Minister Says Mikado Will Defeat Russian Because He Has Right and Christ on His

The lecture room of the Young Men's Christian association rooms was crowded yesterday afternoon to listen to the address by Rev. Yokeshi Ukai, pastor of the Central Methodist Episcopal church at Tokio, Japan. Rev. Mr. Ukai became a convert. to Christianity through missionary influences in Japan in 1855 and later was educuted in America, completing his course at Indianols, Ia. He is now in this country for the purpose of raising money for his church and school in Toklo. He said:

"Fifty-one years ago Japan was a pagan nation and it was through the influence of the American naval officer, Commodore Perry, that Japan threw open its doors to the world. Japan is one of the oldest of nations, yet the newest of civilized nations. Christianizing influences of the mission-

We have adopted many of the American ideas and are grateful to America for its friendship toward us. In our present war we believe God will help us, for we are on His side. Americans will always be welcome to our shores."

HARVEST HOME FESTIVALS HELD

Services at St. Mathias' Episcopal and Grace Lutheran.

Harvest home festival services were held Sunday morning at St. Mathias' Episcopal and Grace Lutheran churches. At the former generous offerings of fruit, vegetables and delicacies such as jelly were made for use at Clarkson hospital. The rector, Rev. Philip Davidson, preached a sermon suitable to the occasion, his subject being "Growth."

The offerings for the harvest home festival today epitomize the purposes of manto love, to worship and to labor. They illustrate the development he has made since he was turned out of the Garden of Eden pable of producing something approaching the luxury of the garden only after long and arduous toll. But in the loss of the Paradisc man was endowed with a species of divine energy, to be ambitious and with tradition of improvement. have gone to pray singly for the remission

For years it has been the practice of medical men to treat patients suffering from piles by local, external applications. These treatments give but temporary relief, but have never affected a positive cure.

After months of research and study, accompanied by actual experience with various patients, Dr. C. A. Perrin arrived at a posttive conclusion as to the exact action of the various parts of the bowel system, under different conditions, and when subjected to various prescriptions.

He finally prepared that wonderful interhal remedy known as Dr. PERRIN'S PILE SPECIFIC, which is put up in bottles, retailing at all reliable drug stores for $1.00 each. This internal remedy has been on the market for the past ten years, and in all of that time there has been but three cases where a positive cure has not been effected.

Dr. Perrin's Pile Specific is sold under a positive guarantee by the druggist making the sale, to refund the full purchase price, providing the remedy fails to cure. This is the absolute proof of its merit. Any man or woman who suffers from blind, bleeding, itching or internal piles can try this internal remedy with the absolute certainty that it will cost nothing unless it cures. Here is what one sufferer says of this wonderful

FRANK ZELLINGER IS CAUGHT Striker Who is Charged with Leading Mob Finally Trapped by Federal Officers.

Deputy United States Marshal James Allan and Captain Shields finally have succeeded in corraling Frank Zellinger, an alleged striker who has been wanted since August 4, on the charge of being the leader of the mob that followed and assaulted Dennis Cahill on his return from work at the packing houses and subsequently made the assault on the Cahill house in South Omaha.

Zellinger was found last night down in the Missouri river bottoms near South Omaha, where he had been in hiding in a least. tent since the early part of August. He await his hearing before United States a colonial measure, in order to increase the Commissioner Anderson.

he had been making his headquarters in a tent securely hidden in the brush down loaf, of which gigantic pictures were disin the bottoms, but Zellinger's friends kept played everywhere in England, was a strikhim posted and he managed to elude the ing and effective argument by the governofficers. However, yesterday they got a pretty straight tip that he was to be there last night and the officers hid in the brush | Chamberlain is democratic. He came from to await his coming. He was observed last the common people and would do nothing evening approaching in a buggy, with a friend and the officers crawled down toward the tent, and being armed with rifles, succeeded in compelling him to surrender.

After his arrest Zeilinger said he was tired of trying to keep in hiding longer, as Pacific's monsters pulled in with the second he knew the government officers would get him sooner or later.

For a brief period at the Union depot yesterday noon there was a confusion of ongues almost as complete as that which fell upon the Babylonians at the building of the tower of Babel. The first section of the Union Pacific special bearing the 300 European delegates to the Interparliamentary congress, reached Omaha at 11:35. fifteen minutes later and the members of the peace congress immediately left the cars and looked, for a few minutes, with keenest interest at the structures on each side of the tracks which shut out the view of Omaha. The train came in from Den-

The party, which was one of the most distinguished that has visited Omaha, represented parliamentarians from England and Denmark, members of the Reichsrath from Austria, deputies and senators from France, Hungary, Italy, Noway, Portugal, The Netherlands, Sweden, Roumania and Switzerland, and members of the Reichstag in Germany. Some of the visitors had titles and there were in the party makers and unmakers of law of the United States.

Colnel Price-Jones. One of the most interesting members of the party was Colonel Pryce-Jones, whose name is not unfamiliar to Americans who have followed the convulsive proceedings in the English house of Parliament, particularly during discussions upon Chamberlain's proposed fiscal measure, the educational and license laws and the army and navy problems, which have in view the reorganization of both. Colonel Prycespeaking of Chamberlain's protective policy he said:

Pryce-Jones was most enthusiastic. "I am impressed with the vastness and section of the interparliamentary train. Everything in this country seems to be on the same scale. I like your western people better than those of the east. They are too stiff in the east. The westerners are more like the English in their hospitality and democratic manners.

It has never entered into an agreement with that country which it felt Russia was not ready to violate if it was for its interest to do so. In the present conflict in the far east England's sympathies have been overwhelmingly with Japan. England cannot forget Russia's ingratitude and treachery to Great Britain in the past. England looks with some apprehension on the idea of a yellow peril, but it views with greater misgivings the danger of a Muscovite peril. The yellow peril can be held in check. We cannot tell where the Muscovite peril will spread."

From here the visitors went to Chicago ver the Northwestern. They will be entertained at Detroit, will stop a day at Niagara and view the falls and from there will go to New York to be entertained later at Washington. The date of their departure has not been fixed. Among the Americans on the train were: Richard Bartholdt, chairman of the committee of Springs, N. C.; Roanoke, Va.; Glade congress on the Interparliamentary union: Mrs. Bartholdt, R. F. Broussard, R. R. Hitt, T. E. Burton, Hugh A. Dinsmore, Ruppert, jr., Franklin E. Brooks, S. J. audeville at the Creighton-Orpheum The new season at the vaudeville house was most successfully started yesterday. While the attendance was not record breaking, it was sufficient to denote that the "light and breezy" has not lost its charm for Omaha people. Most of the regulars were present to see the first bill, and all seemed to enjoy it thoroughly. The bill is well selected, and composed of features that are certain to prove popular Several of them are of the highest order, while all are good. One of the most entertaining sketches that has been offered in Omaha in a long time is "Her Last Rehearsal," given by Lewis McCord and company. It tells of a girl who has the notion that she can act and the efforts of a pair of stone-broke actors to get her "up" in the part of Juliet. Mr. McCord gives a splendid buriesque of the "artistic" stage manager, while Miss Elvian Bates is screamingly funny as the girl who thinks she can act. She is natural in all her ways, and her modesty is apparently not put on and off with her makeup. Their assistants are all good. They are assisted by a dog that understands his business as thoroughly as do the men. Mc-Cabe, Sabin and Vera present a funny sketch, in which Irish repartee, some songs and quite a bit of good dancing is offered. Varin and Turenne juggle with Roman axes instead of Indian clubs, and if they would use one of the axes on the act, dividing its length about in half, they would improve it. Their work is well done. Detective Dunn, who made the arrest, said that when he entered the room he found the furniture upset, the chairs broken and a hammer and a butcher knife on the floor. The woman was moaning in one corner, the blood streaming from her face and head. To the police Miss Higgins said that Smith, who is her lover, had been living off her for some time, and as she was in rather straitened circumstances herself she remonstrated with him. In a fit of anger he began to assault her and threatened to take her life. Lulu Cherrington, who shares the room, was arrested as a state witness, and Smith charged with assault and threatening to kill.

CONQUERING HEROES HOME

Victorious Woodmen of the Werld Receive Ovation on Return.

WIN EVERYTHING IN SIGHT AT ST. LOUIS

Ceams Are Met at Union Depot by Fraters and Escorted to Hall Where Order Was Born.

The prize-winning Woodmen of the World cams have every reason to believe their successful efforts in the international drill contests at St. Louis are thoroughly appreclated by their Omaha friends and brethren in the cordialty of their reception on their return home yesterday morning. The train bringing the party was scheduled to arrive at 8 o'clock but did not reach Omaha until 10:30,

A large crowd of friends, including repesentatives of camps of the winning teams, Seymour No. 16, Alpha No. 1 and Bohemian camp, with Dimick's band, were at the Union station to welcome the winners When the train pulled in a great cheer arose, and after the first greetings were over the victors and their fellow Woodmen formed in parade in front of the station for a brief review. With them, too, was the camp of Boys of Woodcraft, in their pretty zouave uniforms, who were the only representatives of the junior class of Woodmen at St. Louis.

The procession, escorted by Bohemian camp, marched north on Tenth to Jackson, west to Twelfth, north on Twelfth to Douglas. The procession stopped for a few moments in front of the Millard hotel, where Banker Mike Keiser of Alpha camp decorated each of the members of Alpha team with a bouttoniere of an American Beauty rose. A handsome bouquet of the same floral beauties was presented the Seymour team. The march then was resumed to Myrtle hall, where an informal reception was tendered the victors.

Reception Exercises Consul Commander Eisberry of Seymout camp acted as master of ceremonies. The proceedings were opened by all uniting in singing "America," with Miss Stevens presiding at the plano. Sovereign Sonier of Seymour camp followed with a fine baritone solo.

Sovereign Charles Unitt of Alpha camp delivered a brief address of welcome on behalf of Alpha camp No. 1 in which he expressed his pleasure at being assigned the honor. "It was in this very hall," he said, "that, thirteen years ago, the order last night.
