THE most beautiful and interesting of all the Christmas periodicals is the great

Christmas Metropolitan

in which you will find stirring stories and articles by Thomas Nelson Page, W. A. Fraser, E. S. Martin, Joel Chandler Harris, Richard Le Gallienne, Charles G. D. Roberts, Alfred Henry Lewis, Harrison Rhodes, and many others. The 150 illustrations, in two, three and four colors, are by Guérin, Rhead, Clay, Bull, Conkell, Penfield, Parrish, and Haskell, and reproductions from many photographs.

THIS Xmas issue is filled with good reading and fine pictures; it is a delight from cover to cover; it is a worthy Christmas gift in itself and is now on sale everywhere for 15 cents a copy.

FOR the entertainment of the whole family there is no better magazine published than The Metropolitan.

THE following special offer is presented in the interests of those who wish to send to a friend a gift and at the same time receive four free holiday gifts for themselves:

Your Boy
It is probably as hard on his shoes as Mr. Smith's boy, for most boys are alike when it comes to shoes. Mr. Smith's boy has been wearing our $1.50 shoes now for six years and Mr. Smith and the boy both tell us that they had any shoe for wear that they can get. The shoes we sell Mr. Smith are no better than the ones you can get, for all our $1.50 shoes are alike in quality. We guarantee a perfect fit and satisfaction. If we don't give it to you we give your money back.
