LOTS NEAR ELEVATOR OFF THE MARKET

Special Council Committee Recommends Contracting for Sewer Plans at a Cost of Fifteen Hundred Dollars.

Since the announcement has been made that a large grain elevator is to be erected property belonging to the Union Stock Yards company on trackage 1,200 feet north many inquiries for land in that vicinity. Yesterday afternoon A. C. Kennedy, -assistant secretary of the South Omaha Land company, sent notices to a number of real estate agents in South Omaha stating that he had been instructed by P. E. Her to withdraw from the market all of the unsold lots belonging to the company located between Twenty-fourth street and the railroad tracks.

It is supposed in real estate circles here that this withdrawal of land from the market is an evidence that there is a possibility of more industries coming to South Omaha. There was some talk on the streets yesterday about a flour mill to be erected on the property just west of where the Updike elevator is to be constructed. This land adjoining the elevator property is now occupied by a lumber concern and the lease on the ground does not expire for some months yet. South Omaha people are jubilant over the prospects for an increase in business here and are anxious to see some start made towards the improvements that are being talked of.

With the constant demand for more trackage it is not improbable that plans made a couple of years ago for utilizing the J street draw will be revived and this little valley be used before many months for trackage purposes.

Negotiating for Hospital Site. W. S. This property has a frontage on Twenty-fifth street of 120 feet and runs back on G street 150 feet. Should the hospital association desire to build at grade there will be a big fill, as the east end of the lots are a long ways below the grade of the alley. OSTRICH LOGIC.

"When I can't see danger there is no danger." That's the logic of the ostrich which hides its head and exposes its body to the hunter. There are not a few people who seem to have gone to the ostrich to learn logic. The most dangerous enemies of humanity are the enemies which can't be seen, the disease nies which can't be seen, the disease breeding microbes which infect the blood. "My blood was all out of order, and I had to go to the doctor," writes Mrs. James R. Moss, New London, Stanly Co., N.C. "He gave me medicine which helped me for a short time. In the winter of 1895 I got worse than I had ever been. My topsils were enlarged and my neck swollen all out of shape; my throat was sore and I could not care it. My husband went for the doctor, but he gave me no encouragement. He helped me a little, but it did not last long. He attended me for livelye months, when I heard of a lady whose condition was like mine, who was taking your medicine and was getting well. So I secured some of the medicine and began taking it. In one week I was able to do my cooking. When I began taking the medicine I could sit up only a few minutes at a time, My throat was so sore at times I could not even swallow aweet milk, and my tynalis were full of little eating sores. My left aide was awollen out of shape and I could not get well, but three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, three bottles of his 'Pellets' three bottles of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy and the use of salt water did the work and cured me."

Motorman No. 2, in charge of car No. 29, ran over the hose and caused the firemen to put in a new length. This car, No. 39, was eastbound and had plenty of notice to stop, say the firemen, as the westbound cars had been held up. The hose cut was some of the new cotton jacket make and cost $1 per foot. Chief Garrett proposes to send the street railroad company a bill for $50 for the length of hose. As the fire was such a small one, Chief Garrett did not insist upon the arrest of the motorman and he was permitted to go ahead with his car.

STREET AND SEWER MATTERS

City Council in General Committee Hears Some Explanations and Complaints.

N. P. Dodge, jr., appeared before the general committee meeting of the city council yesterday afternoon and presented the street situation in a tract of land known as the Dodge and Root addition. Mr. Dodge's purpose in coming before the members of the council was to show the effects of cutting a proposed street through the tract, stating that the street would render practically useless a portion of the property, which has been platted with a view of settlement by home owners. The councilmen are going to look over the ground and take such action as is deemed best when Mayor Moores returns to the

A representative from George & Co. also came before the general committee and urged the completion of the improvements begun by the street commissioner on Seward street, from Eighth to Eleventh. This street is said to be nearly impassable at times. This matter will be further considered at the regular meeting of the council this evening. Isaac Levy explained the dilemma he is in at Capitol avenue, between Twenty-eighth and Thirtieth streets, in the matter of sewer connections. The city engineer showed that the sewer situation in that district is in a peculiar condition, in that a large number of the property owners some years ago before the present engineering administration, laid private sewer lines, thus making Levy at this time without regular service. It will be arranged to waive the usual fee in Levy's case and permit him to either negotiate with his neighbors or build his own line for a considerable distance to the main. The question of installing a fire alarm box at the Auditorium was considered at length. The members were unanimous in the contention that the Auditorium com pany should stand the expense of the box in the same manner as did the three local theaters. Several of the members were in favor of having passed this evening a measure ordering the Auditorium company to install the box forthwith as a matter of public safety.

GIRL RESCUED FROM SHAME

Sixteen-Year-Old Miss Taken from Resert by Police.

MOTHER CENSURED FOR HER CAREER

Woman, However, Has Seven Children Alive and Five Dead and Has to Do Hard Manual Labor.

It was not an affectionate greeting, that between Mrs. Mary Wolfe and her 16-yearold daughter. Freda, in the matron's department at the city jail yesterday. The girl was arrested Sunday evening at the resort of Kate Beardsley, 808 Dodge street, by officers Baldwin and Boyle. Miss Wolfe has been placed in the Home of the Good Shepherd by Police Matron Anderson.

"Why, mother, you knew I was at the 'Yellow Front' at South Omaha and even called to see me several times," was the girl's reply to her mother when questioned as to the mother's knowledge of the daughter's whereabouts. An investigation by the police authorities revealed the apparent negligence on the part of Mrs. Wolfe to check the girl's downward career when she even knew the young woman was a habitue of disorderly houses.

When questioned regarding her solicitude for the daughter Mrs. Wolfe said she called a number of times at the two reforts in South Omaha, where Miss Wolfe was an inmate, but was unable to find the girl in at the times she called.

"On one occasion when I called the keeper of the house told me my daughter was there, but owing to her age was merely 'occupying a ruom' at the place," said Mrs. Wolfe. The girl says she started her reckless life over a year ago, when she was 15 years of age. The authorities are outspoken in their condemnation of the mother's neglect either to place the girl in better surroundings or file a complaint of incorrigibility against her.

Joins a Depraved Woman. The girl says Kate Beardsley called on her at South Omaha six weeks ago and induced her to come to Omaha and live at 8% Dodge street. The Beardsley woman is known to the police as "Irish Kate" and is said to be one of the most depraved characters in the proscribed district. She is addicted to cocoaine and other drugs and her resort is said to be the rendezvous of all nationalities and colors of people. The Beardsley woman was sentenced to thirty days in the county jail by Police Judge Berka. Miss Wolfe is the youngest of twelve children, seven of whom are alive. Her mother does general work at the Presbyterian hospital. The father is dead. When the mother called at the matron's department in response to a call from the the meeting that he did not think the police station, she kissed her daughter and asked how she came to be in the matron's charge. The girl reciprocated the greeting in a listless maner and said in a matter-of-fact way that she had been taken in custody by policemen.

It was a business meeting with the Woman's club yesterday afternoon and there was a conspicuous absence of those who seek entertainment rather than instruction, though the real working strength of the club was present. The regular routine business occupied the early part of the session, two new members being reported as having qualified since the last meeting and another new name proposed for membership. The resignation of Mrs. B. F. Weaver, chairman of the membership committee, was announced, Mrs. Weaver resigning because of removal from the city.

The civic committee, to whom the club referred the letter written to Governor Mickey by Edward Rosewater, advocating a better enforcement of the Slocum law and making some other suggestions concerning the granting of licenses to saons, and that the club was asked to ndorse, reported that they endorsed Mr. Rosewater's recommendations so far as they pertained to the enforcement the Slocumb law and, further, that, as the club had adjourned for the holidays and the committee was unable to report before, and as the licenses for this year have already been granted, the committee suggested that an effort be made for the strict enforcement of the Slocumb law in all saloons to which licenses had been granted. The club enforsed the report of the committee.

The civil service reform committee, upon ecommendation of the Visiting Nurses' association through experience among the city and county poor sick, recommended that the club petition the county commissioners to retain Dr. Lee, the present county physician, in that position and to make it plain that the request was made. through no political inclination, but because of Dr. Lee's personal fitness for the office and the assistance he has rendered through his acquaintance with the particular needs of those whom it is desired to reach. The president and recording secretary of the club and the chairman of the committee were appointed to visit the county commissioners at today's meeting and make their request.

After some discussion it was decided to frame the photographs of all of the presidents of the club and hang them upon the walls of the club rooms.

The remainder of the afternoon was given over to the presentation and discussion of the new women's property rights bill being prepared by Hon. D. L. Johnson under direction of the women's organizations of the state, to be presented to the present legislature. Mr. Johnson read four sets of began with "Annabel Lee," Poe's poem set changes in the present bill, recommended by the various women.
