of such an assembling. It has brought all countries closer together and has elevated the world.

Speaking for myself, it has been the work of my life. The duties of the position I have held have not only claimed my entire time and thought (having not failed to be on the grounds from six to fourteen hours each and every day since the opening, May I last), but the performance of those duties has been so pregnant with pleasure and interest that it has dispelled all feelings of weariness, and its cessation will seem like the severing of beloved ties, the departure from the scenes endeared by chrished associations.

I tender you sincere thanks for this manifestation of your good will, which I shall ever hold in sweet remembrance. To have served our fellows with all of the strength and ability granted to us is a duty, the discharge of which is of itself sufficient reward. Those who can feel that their efforts which have been devoted to the uplifting and welfare of humanity are ever filled with a sense of regret that they could not have accomplished more. But, lest we forget, let us unite in expressing our gratitude to the Almighty God that throughout this work in which we have been propaged He has spared us from pestilence, preserved our health and strength and blessed us with prosperity. May this enterprise with which we have been connected for nearly seven years past bring into still closer brotherhood all the nations and all the peoples who have participated in it. May it deepen our patriotism. May it strengtnen our love for a benign providence that smiles upon us.

Over on agricultural knoll the great floral clock clicked off the minutes of the departing pageant. And in the night rang out the tones of the massive bell as the midnight hour was tolled by the great clock. Instantly a hush seemed to pervade the entire grounds. The glowthe pulsations of the great engines that drove the cascades gradually died down, the light faded steadily, diminishing until but a faint glow was perceptible. Suddenly there was darkness, and the Louisiana Purchase exposition had passed into the chronicles of history.

Election Contest in Banner.

KIMBALL, Neb., Dec. 1 .- (Special Telegram.)—The first election contest ever filed in Banner county was instituted yesterday | Angeirs. when David W. Hill filed a contest against W. S. McKee for the office of county commissioner of the Second commissioners' district. The history leading up to this contest is about as follows: W. S. McKee and Milton E. Shafts were regular candidates of the republican and people's independent parties, respectively. Those dissatisfied with both of these candidates decided to vote for Mr. Hill by writing in his name. However, they became confused as to the correct initials of Mr. Hill, some

ARGUMENT IN BURTON CASE

Government Insists that Kansas Senator Violated the Law.

SAY CHAIN OF EVIDENCE IS COMPLETE

Attorneys for the Defense Allege that the Charge of Lower Court Was Unfair to Their Client.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.-Solicitor General Hoyt of the Department of Justice made the opening argument for the government in the case of United States Senator J. R. Burton of Kansas in the supreme court of the United States today. Mr. Hoyt contended that this was an ordinary criminal diction of the court which tried Mr. Buron could not be successfully maintained. Replying to a question from Justice White, Mr. Hoyt said Mr. Burton's name appeared what time he could not say. Justice White replied that as the department was investigating the case the time seemed very material.

Mr. Hoyt argued that Senator Burton knew just what he was doing when he accepted service with the Rialto company. He said it was questionable whether a senator should perform such services as were required of the defendant by the company, but that when he accepted a fee "he completed the fatal chain."

Mr. Hoyt discussed the claim of the defense that the charge was an "Infamous APPEAL TO THE PRESIDENT crime" instead of a "misdemeanor," and therefore that the defense should have ten Woman's Christian Temperance Union instead of three challenges. He claimed that the conteiton of the defense was not valid. Justice White asked if he did not realize that the penalty carried a disquali-PHILADELPHIA.
