. M. C. A. Working Hard for Funds for New Building.

STRUCTURE GOING UP MAY BE LEASED

Association Outgrows Present Location and Will Put Up New Home as Soon as Money is in Hand.

General Secretary Charles Marsh of the local Young Men's Christian association is making a quiet effort to raise funds for the purpose of securing a permanent home for the association. Efforts have been made in the past to raise money for this purpose, but a sufficient amount was not subscribed. Now A. L. Bergquist, one of the directors of the association, has started the construction of a brick building at Twenty-fourth and L streets, which he is willing to lease to the association providing suitable arrangements are made by the time the foundations are completed. Mr. Marsh is out on a hunt for $500 to bind the bargain and thus secure new and commodious quarters for the association.

Those who have been approached by Mr. Marsh appear to favor the plan, and it is understood that quite an amount of the sum needed has already been pledged. As present quarters are entirely inadequate those who are interested in association work hope to see the project go through. With new apartments in the Bergquist block there would be a good sized gymnasium on the ground floor and increased bathing facilities. The site of the reading rooms and parlors would be increased. A determined effort is to be made to raise the necessary funds within the next week or two.

Few Accidents Reported. Considering the amount of fireworks exploded in South Omaha Monday very few accidents occurred. The only one of importance was the accidental shooting in the face of Roy Bloomfield, the 8-year-old son of Harry Bloomfield, Twenty-fifth and M streets. The youngster was standing directly behind Roy Klein when the latter drew a pistol loaded with blank cartridges and fired. A portion of the charge struck the lad in the face and for a time blinded his left eye. Dr. Davis dressed the burns and picked out a portion of the powder. Last night they boy was getting along all right. When Roy Klein shot he did not know there was any one standing behind him. At first it was reported Klein had fired point blank at the boy and the police thought it best to detain Klein until an investigation was made. Klein put up a bond of $500 and was released.

Life was made miserable for motormen by the placing of torpedoes on the tracks. Boys would start in laying a train of torpedoes at Twenty-fourth and L streets and when cars came along there was a constant rattling until motormen turned the corner at Twenty-sixth and N streets.

Chief Briggs and Captain Bibecks agreed last night that it was the quietest Fourth of July held in South Omaha in a long time. Only three vagrants were arrested. Very few intoxicated persons were seen on the streets. During the afternoon hundreds of boarded cars for the resorts and the downtown streets were almost deserted during the late afternoon and early evening.

Republican Rally Wednesday. Wednesday evening there will be a meeting of the Roosevelt-Parsons Republican club of South Omaha at Jorgensen's hall, Twenty-fifth and N streets. The committee on constitution and bylaws will report and the chances are several other committees will be ready to hand in reports. Every member of the club is urged to attend this session and all those who desire to join are given a cordial invitation.

Talk Buildings Tonight. This evening the Board of Education will meet in regular monthly session and take up the matter of new buildings. It probably will decide this evening whether an addition shall be built to the Lincoln school or an eight-room building constructed in the neighborhood of Twenty-second and H streets. Plans for the addition have been drawn and were submitted to the board some time ago. Bonds of the contractors who are to install the heating, ventilating and plumbing at the new high school will be presented for approval. Secretary Laverty said last evening he had not received any word from the board to take any action on the election of janitors or the filling of vacancies in the teachers' list.

Moxie's Anniversary. Just a year ago yesterday Moxie Terrell escaped from the city jail and has

WONDERFUL CURE OF SORE HANDS

By Outlours After the Most Awful Suffering Ever Experienced.

EIGHT DOCTORS

And Many Remedies Failed to do a Cent's Worth of Good.

"About five years ago I was troubled with sore hands, so sore that when I would put them in water the pain would very nearly set me crazy, the skin would peel off and the flesh would get hard and break. There would be blood flowing from at least fifty places on each hand. Words could never tell the suffering I endured for three years. I tried everything that I was told to use for fully three years, but could get no relief. I tried at least eight different doctors, but none of them seemed to do me any good, as my hands were so bad when I got through doctoring as when I first began. I also tried many remedies, but none of them ever did me one cent's worth of good. I was discouraged and heart-sore. I would feel so bad mornings when I got up, to think I had to go to work and stand the pain for ten hours, and I often felt like giving up my position. Before I started to work mornings I would have to wrap every finger up separately, so as to try and keep them soft and then wear gloves over the rags to keep the rags from getting on my work. As night I would have to wear gloves in bed. In fact, I had to wear gloves all the time. But thanks to Outlours, the greatest of all great skin cures, after doctoring for three years, and spending much money, a 50c box of Outlours Ointment ended all my sufferings. It's been two years since I used any and I don't know what sore hands are now, and never lost a day's work while using Outlours Ointment."

not been seen in this vicinity since. Members of the police force who remembered Moxie's hasty exit from the jail were looking for him yesterday. Moxie was one of the best known colored lads in the city and was well known to the police, as he was so frequently getting into trouble. When Moxie was arrested last July he was put in for lifting a pocket-book he found loose in a room at one of the rooming houses on Twenty-sixth street. On the morning of the Fourth Jailer Fowler wanted someone to clean up in the jailer's office and he turned Terrell out to do the work. While Fowler was answering the telephone the negro dropped his broom and made a dash for liberty. He was nearly out of sight when Fowler reached the sidewalk and started after him. As far as the police here know Moxie is still running.

Big Doings Tonight. Tonight lodge No. 154 Fraternal Order of Eagles, will hold a social session for the purpose of celebrating the passing of the 500-membership mark. There is to be a brief business session and then a program will be rendered. There is to be vocal and instrumental music, recitations, etc. Refreshments will be served. As the present hall at Twenty-sixth and N streets is far too small, the securing of larger quarters may be talked over in an informal manner.

New Ice Crusher. A new ice crushing machine has just been installed at the Omaha Packing company's plant and will be placed in operation this morning. This crusher breaks large chunks of ice the size wanted to be used in refrigerator cars. The new machine is placed on a runway so that cars may now be loaded much more rapidly than under the old system. Work on the new loading platform at this plant is progressing nicely, but it will be two months before the platform and icing sheds are completed.

Levy Ordinance Tonight. When the city council meets in regular session this evening the annual levy and appropriation ordinance will be introduced and after being read in blank will be referred to the proper committee. June claims pertaining to improvements, will be called out to prepare the claims to be allowed the finance committee will meet at the clerk's office at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Some other matters of importance, mostly pertaining to improvements will be called up for consideration.

Magie City Gosasp. Nathan Johnson is reported to be seriously ill. Two new cases of smallpox were reported at the health office yesterday. The "Pork Butcher" trial No. 33 will meet on Wednesday evening for the purpose of selecting officers.

Funeral Council No. 12, D. of P., will hold a public installation of officers at Masonic hall this evening. Dr. T. H. Emerson arrived from El Paso, Texas, yesterday and will spend a few days here visiting his family. Miss Mary Egan and her sister Jennie leave today for Spirit Lake, Iowa, where they will spend the summer. Peter Hinz arrived here yesterday to take charge of some of the building contracts awarded to George Parks & Co.

Lost—Gold watch, ladies' size, with silver fob, between Twenty-sixth and C streets and Twenty-fourth and M streets. Reward for return to Scarr's drug store. H. E. Newman, formerly a member of the police force here, but now located in Kansas, is spending a day or two in the city with friends. The picnic by the Sunday school of Lutheran church at Vista Springs park yesterday was greatly enjoyed by those who attended. Dr. T. H. Emerson arrived from El Paso, Texas, yesterday and will spend a few days here visiting his family.

Announcements of the Theaters. The afternoon and evening at the Boyd theater the Curtis Stock company will give again the ever successful and popular melodrama, "Under Sealed Orders." This piece has been one of the most popular the company has yet offered. Beginning on Thursday evening and continuing until after the Saturday matinee, the bill will be "Way Out West" one of Mr. Ferris' great successes. Mr. Dick Ferris will come down from Minneapolis to assume the leading role.

One Good Argument. It is that the scenery along the line of the Erie railroad is unequalled for beauty and charm. There are MANY OTHERS. Three fine trains daily to the east. Excursion rates. Free stop-overs at Niagara Falls, Chautauque Lake and Cambridge Springs. Erie RAILROAD COMPANY, 505 Railway Exchange, Chicago, for bookslets of Summer Tours, special Chautauque Lake low-rate excursions, etc.

Cannot Be Overdone. Niagara Falls, the most magnificent of all spectacles, never grows commonplace. Let your summer tour to the east include Niagara. The Michigan Central's Vacation Tours for 1904 gives full information regarding routes and rates. It will be found a great help in planning the summer holiday. Address, with three red stamps, O. W. Augustus, G. P. & T. A., Chicago.

LOCAL VICTIMS OF FOURTH

Long List of Minor Casualties as the Result of "Patriotism."

POWDER EXPLOSIONS GIVE MUCH PAIN

Noise is Made by Young and Old at the Expense of Eyes, Fingers and Other Members of the Body.

The deafening din from all sorts of noise making contraptions Monday was sufficient evidence that not only Young America, but Older America, including boys and girls, men and women, believe that the only way to let their pent up patriotism have full sway is to puncture holes in the atmosphere. The noise began Saturday and kept up with increasing vehemence until last night, and then only diminished because the supply of ammunition was exhausted.

Despite the fact that the chief of police issued specific orders against placing torpedoes on street car tracks, old street car men declared that never within their memory had they known of such a general practice of this nature. At times the repeated explosion of torpedoes along the tracks as the cars whirled along resembled the rapid fire of a Gatling gun. This was general over the city.

Boy Loses an Eye. Artie Waybright, 15 years of age, living with his uncle at Sixth and Jackson streets, lost his left eye yesterday afternoon at Twenty-fourth and M streets. The police surgeons attended the injured youth, who was celebrating the day with a can of powder. A fuse had been attached to the can. Waybright thought the fuse had gone out.

Blow a Finger Off. Joe Ciriaco of 706 South Sixteenth street, a 6-year-old boy, wanted to see if a revolver would work if the muzzle was placed against his hand. The revolver worked all right and so did the police surgeons. The boy's finger was nearly blown off.

Gunshot Wound. Leon Greenberg of 419 South Tenth street, 13 years old, wished to see if he could catch a "chaser." He examined the chamber and had the police surgeon attend to his hand. A young girl named Bailey shot herself in the hand with a blank cartridge near the corner of Dodge and Fifteenth streets. Dr. Hall attended the case.

Gunshot Wound. Henry Hammeck, 936 South Seventeenth avenue, received a serious wound on the back of his hand from a pistol shot fired by himself yesterday morning. Nearly all the arteries of the hand were severed and there was some fear last evening that tetanus might ensue.

Gunshot Wound. Six powder burn cases were treated by Dr. S. E. Hall in the neighborhood of Leavenworth and Sixteenth yesterday. They were of varied degrees of severity, but none of them particularly serious, and were about equally divided between face and hands wounds.

Thumb and Eye. The 16-year-old son of A. F. Tukey, 261 Chicago street, lost part of his thumb in a misunderstanding with a torpedo case. A Lincoln boulevard resident has contracted a good, healthy doctor bill as a result of getting one eye too close to a Fourth of July can of powder. He may not lose the eye, Dr. Porter thinks.

Hand Wound. A small boy of the same district failed to disconnect his hand from an exploding cannon cracker in time enough to prevent him from carrying the hand in a sling for a week or ten days, if nothing more serious follows.

Hand Wound. Sunday evening a young woman living on Twenty-fourth street near Hamilton was badly hurt about her hands by the premature explosion of a blank cartridge. It is possible she will lose a finger.

Hand Wound. A North Omaha man whose name could not be learned, was tried by Dr. Bishop for a badly lacerated finger that he had partly shot away.

Another Girl Hurt. Hazel Burnett, aged 18, living at 303 North Nineteenth street, is suffering from a badly torn hand, occasioned by a toy pistol discharging a blank cartridge. Dr. Hobbs is the attending physician.

Former Throws a Fit and the Latter Blows Up. The explosion of a gas stove and a mad dog scare enlivened the Fourth in the vicinity of Thirty-fifth and Dodge streets. The noise made by the stove was terrific and beat anything in the cannon or fire cracker line that the most enterprising boy in the neighborhood produced. Gas had filled the oven and when the hired girl at the home of Robert Cusackden, the violinist, Ely and M streets, was a blaze and a report and a general demoralization of kitchen utensils. The girl got off with a scorched arm and a fit of hysterics, but the dinner was prepared on another stove.

DOG AND GAS STOVE MAKE MESS. The alleged mad dog was a puppy belonging to P. C. Healey, which evidently had a passionate desire to recognize the anniversary of the nation's independence. The dog ran up on the porch of a neighbor and frightened a child, chewing up a parcel in the meantime. Then other children became infected with the excitement which was spread to anxious mothers and fathers busy setting off fire crackers. In a few minutes something like a panic was created and meanwhile the dog continued to act foolish. Finally a policeman was summoned and he seized the canine for several blocks through front yards and over porches, much to the consternation of the householders. Eventually the pup was cornered, but a board of strategy decided that it was better to shoot, but merely incarcerated and liberated only on good behavior.

SEVERAL SERIOUS FIGHTS
Two Men in the Hospital as the Result of Whiskey and Combativeness.

Three cases of amnesia which the police believe to be the result of much and injudicious drinking occurred Monday and two of the assaulted persons were taken to Clarkson hospital.

The most serious case was that of Edward Sutton, a buggy washer in the employ of Peter Barn at Fourteenth and Capitol avenue who said he was stabbed by Charles Gaskell, a former dishwasher at Billy Houston's restaurant. Sutton said that Gaskell accused him of being the cause of his dismissal from the restaurant and then knifed him. Gaskell, who was most phenomenally drunk when arrested, told the police that "he had cut Ed Sutton up good and plenty," but was too intoxicated to say why he did so. Though the skin was badly cut no internal organs were injured.

Peter Fay of Seymour, Iowa, and Carl Johnson of Thirteenth and Capitol avenue were another couple to get together with disastrous results to both. Fay is a railroad man and was in an unconscious condition when taken to the police station and as Johnson was very drunk and refused to say anything but profane words the police are still in the dark as to how the quarrel started. Both possessed several bruises about the head and a breath which suggested whiskey. The attending doctors said that his unconsciousness was due more to the drink than the blows he received.

A. Alexander, a peddler living at 1436 South Thirteenth street, was assaulted by two unidentified drunk men on Twenty-ninth street yesterday afternoon, because, he said, he remonstrated at the men playing tricks with his horse. Alexander's proposals were swollen to four times its natural proportions and his left eye looked jaundiced. The police have been unable to apprehend the men.

FIRE BELL WAKES SLEEPERS
Constant Clanging at Midnight Arouses Slumbers for Miles Around Dundee.

If the man or men, boy or boys, who rang the fire bell at Dundee for several hours, intermittently, while the glorious Fourth was being rung into bloom, had fallen into some of the hands that were outstretched for them it is a safe bet that Omaha would have had a Fourth of July disaster to record that would have been well worth the time.

Violence Promise of Marriage and Skips When Girl's Father Goes His Ball.

According to the police station records John Osborn of Thirty-fourth and Boulevard is a fugitive from justice. Saturday morning Osborn was arrested on a statutory charge preferred by Miss Gard on behalf of his 17 year-old daughter Mary, of Twenty-seventh and Franklin streets. Promising to marry the young woman, Osborn was released Saturday afternoon on a bond of $500 signed by himself and his prospective father-in-law. Osborn left Saturday night and has not been seen since.

this, together with his promise to marry Miss Gard, worked on the sympathy of the girl's father, who did not want Osborn to stay in jail over Sunday and Monday. Gard promptly signed a bond for Osborn's release, although Captain Hase advised him that it would be the better course to see his daughter married before the young man was released.
