STUDENTS TAKE UP FIGHT

Pressing the Cheap Text Book Question Upon the Board of Regents.

PROUT FILES BRIEF IN NEMAHA TAX CASE

Argues that Court Has No Power to Review the Action of the State Board of Equalization Except for Fraud.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Sept. 19.—(Special.)—A number of students who have arranged to enter the state university intend to take up with the regents the matter of purchasing text books and endeavor to get the regents to follow the lead of the State Normal board, that is, to buy the books and sell them to the students at cost or rent them for a nominal fee and thus save to the students the immense profit that is being made by the book dealers. The students cannot see but what the plan is practicable for the reason Superintendent Clark of the Peru Normal saved $5,000 to 500 students, by renting the books, without cost to the state, besides paying a salary to a man to look after the matter.

Should this same ratio be maintained in the university with its 2,000 pupils it would mean $20,000 a year. Hot Time in Colorado. A traveling man who arrived in Lincoln this morning after a trip through Colorado brought some interesting news of the political fight now going on out there. "There are no republicans, democrats or populists in Colorado," he said. "Party lines have absolutely been wiped out. On every hand it is Peabody and anti-Peabody. In some instances the feeling is so strong that men who have been in partnership for years have dissolved just because of the Peabody fight. I saw these instances myself. Both sides are red hot over the election and national politics is not discussed. It is hard to tell who will win out, but it will be a dandy fight."

Files Brief in Tax Case.

Attorney General Prout today filed his brief in the supreme court in the Nemaha county tax case, in support of an appeal from the decision of Judge Kelliger. The attorney general holds: 1. The court was without power to review the act of the State Board of Equalization and assessment in the absence of a finding that said board acted fraudulently or was without jurisdiction to act in the premises. 2. An excessive valuation by the taxing officers is not a ground for an injunction against the extension of the tax upon the books. 3. The judgment is contrary to law and the evidence. Supreme Court Begins Fall Session. After a vacation since July, the supreme court met this morning and the judges spent the day in consultation. Chief Justice Holcomb, who has been in Washington and along the Pacific coast for a couple of months has returned, and met with Judges Barnes and Sedgwick today. Judge Holcomb has been benefited by his trip and expressed himself as feeling much better than he had for some time. Cases will be called for hearing tomorrow.

Takes Burkett's Place. Deputy Attorney General Norris Brown went to Syracuse this afternoon and tonight he will pull the eagle's tail down there to the edification of a lot of fusionists and to the delight of more republicans. Mr. Brown attended the republican convention there some days ago and naturally he was invited to come again. Congressman Burkett was to have delivered the speech, but owing to illness he was unable to go.

FOUR HORSES KILLED BY POISON

Two Men Under Arrest Charged with the Crime. KEARNEY, Neb., Sept. 19.—(Special Telegram.)—One of the most dastardly crimes, and one which has caused as great an amount of indignation as any ever perpetrated in this community, was committed Saturday night at what is known as the south barn. Some scoundrel or scoundrels mixed up a quantity of Paris green in some feed and placed it in the barn where it was eaten by a number of horses belonging to F. G. Roudsbush and Joe Duckworth, resulting in the death of four of them. Two men were arrested suspected of being the perpetrators of the crime and are now in the county jail. They are Jim Taylor and his partner, a red-headed fellow named Miller. Taylor is the man who was fined last week for riding a horse to death. Roudsbush testified against Miller in the trial and he is said to have made threats that he would get even. He and Miller were in the city Saturday evening and left some time during the night.

The men arrested are horse traders and racers and make fairly carnivals, etc. They were at Ravenna last week. They travel in a covered wagon.

Boys Get Into Trouble. PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., Sept. 19.—(Special.)—When Burlington passenger train No. 2, with Conductor Lewis Erwin and S. L. Farrow, brakeman, departed for the east yesterday afternoon there were on the train Henry Posaal, Ward Burr, Samuel Henderson and Samuel Beetz, who expected to get a free ride to Pacific Junction. After the train had been stopped several times and a roundup between the brakeman, who was badly beaten and bruised while attempting to eject the boys, the train was backed up to the city and the officers arrested the two last named and placed them in jail. This morning in Justice Archer's court the boys pleaded not guilty to the charge of assault and battery and their preliminary hearing was continued until next Thursday. The two other boys were arrested in Iowa and were placed in the Mills county jail. It is understood that a more serious charge, that of obstructing the mail, is to be filed against the prisoners, as it is claimed that the boys took turns in pulling the air brake which stopped the train.

Papillon May Extend Limits. PAPILLON, Neb., Sept. 19.—(Special.)—At the last meeting of the village board the advisability of extending the corporate limits of the village on the east, south and west of the south part of town was discussed. The matter was brought before the board by a committee of the Commercial club, as the members think that the people now living on the outskirts of town, and who share in all the benefits of the village, should be brought within the town limits and pay the village tax. However, the board objected to the proposition, on the grounds that there would be more expense attached to the court proceedings which would extend the limits of the town than would be derived from the additional taxes. People who are inclined to criticize the decision of the board say that the expense might be greater the first year, but in the following years the village would be greatly benefited by the additional taxes.

Assault of Halepska Arrested. TECUMSEH, Neb., Sept. 19.—(Special.)—George Chastine, the young man who made a murderous assault on James Halepska, as the finish of a card game some two weeks ago, has been arrested and is now in the county jail. In the police court he pleaded guilty to the charge of assault and paid a fine of $5 and costs. As soon as this was done he was promptly rearrested on the charge of assault with intent to kill. He will be given an examination in the county court tomorrow. It has become whispered about that an effort will be made to prosecute all the parties who were playing in the game at the time of the assault and yesterday two of the persons left the city. Chastine went after Halepska with a dagger and a watch stopped the blow and saved Halepska's life.

Caught in Windmill.

PAPILLON, Neb., Sept. 19.—(Special Telegram.)—While making some needed repairs on his windmill this morning Charles Buskett, residing two miles north of town, met with a very painful and serious accident. In some manner the wind started the mill running, catching Mr. Buskett's right hand and tearing the fingers and flesh. He hurriedly came to town and Dr. Magart found it necessary to amputate one finger. It is thought he will settle all right.
