

GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Sharp Advances Made on Wheat and Corn Deliveries. MARKET FOR LATTER IS LARGELY OVERSOLD. Gains of Fully Cent on Corn—September Wheat Firm—Short Corn Crop Predicted—News and Gossip.

OMAHA, Sept. 28, 1914.

There were surprises in store for the bears in both wheat and corn today. Because of the fine weather, by reason of the assurance that a very large percentage of the corn crop would be made up of the new crop, and through some enormous crop estimates the bears have deserted corn a good thing to sell, and are now buying it. The same is true of wheat. The market for wheat is now a buying market. The market for wheat is now a buying market. The market for wheat is now a buying market.

During the latter part of the session wheat advanced well maintained. Corn was stronger at 4 1/2 cent improvement. The market for wheat is now a buying market. The market for wheat is now a buying market. The market for wheat is now a buying market.
