I thank God and Dr. Pierce for the benefit I have received, and sincerely hope others may be benefited as I have been. Respectfully yours,

THE MARRIAGE QUESTION.

The professor who announced that love and romance die out with the sound of the wedding-bells," was the first to start the ball rolling. It would seem a brave woman who marries with this echo in her ears, yet we have not heard that there were fewer marriages during the year. There are unhappy married lives, but a large percentage of these unhappy homes are due to the illness of the wife, mother or daughter. Very often a married woman or young girl does not know to whom to urn for advice in circumstances where she dislikes to talk with the family phy-sician about delicate matters. At such imes write to Dr. R. V. # M'CARTNEY CASE IS CLOSED

State Board and Coroner Satisfied as to Manner of Death.

REQUISITION FOR BERNARD M'GREEVY

Tax Injunction Case of Burlington and Union Pacific Roads to Come Up in January at Lincoln.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Dec. 20.—(Special)—The murfer of W. F. McCartney, an inmate of the Lincoln Hospital for the Insane, who was supposed to have been choked to death by Dr. Ancora, another inmate, is a closed incident insofar as the state officers who compose the Board of Public Lands and Buildngs are concerned; so also is the death of Mr. Shaffer. The death of Michael McGue, mentioned this morning, was a suicide and ot an accident. A coroner's inquest was held and that incident was closed according to law and no one was blamed.

Dr. Greene, the superintendent, is no blamed for any of these accidents by Governor Mickey or members of the board, instead he is the recipient of their congratulations that more accidents and deaths have not occurred. So far as the state officers who comprise the board can see, there is no excuse for the relatives of patients out in the state getting worked up over the murder of McCartney. The state officers are not responsible because the people were no taken into the confidence of Superintendent Greene and told of the murder. Dr. Greene wanted to make the facts known, but the family of McCartney wanted it kept quiet and the board did its best to carry out the

There is no doubt in the minds of Dr. Greene and of the state board and of foroner Graham that Ancora killed Me-Cartney. Coroner Graham today said he xamined the body of McCartney and found inger marks on his neck. He also found bruises on his forehead and head. These e said the attendants told him had been there several days, and it was the belief of Dr. Graham that they had been.

McCartney was not a resident of Ne eraska, but was brought to the hospital by sermission of the board from Arizona o New Mexico. His relatives paid his expenses at the institution, though he was ot considered a private charge, his expenses being just what it cost per capita to buy clothing and pay for board.

Superintendent Greene has been very sucessful in his conduct of the institution and he has the confidence of the state officers and others who come in contact with the institution. The state officers claim that he has been very careful in selecting his assistants, refusing to take the professionat tramp attendants who are here today and gone tomorrow, but wherever possible getting people that he knows. FREMONT, Neb., Dec. 20.—(Special.)— The case of Gadsden against Thrush and others, which has been three times before district court, twice in supreme court, triet court, twice in the supreme court and once before the federal supreme court, has been decided by Judge Hollenbeck, but is likely to reach the Nebraska supreme court for a third time. The suit involves a number of mortgages and notes given to various parties, which the original plaintiff claims were usurious. In the final decree the court sustained the claim of the First National bank of Schuyler and they recover the amount of their demand, with 19 per cent interest for about ten years. The Schuyler National bank notes the court found were usurious, as were also those of the Nebraska State bank, and they were allowed their original demands less interest, which has been paid thereon. At the time the suit was commenced there probably was not enough security to satisfy all the claims against it, but on account of the increase n land values and cutting out of interest on the largest demands the parties will probably all get their money. The costs in the case are likely to reach up into the thousands
