BANKS OBJECT TO RULING

Federal Court Reviews Finding of Referee in Green Bankruptcy Case.

FIFTY-TWO THOUSAND DOLLARS INVOLVED

Number of Men Indicted by Grand Jury for Minor Offenses Pleaded Guilty and Are Sentenced by Judge McPherson.

The hearing of matters in connection with the bankruptcy of H. S. Green, the Dow City banker, and the Green Cattle company, occupied almost the entire day in federal court yesterday.

Henry Ertz of Carroll, who had been indicted on a charge of obscene matter through the mail, entered a plea of guilty.

Indictments were returned by the grand jury against Chris and Andrew Sorenson of Marne, charging them with bootlegging. They at once pleaded guilty and were sentenced each to a fine of $100 and to be committed to the county jail for thirty days.

George L. Wilkinson, postmaster at Neola, indicted at the last term on a charge of illegally refusing to forward an issue of a rival Neola newspaper, entered a plea of guilty and the case was again for sentence.

BAPTIST ASSOCIATION MEETING

Over a Hundred Clerical and Lay Delegates Expected.

The annual meeting of the Southwestern Iowa Baptist association will last over Sunday. The sessions will be held in the First Baptist church and among those on the program for addresses are Dr. E. F. Pelman of Grace church and Dr. J. W. Conley of the First church.

To the Public.

Council Bluffs, Ia., Sept. 21, 1904. The Nonpareil newspaper of this city, after first advising you that the new dredge for Indian Creek could not be floated, and later attempting to persuade you that the machine was eating up too much money, has at last arrived at the conclusion that the dredge will save over $25,000 in money and $200,000 in health by virtue of the dredge. This, however, has not been told to the public in whom it is so much interested.

The trouble seems to be "a temper in two little tea pots"; one belonging to the Nonpareil, the other the News, and all for the reason that "they won't play if they can't have their own way."

An excellent office location, fronting on Pearl street, only half a block from Broadway, with a nice large showwindow which can be used for display.

Thirty Days for Wife Benter. Thirty days on bread and water, with instructions to the police to see that the punishment was carried out to the letter.

Three Sentenced to Penitentiary. In the district court yesterday three of the defendants against whom indictments were returned last Saturday by the grand jury entered pleas of guilty and were each sentenced to one year in the penitentiary at Fort Madison.

Asthma and Hay Fever Cured. The truly marvelous cures of Asthma, which are being effected by Dr. Schiffman's Asthma Cure certainly call for notice.

IOWA REPUBLICANS ACTIVE

Demand for Speakers, Literature and Buttons Swamps the Committee.

FILLING VACANCY ON ELECTORAL TICKET

Frank Sheriff to Be Reappointed on Release from Penitentiary on Charge of Robbing Depot at Lockridge.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

DES MOINES, Sept. 20.—(Special.)—Chairman R. H. Spence of the republican state committee, with Manager McNeely of the speakers' bureau, went to Chicago today for the purpose of consulting with the national republican committee in regard to speakers, literature, campaign buttons, lithographs and campaign songs.

The state committee will meet here September 30 to fill the vacancy on the electoral ticket caused by the resignation of Governor H. May of Chicago, and W. I. Turner of Chickasaw county has been picked for the place.

Will Prepare a Monument. The Iowa commission for building a monument to the Iowa dead at Andersonville, Ga., will go to Georgia early next month and locate the monument site, and arrange the preliminaries.

Missing Man Located. Daniel E. Buck, a veteran street car conductor, left his home at 2200 Second avenue on Monday and his failure to return caused his family considerable anxiety.

Sudden Death of Woman. Mrs. Thomas C. Hubbs, wife of a laboring man, was found dead in bed this morning under strange circumstances.

Sheriff to Be Tried Again. Word comes from Fort Madison to the effect that the sheriff of Jefferson county, Iowa, has asked to secure Frank Sheriff when he is released from the penitentiary next Friday or Saturday, and that he will be taken to Fairfield to be tried for an old charge.

The John Beno Co. BROADWAY, HEAD OF PEARL ST. Announce the Annual FALL OPENING of Fashion's Most Original and Artistic Types in Fall and Winter Millinery Thursday, Friday and Saturday September Twenty-Second, Twenty-Third and Twenty-Fourth. An admirable review of exquisite Parisian masterpieces selected by our representative from the best sources, and the highly creditable creations of our own talented artists. In planning for this display it was our purpose to make a very comprehensive showing, giving special attention to every requirement; therefore it will consist of everything in millinery from the smart street hat to the most stunning creations for dress occasions. From a style standpoint it is an exhibit of rare merit. Very pronounced will be the artistic blending in the new colorings so fashionable this season. Models will be displayed in all the correct shades—new mahogany, old rose, brick reds, browns and yachting blues in three tone effects. The prices will be found very low here for the character of the millinery and the quality of the materials.

publicans has been called to convene at the town council room at 8 o'clock on the evening of Thursday, September 22, for the purpose of organizing a Roosevelt and Fairbank campaign club.
