Nothing can be great that right."

Christmas Shopping

Becomes a real pleasure at Thompson, Belden & Co's., every thing is so new and goods are fresh and clean. Just as you would want them when buying for gift giving.

Beginning Saturday, December 17th, our store will be open every evening until Christmas.

Neck Scarfs and Squares These beautiful Boarfs for women are greatly admired. Every one is new, bought gift than one of our beautiful neck furs; for this hollday showing. Plain Slik Scarfs, Muffler style, black and Scarfs, beautiful silky fur, at $12.50, $15.00, white, $1.25 each.

Wool Scarfs, with embroidered silk dot, in black and white, $1.25 each. Crepe de Chine Scarfs, washable, in black, white, pink and blue, $1.35 each.

Mousseline De Soie Scarfs, with silk embroidered dot in black, blue, red and up with the best of covers and frames. lavender, $3.00 each Crepe de Chine Scarfs, with fancy silk stripes, 3% yards long in black, white, pink and light blue, jat $3.75 each.

Persian Searfs, with fringed ends, in blue, red and green, at $8.50 each. Persian Squares, in shades of lavender, green and new blues, at $2.50, $6.00 and $8.00

Evidence Regarding Alleged Polygamous Marriage of Apostle Cannen.

TESTIMONY OF A FORMER MORMON

August Lanstrom Tells of Mysteries of the Endowment House and Why He Left the

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.-Testimony re We know of no more useful or acceptable tion of the protests against Senator Reed > could marry Lillian Hamlin. Mr. Cannon President Rooseveit. said he could marry outside the state; that "I told him that if he did marry Lillian," said the witness, "that I could not live interests of postal employes. with him when the church or law would not recognize his marriage." Mrs. Ellis told of the departure of Mr.

They returned July 6, 1896. Mr. Cannon "He confessed on his death bed that he had married Miss Hamlin," said Mrs. Ellis, "and he said, 'I never had a well day since.' I think it killed him," the witness added, sobbingly.

Cannon's Fourth Marriage.

Mrs. Eilts could not testify from her own knowledge who performed the cere-

On cross-examination Mrs. Ellis was destroyed by fire, which, starting last night, the wire that controlled the automatic asked why she opposed the marriage besprinkler system turned a dull red and in tween her husband and Miss Hamlin. She another instant the whole building from said it was because she believed the manitop to bottom burst into flames. The festo prohibited such marriages. She went sprinkler wires had some way touched a for counsel to President Smith and asked live heavy current wire. The three men him if such a marriage (explaining the who were with Fellows succeeded in mak- case, but withholding the names) could be she meant by saying that she believed her Mrs. Ellis ascribed worry and the conwas threatened, and its escape from de- He slid into a cauldron of flame and was science as the cause of her husband's illness. She said she believed her husband these obligations the street from the Boutell building stands haps a year, but he could not remember the two-story department store of the any names except Mr. Owen, who is em-Powers Mercantile company covering a ployed in gathering testimony for the quarter of a block. It is of very inflam- protestants. Mr. Wallis corrected his tes-

> The attorneys for the protestants were not ready to proceed further because of the nonarrival of witnesses, who have been delayed by storms. The hearing was ad-

> Testimony of Former Mormon. At 2 p. m. August Lundstrom of Salt Lake City was sworn. He was born in Sweden and became a Mormon six years before coming to America. He has held high positions in the church, both in Sweden and in Utah. He testified that he went through the temples in Sait Lake City and Logan. He had heard the endowment obligations taken six times, he said, each ceremony consuming from six to eight was that of retribution, in which each person covenanted and promised to ask God the end of the earth." in the beliefs taught. "I found a weak spot in the wall, and when I touched it a hole was made that was big enough to for the last year and is a member of the crawl through. The foundation was not these weaknesses with officials of the place Monday.

TONS OF XMAS CANDIES

Remember the name Doan's and take Marten Scarfs, very long, $15.00 each. Fox they are not costly.

Fur Neck Scarfs

$18.00 and $25.00. River Mink Scarfs, at $5.50 and $3.75. Genuine Stone Marten Chuster Scarfs, at $5.00 each.

Umbrellas

Not only will you find the selection large and the handles pretty, but they are made Beautiful styles in handles, in both men and women's sizes.

Umbrellas, at $1.50, $2.00, $2.50 and $3.00, with beautiful horn, princess and box fur handles. Umbrellas, at $5.00 each, in gold, silver.

natural wood, gun metal and fancy pearls. Every one new and beautiful. Imported handles, at $6.75, $7.50 and $10.00.

THOMPSON, BELDEN&GO

Y. M. C. A. Building. Corner Sixteenth and Douglas Streets.

PROPERTY VALUED AT $820,000 IS LOST

Large Part of Retail District in Threatened, but Pavorable Conditions Permit Successful Work by Firemen.

lost their lives, several persons were injured and property valued at $820,000 was was not brought under control until this

JACOB F. MILLER, insurance patrol-JOHN FELLOWS, pipeman, Seriously injured: Fred Kirscheff, substitute pipeman, burned about face.

Tony Wilson, pipeman, burned about legs.
Lieutenant J. P. Barrett, back injured. For a time the retail business district struction was due as much to the absence of a strong wind as to the efforts of the O. H. Peck company, photographic sup-plies, building and stock, $80,000.

DOUBTFUL RUMORS

And Still Scores of Omaha People Accept Them As Facts.

The published statement of some follows is convincing proof because it comes from a resident of Omaha.

fifth street, contractor, says: "For three years my wife was not only subject to kidney complaint, but she had other complications. She doctored for her trouble but the pain in her back and other symptoms of either weakened or box of Doan's Kidney Pills procured at Kuhn & Co.'s drug store, corner 15th and Douglas streets, did her se much good that I purchased two more. The treatment did her a world of good,"

Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

no substitute.

Other miscellaneous losses will bring the total up to $820,000. Total insurance, $505,000.

How Men Lost Lives. Jacob Miller, a member of the insurance patrol, staggering under a heavy load of tarpaulins on the fifth floor of the Peck Photograph Supply company, stumbled into the elevator shaft and fell to the basement. Every effort was made to rescue him, but in the rising flood of water and the roaring furnace of flame his body could not be located.

John Fellows, a pipeman, was caught on establishment with three of his comrades. stand here last spring. It was a critical moment, for all at once ing miraculous exits down the fire escapes, but Fellows made the fatal error of running to the elevator shaft and sliding down the cable, in the belief that the lower part husband's last marriage killed him. of the building had not yet begun to burn. seen no more.

When the Bouteli building burst into knew he had broken the laws of the land flames the firemen knew that nothing and of the church. quickly spread to the adjoining buildings. Bintliff building is the Northwestern Na. Attorney Worthington, representing Mr. mable construction and soon flames began to appear along the eaves. The fire departnent, however, succeeded in preventing the fire from gaining a secure hold. The "stop" was made at the expense of heavy damage to the Power's stock. This prevented a fire which might have gone far and included the newspaper building of the Journal and the Tribune. FIRE RECORD.

Blaze in New York Hotel. NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—One hundred and twenty-five guests of the Hotel Lafayette-Brevoort, at Eighth street and Fifth avenue, were aroused from their beds early today and kept waiting, in scanty clothing. for more than an hour while firemen fough a blaze between the ceiling of the first floor and the flooring of the second. The flames were finally extinguished and all the guests returned to their rooms. The loss was small.

Opera House in Connecticut. STAMFORD, Conn., Dec. 14 .- The Grand opera house building, containing a theater, number of offices, two stores and a hall occupied by an Odd Fellows' lodge. was burned today. The total loss is estimated at $100,000.

HYMENEAL.

West-Townley. STELLA, Neb., Dec. 14.-(Special.)-Bruce West and Miss Mary Townley, daughter of Landlord Townley of the Florence hotel. surprised their friends by taking the noon train yesterday for Falls City, where they were married, and returning on the local, when their marriage was announced to the hotel guests at supper. Mr. West has been engaged in the implement business here firm of West Bros., doing business here and at Auburn.

Binegar-Ridgeway. SUTHERLAND, Neb., Dec. 14.—(Special.)

E. E. Binegar and Miss Maude Ridgeway of this place were united in marriage by Rev. Mr. Morris of North Platte at that the recomendation that the resolutions lie on the table. Mr. Baker desired to discuss his reasons, but he was shut off because the motion to lay on the table was not debateable. The recommendation of the com-

SENATE RECEIVES NOTICE

(Continued from First Page.)

The house then went into committee of the whole to consider the urgent deficiency bill. Mr. Hemenway explained its provis-

During debate on the bill the committee appointed yesterday to notify the senate that the house had impeached Judge Swayne, appeared in the center aisie and presented by the war minister. Mr. Palmer, its chairman spoke as follows: Mr. Paimer, its chairman spoke as follows:

Mr. Speaker: In obedience to the order of the house we proceeded to the bar of the senate and in the name of this body and of all the people of the United States we impeached, as we were directed to do.
Charles Swayne, Judge of the district court of the United States for the northern district of Fiorida, of high crime and misdemeanors in office and we demanded that the senate should take order to make him appear before that body to answer for the same, and announced that the house would soon present articles of impeachment and make them good, to which the response was,
"order shall be taken."

Discussion of the urgent deficiency bill

Discussion of the urgent deficiency bill then was resumed. Mr. Baker gave yent to his feelings on the subject of trusts and combinations in restraint of trade, by moving an amendment to reduce from $25,000 to $24,000 the peropriation for testing coals and lignite

Bee, December 14, 1806 | SMOOT HEARING CONTINUES his disposal an appropriation of $600,000 He stated that the attorney general has at investigate combinations in restraint of trade and yet, he said not a dollar of it has been expended profitably. By laying his resolution on the table, Mr. Baker declared that the republican party stood as the defender of such combinations. Satisfied with his statement he withdrew his amendment and the bill then passed.

> Other bills were passed as follows: laws to the District of Alaska; providing for the protection of wild animals and birds in the Wichita forest reserve. Oklahoma; authorizing the exploration and purchase of mines within the boundaries of private land claims; amending the revised statutes so as to give foreign authors the right to copyright in this country any time within twelve months after publication abroad; amending the revised statutes so as to re- where Nan Patterson is on trial before strict patents on drugs or medicines to the Justice Vernon M. Davis, charged with The house then adjourned

Investigation of Action of Secretary of Rural Mail Carriers in Progress.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.-Orders were issued today for an investigation of the case of Secretary Tumber of the Rural Carrier association, whose signature as signed to papers in the possession of postal lin on June 18, 1896. He was at that time authorities was on the circular letter sent was written by her sister, Mrs. J. Morgan candidates for congress asking them as according to the witness, then had three to their position on legislation affecting the carriers. A postoffice inspector will immediately be assigned to look into his actions on these matters. Tumber is em-If you are going to send them out of the who had died, and she therefore wanted to ployed as a rural carrier at Lockport, N. city, we pack them for you free of charge. marry Abram. Mrs. Ellis detailed a con- Y., and a large number of letters are alversation she had with her husband, in leged to have been sent out by him in which she told him she did not think he contravention of the executive order of

The postal authorities are determined to he would marry her for time and she would break up the alleged lobbying which they claim has been going on here in connec tion with proposed measures affecting the President Keller of the Letter Carriers association, who was dismissed as a letter carrier in the Cleveland postoffice, is still Cannon and Miss Hamlin, accompanied by in the city, but President Cunningham of the rural carriers' organization, who also was dismissed from the government service yesterday, has left Washington. It is stated at the Postoffice department that was ill and died about three weeks later. the removal of the heads of these two organizations will probably be sufficient warning to the postal employes to strictly observe the orders prohibiting any attempts, individually or through an association, to influence legislation,

It is recognized that some employes may have contributed more or less innocently to aid efforts to procure legislation and the mony between her husband and Miss Ham- government probably will observe a lenient policy toward such cases that have heretofore occurred if found out, but any em ploye who shall hereafter contribute for any such purpose will be instantly removed from the service.

It became known today that the president of the Association of Railway Mail Clerks recently asked for authority to come Washington to press various claims in the interest of his order. No attention was as first paid to this request, and another letter was received asking for immediate answer. The request was refused and no further word has reached the Postoffice department from him.

TALKING OF FREIGHT RATES President Confers with Several People

Regarding Proposed Legislation. The fire started in the photographic sup-could save it and turned their attention James H. Wallis, sr., who divulged the ply house of O. H. Rock company and to the adjoining buildings. Next to the endowment house oaths, was recalled by friends his recommendation that increased WASHINGTON, Dec. 14 - President powers be conferred by legislation upon including the six-story furniture house of tional bank's new white marble building. Smoot, and said that he had been telling of the Interstate Commerce commission. Those to whom he talked were not only members of congress, but men in other walks of life. To all he indicated his earnest desire that action of a definite nature-action that would bring results to the people-should be taken as soon as practicable.

concerning vengeance upon "inhabitants of A day or two ago he considered the question with Judge Grosscup of Chicago, Today he discussed it with Judge William Morrow of the United States circuit court

By invitation of the president a special ommittee of the Commercial Travelers' Protetive association called on him to consider his recommendation that the powers of the Interstate Commerce commission be extended so as to enable the commission to pass upon questions of railroad freight rates, subject only to review by the courts.

The committee assured the president that, in the stand he had taken regarding railroad rates he had the cordial support of the 25,000 travelers and jobbers which the committee represented. At the conclusion of the conference Chairman Crandall of St. Louis issued a statement concerning it, in which he said: He said oaths of sacrifice and of retribution were administered.

The whole proceeding was a series of cobligations, said the witness, but he could not remember all of them. The first in be maintained. The Travelers' Protective asvaling in transportation circles could not be maintained. The Travelers' Protective association, after careful deliberation, reached the conclusion that the conditions now prevaling in transportation circles could not be maintained. The Travelers' Protective association after careful deliberation, reached the conference it developed that six months ago the annual convention of the Travelers' Protective valing in transportation circles could not be maintained. The Travelers' Protective association after careful deliberation, reached

To Cure a Cold to One Day. Take Laxative Bromo Quinnie Tablets. druggists refund the money if it fails to and children's children to do the same unto cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each

IMPLEMENT DEALERS ARE MEETING

ress at Sioux Falls. SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Dec. 14.-(Special.)

-The sixth annual convention of the Retail Implement Dealers' association of South sound," he said. The witness had discussed Dakota, southwestern Minnesota and northwestern Iowa convened in this city last evening. The attendance is very large and the convention is probably the most successful ever held by the association. One of the important matters to come be fore the convention is as to what, if any, action shall be taken in regard to what is known as the "exclusive clause" of the contract entered into between the International Harvester company and the dealers. Owing to this important feature, general interest is being taken in the nature of the report of the committee on resolutions. which will be presented to the convention

Spanish Cabinet Resigns. MADRID, Dec. 14.—The entire cabinet

has resigned. The resignations were consequent disagreement of the mimsters proposed military reforms and the king's refusal to confirm certain nominations

A New Flavor For Breakfast

Grape-Nuts Food Furnishes the Carbobydrates in form of Post Sugar, valu-Widew of Bookmaker Confronts Weman Accused of Her Husband's Murder.

YOUNG'S QUARREL WITH MISS PATTERSON

Amending the act to extend the coal land His Brother-In-Law Testifies that Dead Man Was Afraid His Mistress Would Shoot Him-Defense Gains Point.

NEW YORK, Dec. 14 -- Mrs. Young, widow of Caesar Young, was a witness today in the criminal branch of the supreme court. Young's murder. Although she was on the stand only long enough to identify a letter o which another witness had referred TUMBER IS NOW UNDER FIRE Mrs. Young's presence there developed on of the most intense situations of the trial. As the wife of the dead man took the stand Miss Patterson became deathly pale, but watched intently every movement of the witness during her brief examination. The letter which Mrs. Young identified had been produced by Bernard L. McKean, one of Young's brothers-in-law, who testified that Young had mentioned it in a conversation with Miss Patterson early in May and that Miss Patterson had said the letter The letter has not yet been read in evi-

Another of Young's brothers-in-law, Wildam Luce, told of what occurred between Young and Mise Patterson at their meeting in a saloon the night before Young was killed, and John Crowley, a cab driver, rereated his story of having seen Young slap

the prisoner's face during a quarrel on the street that same night. Defense Scores a Point.

All interest in the Patterson murder trial today centered in the ruling which Justice Davis announced that he would make at the opening of the court regarding the admission of testimony n the alleged conspiracy referred to by Assistant District Attorney Rand yesterday. Upon this ruling depended the question whether the prosecution would be permitted to attempt to substantiate in the presence of the jury its allegation that J. Morgan Smith was spirited away from the jurisdiction of the court by Miss Patterson's counsel and her father. This sensational charge, which had been forecasted by rumor for several days, was made yesterday afternoon

The jury had been dismissed for the day however, and heard none of the arguments between counsel. The testimony by which Mr. Rand asserts he will prove the plot to wrong Young may be as sensational as the charge of conspiracy itself. So far it has only been hinted at in the testimony of the newsboy, with a link offered in the testinony of the pawnbroker, Hyman Stern, who sold the revolver with which Young was killed. These links of evidence are very wide apart, and in order to forge a connecting chain of circumstances witnesses will have to be called who have been kept in the background since the district attorney's office has been building up its Letters containing threats have been spoken of by the prosecution as being documents important to their theory, but so far the name of Smith has not been connected with these alleged threats.

When the trial was resumed today, and before Justice Davis had an opportunity to announce his decision on the alleged conspiracy point, District Attorney Rand closed the incident by withdrawing his request that the grand jury subpoena served on J. Morgan Smith be admitted as evidence. Mr. Rand said he was actuated in which satisfied him that the admissibility of the subpoens was not free from doubt. At the conclusion of Mr. Rand's statement, and upon suggestion of the attorneys for the defense, Justice Davis directed the jury to disregard all references made to the missing witness.

Young Afraid of Miss Patterson William Luce, brother-in-law of Caesar foung, said that on the night preceding the death of Young, Luce and Young met Nan Patterson in a saloon and that Young and the woman quarrelled there. Luce heard Young tell her he would get her s cottage. Luce said:

"Young told her he was going away and she replied that he was not going; he told her she did not know the name of the boat he was leaving on; she answered that she would not give him the satisfaction of telling the name of the boat. She also said: Don't get up early and go aboard the boat, because you cannot hide from me even if you get into the hold. You won't go away."

Young was excited and the woman was crying. After the talk, Young put Nan Patterson in a cab and sent her off alone. Luce said he neither struck nor kissed her. Luce said that Young was all right when he got home at 3:30 a. m. and when he left the house four hours later he was perfectly sober. "He was in good spirits," said Luce, "and Nervous Dystold me he was going out to get a shave and a new hat. He told me he would meet me at the boat at 9 o'clock. That was the last time I saw him alive." The witness said that he was present at the meeting between Young and Miss Patterson in Harlem the night before the ragedy at Young's urgent request.

"He told me to be there at 1 o'clock at the parting," said the witness, as he was afraid she would shoot him as she had hreatened to do.

"And you knew that Young was with her from 11:30 p. m. to 1 a. m.?" asked Mr. Levy. "I did," replied Luce.

"Did he not say that he wanted you here to square things with his wife?" "No. "Did he not tell you that he had made he appointment with Miss Patterson at the race track that day?" "He did." "And did not tell you that he was at the track until after the fifth race had been "He did not." Miss Young on the Stand, Mrs. Young, the widow of the dead book maker, made her first public appearance in the case this afternoon. She was on the stand only a few minutes, being called to identify a letter which had been referred to by a witness. When Mrs. Young took the stand, Nan Patterson turned deathly pale and watched intently every movement of the witness during her brief examina-the mucous membrane of my stomach wis unfit to do its work. I was faint and had great pain and a heavy feeling in the digestive organs. This was brought on by mental overwork and worry.

"The doctor prescribed rest of brain and mountain air to improve my condition but I was unable to leave my business and kept on getting worse. Finally I heard of the word of the stomach with the times a day before meals, and after taking two bottles am completely cured." Yours very truly.

"Yes, I know I promised you that," said Miss Patterson, according to the witness, "but my condition is such that I cannot go away now."

Then Young told her that she had put her foot in it by sending a letter to the Hotel Imperial, which Mrs. Young had discovered.

The mucous membrane of my stomach wis faint and had great pain and a heavy feeling in the digestive organs. This was faint and had great pain and a heavy feeling in the digestive organs. This was faint and had great pain and a heavy feeling in the digestive organs. This was faint and had great pain and a heavy feeling in the digestive organs. This was faint and had great pain and a heavy feeling in the digestive organs. This was faint and had great pain and a heavy feeling in the digestive organs. This was faint and had great pain and a heavy feeling in the digestive organs. This was faint and had great pain and a heavy feeling in the digestive organs. This was faint and had great pain and a heavy feeling in the digestive organs. This was faint and had great pain and a heavy feeling in the digestive organs. This was faint and had great pain and a heavy feeling in the digestive organs. This was brought or mental overwork and worry.

"The doctor prescribed rest of brain and digestive organs. This was brought or mental overwork and worry.

"The doctor prescribed rest of brain and digestive organs. This was brought or mental overwork and worry.

"The doctor prescribed rest of brain and digestive organs. This was brought organs. This was brought or mental overwore. Finally I heard of my Imperial, which Mrs. Young had discovered. McKean then produced a letter which he said was the one referred to by Young, but it was held up by Mr. Levy's objection. It was held up by it has been that Mrs. Young was this point that Mrs. Young was was at this point that Mrs. Young was ters.

called to identify the letter. Mrs. Young identified the letter and said that she wrote the few words in addition to the address that appeared on the envelope. McKean when recalled to the stand, said Miss Patterson told him that Julia (meaning her sister. Mrs. J. Morgan Smith) had written the letter. Nearly all the conversation that day had to do with Patterson's going away. Young told her that unless she left New York he would have to go. He promised to pay all her expenses and McKean himself secured tickets for her to go to Europe. When he took the tickets to Miss Patterson she protested against being sent away saying that she loved Young better than his wife did and that she should not be forced to leave him. At this point the court adjourned until tomorrow.

(Continued from First Page.)

be prepared to furnish bonds amounting to She will not attempt this, but will remain in jet until her case is reached on the Messrs. Beckwith and Spear will not give new bonds until arraigned. They are still held under preliminary bonds. Subseenas for President Beckwith and Cashler Spear in connection with the Oberlin failure were issued today by the county to worry about that married women suffer grand jury, which will resume its investigation of the bank's failure tomorrow.

"Will Clear Her Good Name." This evening Mrs. Chadwick made the ollowing statement to an Associated Press reporter: Since talking with an attorney and with the sheriff I am convinced that I owe it to my friends to tell my side of the story. I had hoped to give this out in a day or two, but as I have two very important matters to come up immediately, I may be delayed a little. Mrs. Chadwick was interested to learn the public feeling in Cleveland. She was told that while this feeling was divided. the people felt that she might be shielding some one and they were therefore waiting until she should make her standing in the case known. She then said:

case known. She then said:
You may assure my friends and those who believe in me that I will not disappoint the confidence they repose in me: I will show them and the whole world that I am an honest woman, that I have never wrongfully obtained money from any one and that I will repay every dollar of my indebtedness. For the next two or three days I will consider the important matters to which I referred and will decide on my attorney. Then I will plan my fight for freedom, and for the re-establishment of my good name.

Tonight I shall sleep soundly and tomorrow when rested and refreshed, I will start in on real work.

The home of Mrs. Chadwick on Euclid

The home of Mrs. Chadwick on Euclid avenue was this afternoon surrendered to Receiver Nathan Loeser and he placed a custodian in charge of the property. Carnegie Willing to Testify,

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.-That Andrew arnegie is willing to appear against Mrs. Chadwick when his health has sufficiently improved, was made clear in a statement given out today at Mr. Carnegie's residence by his secretary. He said:

dence by his secretary. He said:

Mr. Carnegie's only reason for not going to Cleveland at this time has already been given. His health will not admit of his taking the trip save at considerable risk, as his physician has already said he is suffering from lumbago.

He has been willing to make a deposition at his home, and later, on his return from Florida, he will lend his assistance and be present to testify at any proceedings, such as a trial, whenever his testimony is needed. His one and only reason for not going to Cleveland now is that he is unable to stand the journey in this weather.

In many cases of Asthma Piso's Cure gives relief that is almost equal to a cure

OUTPUT OF PACKING HOUSES Decrease from Previous Week.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 14.-(Special Telegram.)-The Price Current says: Current marketing of hogs continues of large proportions. Total western packing was 710,-000 head, compared with 765,000 the preceding week and 630,000 last year. Since Nocember 1 the total is 3,720,000 head, against 3,140,000 a year ago. Prominent places compare as follows:

edar Rapids

British Mission at Kabul. PESHAWAR, British India, Dec. 14.-The British mission to Afghanistan headed by Louis Dane, foreign secretary of the Indian government, arrived safely at Kabul December 12.

pepsia Cured by To-ni-ta

MISS L. FRANC MEMBERLY

"I suffered from acute nervous dyspep-sia, and was not able to eat even the slight diet of tea and toast, which I was obliged to live on most of the time, with-out great distress. I drank a gias of hot water with a pinch of salt morning and night, and even this nauseated me."
"My system was so run down from lack of sufficient and proper nourishment that the mucous membrane of my stomach wis unfit to do its work. I was faint and had great pain and a heavy feeling in the Test Its Merits Without Charge.

SOCIETY BELLES, WEDDING BELLS:

Gossip of Society Does Not Always Tell What Goes On Beneath the Surface

> MARRIED WOMEN'S SUFFERING

The Truth About A Few Troubles of Married Women's Existence, Here And Elsewhere

Possibly it is because they have so much from so much stekness.

Perhaps because they undertake work which is too hard for them to do. But whatever the cause, it's a very common story for a young woman, who has hardly ever had a pain in her life, to secome, a year or two after the marriage bells have ceased to ring, a miserable wreck of an invalid. Are you one of the victims? If so, in common with so many thousand of your sisters, the trouble probably lies in a disarrangement of your female functions. And what suffering you have to endure! Backache, as if your back would break. Headache, as if your head would split. And all manner of other aches and pains, to say nothing of the general feeling of sickness, discomfort, and weariness of body and mind, which makes many women wish they were in their graves. But if you are one of those suffering women, there is one thing I want to tell you, and that is, that there is a cure for your

It is Wine of Cardul. Wine of Cardui will raise you from your bed of sickness and make of you a well woman. If you are a victim of female troubles you cannot get well without it, for no other medicine has the positive specific curative effect on the female organs that Wine of Cardui has.

It is a medicine prepared especially for women, and on sick women it has most wonderful tonic restorative results. Its action on the weak, worn-out exhausted feminine system is one of the marvels of medicine. But this can be explained by the fact that its ingredients are selected from the whole field of medicine, for their special, specific action on the female organs and functions. In its tonic, strengthening action, on all these weak and easily disarranged organs, with which poor woman has been burdened it has proven itself the most wonderful boon of the age to over a million and a half sick women, and if you will try it, be sure it will do the same for you. Walter A. Sheridan of 47 S. Arlington Ave., Baltimore, Md. writes: "About four years ago my wife was fast falling into a decline on account of profuse menstration. The periods would last from seven to fourteen days, then she would rest a few days and then commence again. This had conad for seven years, when I wrote you asking for advice. You advised the Wine of Cardui treatment. She used a great many bottles but it cured her completely. She is now in good health and has gained fifty pounds in weight and has had no doctor during the whole four years."

Wives, mothers, women, here is relief and cure! Wine of Cardul Not a drop in a dose, of anything injur-ous to the tenderest child, It can always be depended upon as a safe, pleasant, strengthening medicine, that every woman should be sure to take,

At all druggists, $1.00 bottle. Free advice on any of women's fils. is afforded by our staff of specialists. All letters confidential. Address, Ladies' Advisory Department, The Chattanooga Med!-81,000 cine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

ALFRED CORNISH @ CO.

Telephone 2314. 1210 Farnam St. AMUSEMENTS.

TONIGHT, FRIDAY AND SATURDAY THE COMEDY SUCCESS

GLITTERING GLORIA WITH DOROTHY MORTON Sunday - MARIE WAINWRIGHT In TWELFTH NIGHT.

MODERN VAUDEVILLE

MATINEE ANY 25° TONIGHT-8:15 Children 10c. TODAY

KRUG THEATER TONIGHT AT 8:15-BILLY (Single) CLIFFORD

HOW HE WON HEH.

Sun.-OLE OLSON with Ben Hendricks

TWO MEN DIE IN FLAMES Boutell Bros., furniture, building and stock, Edit Manufacturing company, picture frames and art goods, building and stock, $120,000. Fire Fighters at Minneapolis Less Lives in Stock, $225,000.

Blaze at Night.

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 14.-Two firemen

The dead

The losses include the following:

stranger residing in a far-away place may be true enough, but it is generally accepted as a doubtful rumor. How can it be verified? The testimony which

Mr. Thomas F. Norton, 2714 Twentyover-excited kidneys clung to her. One

Sold for 50c per box by all dealers.

-BALDUFF'S-

THOUSANDS of fancy boxes and baskets filled with the choicest selection of delicious BON-BONS and CHOCOLATES-from the small boxes for the children to the most gorgeous creations for your sweetheart. Candies of every kind and at all prices -the largest stock in the middle west. Absolute purity guaranteed.

Church. lating to the alleged polygamous marriage of the late apostle, Abram Cannon, and La'lian Hamlin, and additional testimony concerning the obligations taken by persons who pass through the Mormon endowment | manufacture and not the product. house, was offered today in the investiga-

Smoot before the senate committee on privileges and elections, When the investigation was commenced today George Reynolds, a high official of the Mormon church, was called to correct his testimony, and then Mrs. Fred Eills of Salt Lake City was sworn. She is the daughter of Angus Cannon and married her coustn, Abram Cannon, when she was 19 years of age. She testified that she was Abram Cannon's first plural wife and that her husband married Lillian Hamone of the twelve apostles. Mr. Cannon, wives, and he told her he intended to marry Lillian Hamlin. He told her that Lillian had been engaged to his brother, David, be David's wife for eternity.

President Smith, who is said to have performed the marriage ceremony on the high seas, and of their return.

lin and said she had supposed President the fifth floor of the Boutell Bros. furniture Smith had done so until he testified on the > legal, and was told it could not. Attorney Vancott asked the witness what for several months, pertimony in regard to the oath of vengeance. This oath, he now said, contains nothing the earth," but is a pledge to avenge the blood of the slain prophets upon the "najourned until this afternoon.

hours, according to the size of the crowd. order, he said, was the law of sacrifice, which bound each person to give his entire means and taients to the upbuilding of the Mormon church. The next obligation was that of retribution in which each person to give his entire of utilizing the present machinery of the interstate commerce law, as the basis for the need is made apparent.

to "avenge the blood of Joseph Smith upon the nation," and to teach "our children The next obligation was that of chastity. Mr. Lundstrom said he remained a Mormon until he found many inconsistencies

The hearing was continued until tomor-mittee was adopted.

Workers, or invalids AT GROCERS. TRIAL PROVES.