GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Storis Have to Go Up for December Wheat and Corn.

WHEAT SHOWS REMARKABLE STRENGTH

Estimate of Northwest Milling Wheat -Bnd Argentine News-Car Sitnation Worse-Oats , December wheat and corn are up and doing. It would appear the short interest is having a hard time getting the grain for delivery and that the long see is holding it a little above their heads. The December opened at Chicago at $1.11, which was $4c above the Tuesday close. Early in the session there seemed an unlimited amount for sale at $1.11\frac{1}{2}, while the market was firm at $4c$. Later the continued demand carried the market up as high as $1.12\frac{1}{2}, and there seemed little to be got at that figure. Omaha quotations advanced from $1.02 to $1.03\frac{1}{2}. The May gained from $1.02 to $1.03\frac{1}{2}. The Chicago cash corn situation strengthened inp. the December, after opening $4c$ below Tuesday is close, advanced $1\frac{1}{2}c. Omaha December made a net gain of $4c$, ending a point above the Tuesday close.

No former year, it is remarked, has shown a wheat record just like the present, where the market advance in the following four months. Wheat has shown great strength in face of having to take $1.000,000 bushels from Canada. Rollin B. Smith of Minneapolis estimates the northwestern crop of milling wheat at $160.000,000 bushels. He piaces the crop at $150.000,000 bushels. The piaces the crop at $150.000,000 bushels. Ide piaces the crop at $150.000,000 bushels. Ide piaces the crop graded three or worse and has that much less flour producting capacity. The northwest country movement is said to be light and houses with OMAHA, Dec. 21, 1991.

worse and has that much less flour producing capacity. The northwest country movement is said to be light and houses with connections in that part were good buyers in Chicago today. Rumors from Argentine say the optimistic news is not warranted. There is said to be rust and blight, and frost in the northern provinces.
The final government estimate of all crops
- acreage, production and farm values, will be issued December 28.

CORN-Receipts have been less than expected. The car situation is growing daily more serious. It is impeding the movement of corn from the west and also of corn sold to the seaboard for export. The sale of corn from first hands is also being stopped, as so much trouble is being experienced in corn from first hands is also being stopped, as so much trouble is being experienced in forwarding what has already been sold.

OATS—The receipts for today are about one-third standard. The speculative interest is flat and the fluctuations continue to be made by the pit scalpers. No outside interest is manifest and nothing is in sight to bring the market out of its rut.

The range in prices for Omaha speculative markets follows:

NEW YORK. Dec. 21.—DRY GOODS—
Market is on a substantial basis and littile evidence of positive declines. The attitude of sellers is toward the maintenance of prices and there seems to be little warrant for any recession owing to the wellsold condition of many kinds and the position of manufacturers regarding cotton.
Jobbers are doing a very restricted business and little interest is likely to be evinced until after the first of the year. Coffee Market.

do to full was disposed of A string of lambs sold as high as $6.25. Choice sneep were rather scarce.

The demand for the better grades of feeder sheep and lambs was in good shape and prices held stendy. A big string of about 1.700 lambs sold for $6.45. There were quite a few range sheep on sale that were not very good and buyers were a little slow to take hold of them.

Quotations for fed stock: Good to choice yearlings. $5.00\(\text{dis} 5.25\) good to choice wethers. $4.00\(\text{gis} 6.55\) fair to good yearlings. $5.00\(\text{dis} 6.25\) good to choice wethers. $4.00\(\text{gis} 6.55\) fair to good good to choice ewes. $4.10\(\text{dis} 4.35\) fair to good ewes. $3.50\(\text{gis} 3.50\) good to choice lambs. $6.00\(\text{gis} 3.50\) fair to good lambs. $5.75\(\text{dis} 6.00\) feeder yearlings. $4.25\(\text{gis} 4.50\); feeder wethers. $4.15\(\text{dis} 4.40\); feeder ewes. $3.25\(\text{dis} 3.50\); feeder lambs. $5.00\(\text{fin} 5.50\). CATTLE—Receipts of cattle were very light this morning at all points and as a result the general tendency of prices was upward. Trading at this point was quite active, so it was not long before everything in sight was disposed of.

There were several cars of cornfed steers on the market, but none of them choice. Packers took hold fairly well of what was offered and paid steady to strong prices for them. As compared with the close of last week the market is now about lights higher and in some cases the advance may be a little more than that. All of the loss of last week, however, has not been regained.

loss of last week, however, has not been regained.

There was a brisk demand for cow stuff this morning and with limited offerings the market ruled active and higher on all grades. All kinds, except canners, are now fully as high as they were before the big slump of last week. Canners have advanced as much as the better grades, but they suffered so badly last week that they have not made up all of the loss. Trading was very active today and everything changed hands at an early hour.

Bulls, veal calves and stags all sold at good, strong prices.

There were comparatively few stockers and feeders on sale, and, while the demand was not as heavy as it has been at some times, owing to the near approach of Chrismas, when not many buyers can be expected, the market was active and stronger on all desirable grades. In many cases feeder buyers outbid packers on warmed-up cornfeds. Representative sales:
