Large Amount Due on Bonds That Must Be Renewed.

HOWE WOULD REFUND OTHER ISSUES

Debit is On Hand Bonds Dated October 1, 1904—Money on Hand to Take Up Balance of Debt.

There will be due at the state fiscal agency in New York City October 1, 1904, the sum of $7,453. Of this amount, $2,300 is due on funding bonds dated October 1, 1904.

These bonds will have to be renewed by another issue, but money is on hand to take up the balance of the indebtedness.

City Treasurer Howe thinks will be money in the city treasury to refund other issues bearing date of October 1, 1904.

On this date, besides the bonds issued, there was an issue refunding $25,000 of general indebtedness bonds and an issue of $12,000 intersection paving bonds.

Treasurer Howe says as it is now optional with the city to take up these bonds it would be worth while trying to sell an entire new issue, the interest to be not more than 5 per cent.

Lively Meeting Addressed by a Number of Candidates for Office.

The Eighth Ward Republican club held an enthusiastic meeting Saturday.

In the absence of the president W. P. Wapnick presided.

John L. Kennedy, the first speaker, on being introduced as the next congressman from the eighth district.

"I have spent the last few days in Washington county, and I am pleased to report that the party in that section is in better condition than for years past."

The majority given the republican ticket will be large. Nebraska is going to show 30,000 republican majority; the state ticket is going to be elected by 25,000, and the presidential nominee of the party is going to be elected by a handsome majority."

Mr. Kennedy spoke at some length on national issues, showing the inconsistency of the democratic attitude and the hopelessness of the party without an issue.

Judge W. M. Slabaugh, who is a candidate for the nomination for county attorney, said:

"There is no danger so great as when one is satisfied. Do not go to sleep. It doesn't hurt a man to let the world know he is awake. I believe the entire national, state and county ticket will be elected, and it will be secured by the republican party."

Hans F. Peterson spoke on the duties of a member of the legislature and promised if elected to work for the county and the state.

J. L. Drake, also a candidate for the legislature, urged the nomination of good men and the need of support of a united party for such candidates.

Packing Plant in Prospect T. W. Talliferro Heads Concern That Is Looking for Site in Chicago.

Omaha may have another packing plant, to be run independent of the alleged "trust" houses.

T. W. Talliferro, who is well known here for his long connection with the Omaha and the Cudahy plants, is the prime mover in a new company which is planning to install plants at all the packing centers.

Chicago is to have a new packing house plant, not of the mushroom variety, but a concern capitalizing with a daily capacity of 1,000 head of hogs and 5,000 sheep.

The plant is to be located on the Chicago River and is to be under the management of T. W. Talliferro.

Free Acts Will Be Feature of the Street Fair This Year, and They Promise to Be Warm Affairs.

The exceptional number of free acts will make the street fair of this year different from any of those preceding.

The whole scheme hangs in suspense, pending the action of the city government in regard to the coming of the Igitortos.

Chairman Wilheim of the carnival committee hopes permission may be gained, and all the influence of Senator Millard and Congressman Hitchcock and of the private citizens of Omaha having strength.

At length, no reply has as yet been received and no one here can say what the result will be.

Among the more important measures adopted at Friday afternoon's meeting was the fix of the salary of the general president at $2,500, with $1,000 for office expenses.

The salary of the general secretary-treasurer was increased to $1,500 per annum, from $1,200.

The new officers were formally installed by former General President S. L. Bennett of Kansas City.

The announcement was made that such of the members who were to remain in the city over night were invited to attend the banquet at the Hotel Grand.

The further announcement was made that the new executive board would meet at the Hotel Grand in executive session immediately upon adjournment for the consideration of business.

The convention adjourned sine die.

The strangest sight known to this city is a "fish drunk."

Such a drunk is not a plain drunk, but one which makes the on-looker believe that perhaps Munchausen was not so inventive after all.

It happens at Olden avenue bridge, Newark, N. J., adjoining the brewery, and the time the beer vats are cleaned and emptied into the stream alongside.

When the foaming milk pours forth into the water one may see a rush to the bar. It is just like a beaming politician asking his fellow citizens to "have on."

Pickled, eels, perch and catfish mingle in the festivity, and the meaning of the old saying, "He drinks like a fish," becomes evident.

The fish, it is said, leap out of the water, dart at one another and throw themselves high and dry on the stones at the water's edge.

When one less big game than his fellow starts to leave, with the idea that there will be trouble in the family if he stays longer, his companions gather about him and coax him back for "just one more."
