Plurality for Roosevelt Runs Above Three Thousand Mark.

ENTIRE COUNTY TICKET IS ELECTED

J. J. Hean for County Attorney Heads the List on County Ticket, but All Have Large Enough Majorities.

Complete returns yesterday show that Roosevelt carried Pottawattamie county by 3,153 plurality, the vote on national ticket being: Republican, 7,070; democratic, 3,917. This is a large republican gain over the vote in 1900, when McKinley received 6,527 and Bryan 5,378.

The complete vote by precinct on the national ticket in the county taken from the returns made on the envelopes containing the poli books is as follows:

the nominee of the prohibition party. Of the 199 votes received by Crewdson 111 were polled in Council Bluffs: A democrat in the First precinct of the Fifth ward cast his vote for John Jay Trainey, for district judge, while a voter in Carson township voted for George F. Bruington, both names being written in the space left blank by reason of the failure of the democrats to nominate a candidate for judge.

For members of the Board of County Supervisors, Baker and Setz, republicans, were elected by a vote equaling that of the balance of the county ticket.

Complete figures on the Kane township ticket cannot be obtained until the poll books are opened, but returns are sufficiently complete to show that the entire republican ticket is elected by safe majorities. This means H. H. Field, E. B. Gardiner, for justices of the peace, and Haker and Palmer for constables. The vote for the head of the state ticket in the county was: Martin (rep.), 6,696; Dickson (dem.), 3,947. Martin's majority.

Returns Slow in Coming in, but Latest Indicate Increase Instead of Decrease in the Figures First Given Out. 1

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Nov. 9 .- (Special.)-There is the greatest rejoicing among lowa republicans today over the fact that the entire congressional delegation from this state will be republican in the next congress. The vote in the Second district was too close for comfort, but republicans beat Martin J. Wade by about 400 votes. The other republican members of congress were all elected by increased plurallties in every case, the latest estimates being as follows: Thomas Hedge, First district, 2,000; B. F. Birdsail, Third, 6,000; G. J. A. T. Hull, Seventh, 12,000; W. P. Hepburn, Eighth, 12,000; Walter I. Smith, Ninth, 10,000; J. P. Conner, Tenth, 17,000; Elbert H. Hubbard, Eleventh, 15,000. The returns on the state ticket have day estimated the plurality at 135,060. The state and national tickets ran together well, but the congressional and county tickets were much scratched. The blehnini elections amendment probably carried though the figures were not sufficient to speak with much confidence on the subject. The canvassers were slow in reporting on this subject. The legislative amendment is in doubt yet. Late returns tonight rather increase the republican plurality, and especially increases the pluralities for the members of congress. Chairman Morrissey of the democratic committee tonight gave up all hopes of the election of Judge Wade and admitted the election of the entire republican delegation from lowa. Remarkable Surgical Discovery. Doctors in Des Moines are much puzzled over a remarkable discovery in the case of the death of a 14-year-old girl, Stella Weston. Improvement. An organization which represents the consolidation of two organizations by the same the American public; and such a body is found in the American Civic association. This association marks a distinct epoch in American development-the coming of the time when the reign of the almighty dollar is to be disputed by the love of beauty, which has heretofore remained dormant in the hearts of our people,

The association proposes to agitate constantly the improvement in appearance of cities, towns, villages, farms and roadsides, and to bring a steady and direct influence to bear so that its force may be expended in a way to secure results. While much of the improvement sought can be accomplished only by the public authorities, as for instance, improvement in the architecture of public buildings, the creation of civic centers, the acquisition of systems of parks connected by parkways, yet the association urges action by individuals looking to improvement in the architecture of individual homes, the making of attractive backyards as well as front yards, the general location of flower boxes at windows, particularly by contiguous householders, and the adoption of other similar ideas that are equally important. The association insists positively upon the aesthetic possibilities of railroad lines. It stands for the removal of artificial creations that destroy what there is of natural beauty, and particularly for the checking of obnoxious public advertising. It recognizes that the greatest improvement in a city can be made in the locality where there is the greatest ugliness and most disease-breeding squalor. The true beauty of a city depends on its worst locality as much as its best. The association's work has been divided into the following various departments: Social settlements, outdoor art, parks, arts and crafts, children's gardens, city making, factory betterment, libraries, public nuisances, public recreation, railroad improvement, rural improvement, school extension and the press.

Inspiring is the association's report from Cleveland. That city has just adopted a comprehensive building code, which will well repay the study of those who are

The eye is the dominant feature of the human face and its expression as impressive as the language, therefore its treatment demands careful consideration. In an art school where painting is taught it N. Haugen, Fourth, 7,500; R. G. There is a marked difference of character between the eye of men and that of women; the former is epic and full of energy, while the latter is formed soft and brilliant, only for the expression of tender sentiments; a skillful retoucher ought to preserve this difference. In retouching the eye, the most important point is to determine on the correct shade of it and guard with great caution against getting it too dark; when every minute portion of the structure of the eye is visible, every line must have its place in the drawing and every part must be signified, but without any degree of sever-

HUMMING OF TELEGRAPH WIRES

the Music of Great Acolian

This subject is treated in a brief article by Telephony. The telephone pole, it reminds us, merely transmits to the ear the humming of the wires overhead, its own vibrations being so flow that they make no audible sound. The writer goes on:

"The wires strung from pole to pole are set into oscillation by the wind, somewhat as the strings of a violin are set into vibration by the bow. In skillful hands the violin bow can be made to bring forth from the string one powerful fundamental note and several overtones of higher pitch, but in perfect harmony with the fundamental. But the wind is a very unskillful performer, and brings forth at the same time not only the deepest fundamental bass note of the wire, but a great variety of overtones, both harmonious and discordant. In fact, the many wires strung overtoken should have an especial appeal to head, from pole to pole, constitute splendid acollan harps. "The slowest oscillation of the wires may be seen or felt, but are not audible. The bass notes and the higher tenor we hear but faintly when we stand midway between two poles. If the ear is pressed resonance, and that which is only feeble or the more gusty it is, so much the more notive will be the humming of the wire and the pole. If the wind bluws lengthwise of the wire it will bring out a difproduced by a transverse wind. Therefore the direction of the wind has some influpoles; but the direction of the wind depends upon the location of the storm enter, and is a good busts for local prediction as to rain. Hence these who have studied the bumming very closely have frequently declared that they can tell the weather by the character of the hum-

"The humming of wires running east and perature, often ten or more hours in adof wires running north and south advised a rise in temperature, almost always sev-Wires running east and west never hummed together with wires running north and south, not even when the same when running along an east and west street turned down morth and south side; only that portion of them humming that indicated a rise or fall in temperature, as explained above. "It seems evident that the humming is due entirely to the action of the wind. There is apparently no necessity for asuming that electric currents, either in the air or in the wire, or any other mystery, electricity must give some plausible reason why the current should oscillate with such frequency us to cause the rapid vibrations that must exist in order to cause audible
