OMAHA SIMPLY AT MERCY OF HOSTETTER

Quick, Too, Pitches Great Ball-Miller, Mountaineers' New Man, Wins Game with Two-Base Hit.

A nerve-racking pitcher's battle through and through, the game was full of brilliant plays in the field, errorless on the part of the home team, while the visitors had but two miscues to their discredit. A casual giance at the hit columns suggests much more in the way of english. gests much more in the way of aprightly playing for Omaha than Denver, for the Mountaineers got a total of eight hits off Quick, while Omaha landed safe but twice. Both pitchers had good control, Quick the better. He walked but two men and fanned eight. Hostetter sent four to base on balls and struck out seven. Three of the hits credited to Denver were decidedly acceptable durch bears within the province of scratchy-just barely within the province of being hits and that was all.

Eddie Quick did a whole lot to secure himself in the hearts of local fans. He pitched masterful ball; the eight hits Denver got, save in the fatal twelfth, were so scattered as to be harmless. He had 2: by Pittinger, 4. Struck out: so scattered as to be harmless. He had 2 almost perfect control, displayed terrific speed, exhibited much headwork, fielded his position like a hero and came desperately near winning his own game by a hit in the eleventh inning when he got as far as were interesting and were third here and was left. Quick was fresh hitting. Attendance, 2,591. enough in the tenth to fan every one of the three outs. He had five assists and

Brown's Brilliant Work.

Buck Thiel was out of the game by sickness. Brown supplanted him in left and did brilliant work, taking all four chances that came to him. One fly was dropped a little back of second base. It looked for all the world like a safe hit, but Brown made a phenomenal run and gathered it in right off the ground. The crowd went wild. But Brown at the bat was quite another fellow. Five times up, he struck out

To match Brown's wonderful catch was one by Roy Miller, who played right for Denver. It was in the winth inning, Howard drove the ball flercely to right field on a high fly. It was up against the fance to all appearances. Miller ran for it. turned around twice and then, with the sun directly in his eyes, nabbed the ball when Howard was within ten feet of sec-

Under the circumstances it is doubtful jif a visiting player would have got the ovation tendered Miller in any other city on the circuit. Not a fan but knew Miller's catch, in all probability, spolled a run, and yet the grandstand and bleachers roared as vociferously as if the spectacular play had been that of a home man. Miller was picked up by White Wings in Crookston, Minn., where he was playing in the Northern league. He led the batting list of that league. He is a pitcher, but may be kept in right, Hayes continuing as utility man, Miller dropped one fly yesterday, but it, too, was a hard chance. He won the game though, with his two-bagger, sending Ketcham across the visito

Lose Two Chances to Win.

On two occasions it looked as if Omaha, through Joe Dolan, certainly would score, In the sixth inning Freeze sent a fly to right which Miller dropped. Quick went out from the box to first, Carter got first on Hartzell's fumble, but was caught at second by a fielder's choice from Howard. With Freeze at third and Howard on second. Welch walked. True there were two out, but that did not dishearten the fans in whooping 'er up for Captain Joe Dolan to "face her out." It was a heartbreaking scene when Dolan popped up an easy one

The second thrilling inning was the elev-Welch having hit the ball in the ninth, Quick now came forward with the second hit of the game for Omaha. He drove it straight to center field. Carter couldn't muster though, nor could Howcouldn't muster though, nor could Howard. Welch, for the third time, walked. Once more it was all up to Captain Joe. Not for many a moon has any pitcher held the Rourke Rangers so abjectly at his

So he being the first man | Totale 3 7 27 14 2 up in the twelfth, proceeded to line one out good and hard where it was safe. With New York no one out things looked bad, especially when Quick walk d Harztell, the second pass he had given out. Then came the futal stroke. Towle Does Better. The second set opened with Towle losing 30 in as many seconds, but he made good with a twister and gained the point. Congot to serving his own peculiar brand at this juncture and Towle patted the courts in vain efforts to land across the net. The game went to Toing, with Towle at 15. This seemed easy money for Young, and he went to sleep. Towle took advantage of the situation by walloping in for two games with Con at 15 and 30, respectively. As the fourth game Young woke with a start and yolleyed Towle fight and left. The latter made plucky efforts to down the veteran, but Con was looking for blood and the grim look on his face did not disappear until he won another love game. He eased off in the fifth and sixth games, but he was not nappling by any means, and carried the two with Towle at 30 and 15, respectively. The last game was a deuce one, but Young won it.

Originals Benten at North Platte. NORTH PLATTE, Neb., Aug. 4—(Special Telegram.)—The weather today has been fine. The Patterson & Brainerd Carnival company shows have been doing a lively business. People are througing the streets and mirth and amusement is running riot.

The base hall game between the Omaha Originals and the North Platte teams resulted in a victory for North Platte teams resulted in a victory for North Platte teams resulted in a victory for North Platte teams represented when Jo Schwaiger knocked a three-bagger to left field, immediately followed by a home run by John Baliey, pitcher for North Platte, who knocked the ball completely outside the grounds. It was a fiercely contested game and was won by the nearly faultless playing of the North Platte team and the excellent pitching of Balley, who fanned the Omahas out in one, two, three style. Same teams play tomorrow and Saturday.

Stomach Paralysis

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, properly named, is Paralysis of the Stomach.

When you have water-brash, feel sick at the stomach, have gas or wind on it, or feel as though you had a ball or heavy weight in the pit of the stomach after eating, and the nerves and muscles of that organ cease to act and digest your food, that stoppage in the process of direction, to call it properly, is Paralysis of the Stomach, and should be treated as such. It is perfect folly to assist the stomach with dyspepsia remedies and stimulants to dissolve the undirested food. You may get relief, but at the next meal you suffer again. The proper treatment is to build up the worn out muscles and nerves of the stomach so that it can do its own work without assistance, and not only digest the food you eat to-day but tomorrow and forever after; as is done, by the use of Dr. Chase's Blood and Nerve Food and Liver Food, which have an immediate action on the nerves and muscles, that control digestion.
