Foreign Financial.

Foreign Financial. LONDON, July 2.-Money was in fair de-mand and more pleniiful in the market today. Discounts were firm. There was considerable uncertainty regarding the des-tination of the gold due next week, but in view of the easy money on the continent it is not expected that rates here will harden appreciably. Prices on the Stock exchange generally were firmar, but business was in-active. Consols and home rails improved. Americans recovered, remained fairly steady, became inactive at parity and closed quiet. BERLIN, July 9.-Trading on the bourse in better demand. Marking factors on the bourse today were feeble and trading inactive. Rumstan is closed at 80 and Russian bonds of 1904 at 505. The private rate of discount was 1% per cent.

was 1% per cent.
