

PARKER DRAWS A SOGGY DAY

Bain Dampens Enthusiasm and Prevents Demonstration at Esopus.

CHAMP CLARK BREAKS THE NEWS TO HIM

Address of Notification and Speech of Acceptance Delivered on the Law of the Presidential Candidate.

(Continued From First Page.)

strength which grows out of the union of a mighty party with the enthusiasm born of truth, with the courage that emanates from a righteous cause, with the confidence of men animated by noble purposes and lofty patriotism.

The principles of democracy are grounded in eternal truth. As formulated by the fathers of democracy, they are as applicable to this hour as they were to that.

The hope is not too extravagant for enlightenment that in this campaign our candidates will have the support not only of every democratic voter, but of every voter, by whatever political name called.

The hope is not too extravagant for enlightenment that in this campaign our candidates will have the support not only of every democratic voter, but of every voter, by whatever political name called.

The hope is not too extravagant for enlightenment that in this campaign our candidates will have the support not only of every democratic voter, but of every voter, by whatever political name called.

The hope is not too extravagant for enlightenment that in this campaign our candidates will have the support not only of every democratic voter, but of every voter, by whatever political name called.

The hope is not too extravagant for enlightenment that in this campaign our candidates will have the support not only of every democratic voter, but of every voter, by whatever political name called.

The hope is not too extravagant for enlightenment that in this campaign our candidates will have the support not only of every democratic voter, but of every voter, by whatever political name called.

The hope is not too extravagant for enlightenment that in this campaign our candidates will have the support not only of every democratic voter, but of every voter, by whatever political name called.

The hope is not too extravagant for enlightenment that in this campaign our candidates will have the support not only of every democratic voter, but of every voter, by whatever political name called.

The hope is not too extravagant for enlightenment that in this campaign our candidates will have the support not only of every democratic voter, but of every voter, by whatever political name called.

The hope is not too extravagant for enlightenment that in this campaign our candidates will have the support not only of every democratic voter, but of every voter, by whatever political name called.

The hope is not too extravagant for enlightenment that in this campaign our candidates will have the support not only of every democratic voter, but of every voter, by whatever political name called.

The hope is not too extravagant for enlightenment that in this campaign our candidates will have the support not only of every democratic voter, but of every voter, by whatever political name called.

The hope is not too extravagant for enlightenment that in this campaign our candidates will have the support not only of every democratic voter, but of every voter, by whatever political name called.

The hope is not too extravagant for enlightenment that in this campaign our candidates will have the support not only of every democratic voter, but of every voter, by whatever political name called.

The hope is not too extravagant for enlightenment that in this campaign our candidates will have the support not only of every democratic voter, but of every voter, by whatever political name called.

The hope is not too extravagant for enlightenment that in this campaign our candidates will have the support not only of every democratic voter, but of every voter, by whatever political name called.

The hope is not too extravagant for enlightenment that in this campaign our candidates will have the support not only of every democratic voter, but of every voter, by whatever political name called.

Executive have employed powers not belonging to them; statutes have been passed which were extremely forbidden by the constitution and statutes have been set aside as unconstitutional when it was difficult to deny that the provisions had been passed in violation of the constitution.

Executive have employed powers not belonging to them; statutes have been passed which were extremely forbidden by the constitution and statutes have been set aside as unconstitutional when it was difficult to deny that the provisions had been passed in violation of the constitution.

Executive have employed powers not belonging to them; statutes have been passed which were extremely forbidden by the constitution and statutes have been set aside as unconstitutional when it was difficult to deny that the provisions had been passed in violation of the constitution.

Executive have employed powers not belonging to them; statutes have been passed which were extremely forbidden by the constitution and statutes have been set aside as unconstitutional when it was difficult to deny that the provisions had been passed in violation of the constitution.

Executive have employed powers not belonging to them; statutes have been passed which were extremely forbidden by the constitution and statutes have been set aside as unconstitutional when it was difficult to deny that the provisions had been passed in violation of the constitution.

Executive have employed powers not belonging to them; statutes have been passed which were extremely forbidden by the constitution and statutes have been set aside as unconstitutional when it was difficult to deny that the provisions had been passed in violation of the constitution.

Executive have employed powers not belonging to them; statutes have been passed which were extremely forbidden by the constitution and statutes have been set aside as unconstitutional when it was difficult to deny that the provisions had been passed in violation of the constitution.

Executive have employed powers not belonging to them; statutes have been passed which were extremely forbidden by the constitution and statutes have been set aside as unconstitutional when it was difficult to deny that the provisions had been passed in violation of the constitution.

Executive have employed powers not belonging to them; statutes have been passed which were extremely forbidden by the constitution and statutes have been set aside as unconstitutional when it was difficult to deny that the provisions had been passed in violation of the constitution.

Executive have employed powers not belonging to them; statutes have been passed which were extremely forbidden by the constitution and statutes have been set aside as unconstitutional when it was difficult to deny that the provisions had been passed in violation of the constitution.

Executive have employed powers not belonging to them; statutes have been passed which were extremely forbidden by the constitution and statutes have been set aside as unconstitutional when it was difficult to deny that the provisions had been passed in violation of the constitution.

Executive have employed powers not belonging to them; statutes have been passed which were extremely forbidden by the constitution and statutes have been set aside as unconstitutional when it was difficult to deny that the provisions had been passed in violation of the constitution.

Executive have employed powers not belonging to them; statutes have been passed which were extremely forbidden by the constitution and statutes have been set aside as unconstitutional when it was difficult to deny that the provisions had been passed in violation of the constitution.

Executive have employed powers not belonging to them; statutes have been passed which were extremely forbidden by the constitution and statutes have been set aside as unconstitutional when it was difficult to deny that the provisions had been passed in violation of the constitution.

Executive have employed powers not belonging to them; statutes have been passed which were extremely forbidden by the constitution and statutes have been set aside as unconstitutional when it was difficult to deny that the provisions had been passed in violation of the constitution.

Executive have employed powers not belonging to them; statutes have been passed which were extremely forbidden by the constitution and statutes have been set aside as unconstitutional when it was difficult to deny that the provisions had been passed in violation of the constitution.

Executive have employed powers not belonging to them; statutes have been passed which were extremely forbidden by the constitution and statutes have been set aside as unconstitutional when it was difficult to deny that the provisions had been passed in violation of the constitution.

Executive have employed powers not belonging to them; statutes have been passed which were extremely forbidden by the constitution and statutes have been set aside as unconstitutional when it was difficult to deny that the provisions had been passed in violation of the constitution.

Executive have employed powers not belonging to them; statutes have been passed which were extremely forbidden by the constitution and statutes have been set aside as unconstitutional when it was difficult to deny that the provisions had been passed in violation of the constitution.

Executive have employed powers not belonging to them; statutes have been passed which were extremely forbidden by the constitution and statutes have been set aside as unconstitutional when it was difficult to deny that the provisions had been passed in violation of the constitution.

Executive have employed powers not belonging to them; statutes have been passed which were extremely forbidden by the constitution and statutes have been set aside as unconstitutional when it was difficult to deny that the provisions had been passed in violation of the constitution.

Executive have employed powers not belonging to them; statutes have been passed which were extremely forbidden by the constitution and statutes have been set aside as unconstitutional when it was difficult to deny that the provisions had been passed in violation of the constitution.

Executive have employed powers not belonging to them; statutes have been passed which were extremely forbidden by the constitution and statutes have been set aside as unconstitutional when it was difficult to deny that the provisions had been passed in violation of the constitution.

Executive have employed powers not belonging to them; statutes have been passed which were extremely forbidden by the constitution and statutes have been set aside as unconstitutional when it was difficult to deny that the provisions had been passed in violation of the constitution.

Executive have employed powers not belonging to them; statutes have been passed which were extremely forbidden by the constitution and statutes have been set aside as unconstitutional when it was difficult to deny that the provisions had been passed in violation of the constitution.

Executive have employed powers not belonging to them; statutes have been passed which were extremely forbidden by the constitution and statutes have been set aside as unconstitutional when it was difficult to deny that the provisions had been passed in violation of the constitution.

Executive have employed powers not belonging to them; statutes have been passed which were extremely forbidden by the constitution and statutes have been set aside as unconstitutional when it was difficult to deny that the provisions had been passed in violation of the constitution.

Executive have employed powers not belonging to them; statutes have been passed which were extremely forbidden by the constitution and statutes have been set aside as unconstitutional when it was difficult to deny that the provisions had been passed in violation of the constitution.

Executive have employed powers not belonging to them; statutes have been passed which were extremely forbidden by the constitution and statutes have been set aside as unconstitutional when it was difficult to deny that the provisions had been passed in violation of the constitution.

Executive have employed powers not belonging to them; statutes have been passed which were extremely forbidden by the constitution and statutes have been set aside as unconstitutional when it was difficult to deny that the provisions had been passed in violation of the constitution.

Executive have employed powers not belonging to them; statutes have been passed which were extremely forbidden by the constitution and statutes have been set aside as unconstitutional when it was difficult to deny that the provisions had been passed in violation of the constitution.

Executive have employed powers not belonging to them; statutes have been passed which were extremely forbidden by the constitution and statutes have been set aside as unconstitutional when it was difficult to deny that the provisions had been passed in violation of the constitution.

The Old Way—and the New

Cream ripened in open pans, exposed to odors and dust, butter worked by hand and washed in impure water—there is no certainty about such a product, and a deal of guesswork.

Meadow Gold Butter is made by exact methods, from Pasteurized cream, in the cleanest of creameries. Its purity is perfect, its cleanliness absolute—its flavor—delicious. Sealed in airtight packages which carry it to your table entirely free from taint or injury.

BEATRICE CREAMERY COMPANY, 10th and Howard Sts.

Only $28.15 To Boston and Back Via Illinois Central Railroad. Tickets on sale Aug. 11, 12 and 13 At City Ticket Office, 1422 Farnam St., Omaha, Neb.

$20.00 to Chicago. The Chicago Great Western railway will sell special round trip tickets to Chicago at $20.00. Tickets good for return until October 31. For further information apply to E. D. Parkhurst, general agent 1422 Farnam street, Omaha, Neb.

FORECAST OF THE WEATHER

Fair and warmer in East and Showers for the Western Portion of Nebraska.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Forecast: For Nebraska and South Dakota—Fair and warmer in the east; showers and cooler in the west portion Thursday, Friday, showers and cooler. For Iowa and Missouri—Fair and warmer Thursday, Friday, showers. For Kansas—Fair Thursday, with warmer in the northeast portion, Friday, showers. For Colorado—Showers Thursday and Friday.

Local Record. OFFICE OF THE WEATHER BUREAU, OMAHA, AUG. 10.—Official record of temperature, precipitation, compared with the corresponding days of the last three years: Normal temperature... 77.0; Actual temperature... 77.0; Minimum temperature... 55.0; Maximum temperature... 99.0; Precipitation... 0.0.

CONDITION OF THE WEATHER. Omaha, clear... 72.0; Valentine, partly cloudy... 72.0; North Platte, clear... 72.0; Cheyenne, cloudy... 72.0; Salt Lake City, clear... 72.0; Rapid City, clear... 72.0; Huron, clear... 72.0; Williston, partly cloudy... 72.0; St. Paul, clear... 72.0; Davenport, clear... 72.0; Kansas City, clear... 72.0; Haver, clear... 72.0; Helena, clear... 72.0; Bismarck, cloudy... 72.0; Cheyenne, partly cloudy... 72.0.

Reports from Stations at 7 p. m. Omaha, clear... 72.0; Valentine, partly cloudy... 72.0; North Platte, clear... 72.0; Cheyenne, cloudy... 72.0; Salt Lake City, clear... 72.0; Rapid City, clear... 72.0; Huron, clear... 72.0; Williston, partly cloudy... 72.0; St. Paul, clear... 72.0; Davenport, clear... 72.0; Kansas City, clear... 72.0; Haver, clear... 72.0; Helena, clear... 72.0; Bismarck, cloudy... 72.0; Cheyenne, partly cloudy... 72.0.

PRINTERS WORK ON LAWS

Rules for Governing Craft Get Thorough Consideration at Convention.

MAY ENLIST TO FIGHT FOR AMERICA

Unpatriotic Proposal Voted Down by Overwhelming Majority Amid Great Cheering from the Aroused Delegates.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 10.—The convention of the International Typographical union today resumed consideration of the report of the committee on laws. When President Lynch had called the convention to order he read a telegram from Samuel Gompers of Washington, D. C., president of the American Federation of Labor, as follows:

The constant progress, the excellent growth and expanding power and influence of the International Typographical union, protecting and promoting the interests of the members of the craft, is the source of the greatest gratification to all. Accept and convey to the officers and delegates my heartfelt fraternal greetings and sincerest congratulations, as well as highest hope and anticipations for the greatest possible success of the union.

Soon after the report of the committee on laws was taken up an animated discussion arose over the committee's resolution that the proposition to amend section 121 of the general laws be not adopted. The amendment provided that when a strike has been inaugurated under the provisions of sections 116, 117 and 118 the executive committee should pay to the order of the president and secretary of the union involved, for a period not exceeding eight weeks, an amount equal to 10 per cent of the salary of the respective officers. Among the communications received urging the convention to decide on these places were telegrams from Governor Herrick of Ohio and the mayor of Toronto. The vote on the question was postponed until tomorrow.

effect that no member of the International Typographical union shall enlist in the service of any state of the United States, state guard, militia or rangers, under the penalty of expulsion and being barred from reinstatement. On this proposition the committee on laws had reported unfavorably. A sentiment against the arose in the convention. Delegate Anderson of Macon, Ga., chairman of the committee on laws, arose and in a patriotic address he quoted the lines of Sir Walter Scott:

Breathes there a man with soul so dead Who never to himself hath said, 'This is my own, my native land.'

The climax was reached. Cheers sounded through the hall, and by an overwhelming majority the convention decided that nothing should be done to prevent members of the International Typographical union from fighting for the Stars and Stripes.

Expense of Organizers. Vituperative language then grew out of the consideration of the proposition that organizers submit an itemized account of expenses to the executive council, which expenses shall only be allowed on its approval. On this proposition the committee had reported unfavorably. The debate which arose was of a personal nature, but the opposition to the committee's unfavorable report, while vigorous, was not general, and the report was concurred in by the convention. Thereupon the convention adjourned to meet Thursday morning.

Auxiliary Holds Session. The Women's Auxiliary of the International Typographical union today held its 41st annual meeting at the Inside Trip. Mrs. Frank A. Kennedy of Omaha, the president, called the meeting to order and introduced Miss Lily Fredericks of Indianapolis, a member of the executive board of the United Garment-Makers of America. Miss Fredericks addressed the convention on the hardships of the garment workers. After the reading of the report of the secretary, Mrs. Ed. Dornell of Cincinnati, the convention adjourned until tomorrow.

If you have anything to trade, advertise in the This for That column in the Bee Want Ad Pages.

Advertisement for Hudson River Wabash People. Features a large illustration of a steamship and text: 'FOLLOW THE FLAG.' Hudson River Wabash People. LOOK THIS OVER VIA DETROIT, NIAGARA FALLS, TORONTO AND MONTREAL. VIA DETROIT, NIAGARA FALLS, DOWN THE HUDSON RIVER AND NEW YORK CITY. VIA DETROIT, NIAGARA FALLS, TORONTO, MONTREAL, PORTLAND AND VIA BOAT OR RAIL. VIA DETROIT, NIAGARA FALLS, DOWN THE ST. LAWRENCE RIVER AND MONTREAL. Tickets sold August 11th, 12th and 13th. Long limit and stopovers. Special trains will leave Chicago via Wabash railroad from Dearborn and Polk streets station at 1 P. M. August 14 for all G. A. R. comrades, their family and friends. We return you via St. Louis and land you at main entrance World's Fair, saving time and extra car fare—no other line can. Insist upon your tickets reading Wabash as all agents can sell this way. For all information call at Wabash City Office, 1801 Farnam, or address, HARRY E. MOORES, G. A. P. Wabash R. R., OMAHA, NEB.

Subject of the Constitution. Occasionally by reason of necessary or important legislation for reforms, or because the limitations placed upon the departments of government by the constitution are disregarded by officials desiring to accomplish that which in their opinion is good, the power exists in some or not, it becomes desirable to call attention to the fact that the people, in whom all power resides, have seen fit, through the medium of the constitution, to limit the governmental powers conferred and to say to departments created by it: 'Thus far shall you go and no farther.' To secure the ends which the people have by the constitution separated and distributed among the executive, legislative and judicial departments, and it is the duty of those administering each department so to act as to preserve rather than to destroy, the potency of the constitutional branches of the government, and thus secure the exercise of all the powers conferred by the people.