Welch Ties Score, Then Wins Game Weich fles store, Then Wins Game. Pittsburg Weich shone with dazzling luster. In the Phliadelpi sixth he made a three-base hit on which Howard and Thiel van in and tied the score The score was unchanged in the seventh and eigh and in the first part of the ninth the visitors went out in short order. How-ard went out in the second half of the ninth and then Weich came to bat 'mid cheers. Someone in the grandstand suggested that Harry make a home run, and At Brooklyn - Chicago-Breoklyn game; just to saye his admirer from disappointrai ment he did, winning the game.

Jack Thomas, just to show his heart was in the right place, drove the ball over left field fence in the third inning when Dolan was on base, checking up two goodly ruas. which at that stage of the game looked like half a dozen.

In the first part of the sixth Inning Banders was replaced in the hox by Brown. It was quite evident that it was Sander's off day and his removal saved the game. But the fans were not unmindful that Sanders shut out the Springs team last Sabbath.

Eight men faced Sanders in the first is ning. Four made safe hits, one walked, one made a sacrifice and altogether four runs were saved out of the carnage. Graham, the first man up, walked with a proud and haughty tread to first. Congalton followed with a sacrifice and Kahl made a htt. Then Ryan flew out to Welch. Thora-ton made a two-base hit and Kahl scored, atter which Thornton scored on a three-
