

QUESTIONS FOR CZAR

Japanese Want to Know About Some Russian Violations of Neutrality.

POSSIBLE ATTEMPT TO INVOLVE FRANCE

Belief at Tokio that Russia Wishes to Enroll Its Ally with China.

REPORTS OF A JAPANESE REPULSE

General Iwano says Enemy Outflanked Mitschenko's Cavalry.

RUSSIAN MILITARY INFLECTS LOSS

Patrol Returns to Russian Headquarters It Blows Up Railroad and Destroys Telegraph Line.

TOKIO, Jan. 17.—The note of the Russian government to the powers calling attention to the alleged violation by China of its declared neutrality, which, Russia charges, has been at the instance of Japan, the raid of Lieutenant General Mitschenko's cavalry southwest of Liao Yang, resulting, as the Japanese claim, in the deliberate invasion of neutral territory, and the alleged violation of French neutrality by vessels of the Russian navy in the Pacific squadron in making a prolonged stay at ports of the island of Madagascar, have created the impression in official quarters here that the Russians are trying to involve France, China and other powers in the Russo-Japanese troubles in the Far East, so that Russia may be enabled to take its defeat with greater grace.

A prominent Japanese official said to a correspondent of the Associated Press today: France recently denied that vessels of the Russian second Pacific squadron were stopping at Madagascar, but since then it has not uttered a word, and the situation is one calling for explanation. I cannot believe that some Frenchmen would be so seriously influenced by General Kodama, showing a plan of campaign for a Japanese invasion of French Indo-China, which are forgeries. If it should be Russia's scheme to draw France with the Russian navy, I am sure it is understood that to provoke England alone, which would not bring assistance of French supplies.

A dispatch from Tokio, January 14, said that the Japanese were sharply criticizing the French government for permitting the ships of the Russian second Pacific squadron to make a prolonged stay at Madagascar, so that such action was considered little less than hostile, and that further temporizing for the purpose of rendering assistance to the Russian vessels must be considered a serious breach of neutrality.

A dispatch from Paris of the same date said that officials there declared that the Japanese criticism had no importance, as the Russian squadron was no longer in French waters.

A dispatch from Paris January 9 related that the Echo De Paris printed documents alleged to have been prepared by the Japanese general, Kodama, formerly governor of Formosa, showing that Japan had a plan of campaign for the invasion of French Indo-China. The documents were of extraordinary length and gave the reasons for first turning toward Manchuria, and after capturing Russia there, attacking the smaller French forces farther south, preventing meanwhile a powerful navy to meet reinforcements that might be sent from Russia or France.

Next day the Japanese legation at Paris pronounced the alleged disclosures in the Echo De Paris to be fabrications and added:

We declare once for all that Japan has never had designs on any European power. Its present war against Russia is solely for national defense against the menace of Russian invasion in the far east.

Kourapatkin Reports a Victory.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 17.—General Kourapatkin, telegraphing yesterday to Emperor Nicholas, reported an account of a strong Japanese attack of infantry, cavalry and artillery to cut off the column of General Mitschenko's cavalry January 14, as the latter was about to retire northward. The Japanese, under cover of a mist, outflanked the Russians, made a battle of the Russian artillery inflicting heavy losses on the Japanese at short range and then retreating. The Russian losses were five officers and forty men killed or wounded.

General Kourapatkin also reported the return of a Russian patrol after blowing up the railroad and destroying a mile of telegraph two miles north of Tatchekoa.

Deny Violation of Neutrality.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 17.—The government has not renewed the state of siege in Manchurian cities, at the opening of the new year, civil law in such places replacing military rule. The Russian papers protest against the imputation that General Mitschenko's cavalry violated Chinese neutrality, even if, of which there is at present no evidence, they crossed the Liao river above New Chang, claiming that a small strip on the west bank is distinctly reserved as included in the sphere of hostilities.

While the daring cavalry raid on the line of Japanese communications was welcomed as a happy augury of the operations of the new year the general staff does not give encouragement to the idea that it was a precursor of a serious Russian movement.

Dutch Ship is Captured.

TOKIO, Jan. 17.—(3:30 p. m.)—A Japanese torpedo boat destroyer captured the Dutch steamer Wilhelmina, which was carrying Cardiff coal to Vladivostok, in the Tsushima straits, Monday and brought it to Saesho.

A first-class armored cruiser is being constructed at the naval dock at Kure.

Stoessel Starts Home.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—The State department has received the following cablegram from Consul General Harris at Nagasaki, dated today:

General Stoessel, staff and about 500 men, were with their families, his wife embarked on the steamer Australian for Odesa.

Russian Officers Go Home.

NAGASAKI, Jan. 17.—The French steamer Australian sailed shortly before 8 o'clock this evening for Marseilles, having on board General Stoessel and his wife and 500 Russians, including Admirals Grigorovitch and Lockinsky, Generals Gorbatsky and Bales and 246 other officers and their wives. The Australian was not allowed to leave the harbor before dark as a precaution against the Russians or others obtaining knowledge of the defenses. The steamer was piloted out of Nagasaki by Japanese naval officers.

During their stay here the Russian officers bought curio valued at over $12,000, having ample supplies of money, but the

COMBES PREPARES TO QUIT

Meeting of French Ministers Adopts Program for Resignation from Office.

PARIS, Jan. 17.—At a meeting of the council of the ministers today held under the presidency of Premier Combes in the absence of President Loubet, who was attending the meeting of the cabinet of the same name, M. Combes communicated to the council the text of a letter announcing the resignation of himself and his colleagues.

It was arranged that the ministers should proceed together to the Elysee palace upon the return of M. Loubet for the submission of the letter to the president. It was also arranged that the cabinet request the Chamber of Deputies to temporarily suspend its sessions, as the ministers had no desire to participate in the work of the government, the consideration of their resignations. The letter lengthily sets forth the reasons for the resignation of the cabinet, maintaining that as the ministry had not been placed in the minority in the Chamber its policies should prevail in the new ministry.

STRIKERS TELL THEIR TROUBLES

Representatives of Men Meet German Government Commissioner.

ESSEN, Germany, Jan. 17.—According to reports received at the official mine office, 12,612 men from 137 coal mines are out on strike today.

The leaders of the strike had a meeting with the government commissioner this afternoon and explained the grounds for the strike. The expectation still continues that the dispute may be ended soon owing to the government's strong desire to settle the controversy.

Chancellor von Buelow's speech in the Prussian Diet affirming that the government's two duties toward the strike were to preserve order and assist in a settlement so as to save German industry from a great calamity, gives the miners hope of obtaining concessions.

The executive committee of the socialist party has issued a general appeal to German workmen to stand by the strikers, "as they are striking not only for daily bread, but for the future of all men."

The socialists have never been assisting in the Rhine country as in other industrial districts. The central party has always held a strong hold over the workmen in that part of Germany and both the memory of the center party and the socialists are now looking for political advantages.

BOTH SIDES STATE THEIR CASES

North Sea Commission Hears Opening Statements from Counsel.

PARIS, Jan. 17.—The international commission appointed to inquire into the North sea incident held a closed session at the Foreign office and received statements of particulars from both sides, which will be made public at the session of the commission on Thursday next.

Notwithstanding reports that the formal submission of the cases might lead to a modification of the Russian defense committee at the center of the same date, the Japanese officials here declared that the Japanese criticism had no importance, as the Russian squadron was no longer in French waters.

A dispatch from Paris January 9 related that the Echo De Paris printed documents alleged to have been prepared by the Japanese general, Kodama, formerly governor of Formosa, showing that Japan had a plan of campaign for the invasion of French Indo-China. The documents were of extraordinary length and gave the reasons for first turning toward Manchuria, and after capturing Russia there, attacking the smaller French forces farther south, preventing meanwhile a powerful navy to meet reinforcements that might be sent from Russia or France.

Next day the Japanese legation at Paris pronounced the alleged disclosures in the Echo De Paris to be fabrications and added:

We declare once for all that Japan has never had designs on any European power. Its present war against Russia is solely for national defense against the menace of Russian invasion in the far east.

Kourapatkin Reports a Victory.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 17.—General Kourapatkin, telegraphing yesterday to Emperor Nicholas, reported an account of a strong Japanese attack of infantry, cavalry and artillery to cut off the column of General Mitschenko's cavalry January 14, as the latter was about to retire northward. The Japanese, under cover of a mist, outflanked the Russians, made a battle of the Russian artillery inflicting heavy losses on the Japanese at short range and then retreating. The Russian losses were five officers and forty men killed or wounded.

General Kourapatkin also reported the return of a Russian patrol after blowing up the railroad and destroying a mile of telegraph two miles north of Tatchekoa.

Deny Violation of Neutrality.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 17.—The government has not renewed the state of siege in Manchurian cities, at the opening of the new year, civil law in such places replacing military rule. The Russian papers protest against the imputation that General Mitschenko's cavalry violated Chinese neutrality, even if, of which there is at present no evidence, they crossed the Liao river above New Chang, claiming that a small strip on the west bank is distinctly reserved as included in the sphere of hostilities.

While the daring cavalry raid on the line of Japanese communications was welcomed as a happy augury of the operations of the new year the general staff does not give encouragement to the idea that it was a precursor of a serious Russian movement.

Dutch Ship is Captured.

TOKIO, Jan. 17.—(3:30 p. m.)—A Japanese torpedo boat destroyer captured the Dutch steamer Wilhelmina, which was carrying Cardiff coal to Vladivostok, in the Tsushima straits, Monday and brought it to Saesho.

A first-class armored cruiser is being constructed at the naval dock at Kure.

Stoessel Starts Home.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—The State department has received the following cablegram from Consul General Harris at Nagasaki, dated today:

General Stoessel, staff and about 500 men, were with their families, his wife embarked on the steamer Australian for Odesa.

Russian Officers Go Home.

NAGASAKI, Jan. 17.—The French steamer Australian sailed shortly before 8 o'clock this evening for Marseilles, having on board General Stoessel and his wife and 500 Russians, including Admirals Grigorovitch and Lockinsky, Generals Gorbatsky and Bales and 246 other officers and their wives. The Australian was not allowed to leave the harbor before dark as a precaution against the Russians or others obtaining knowledge of the defenses. The steamer was piloted out of Nagasaki by Japanese naval officers.

During their stay here the Russian officers bought curio valued at over $12,000, having ample supplies of money, but the

CHURCHMEN COME TO OMAHA

Episcopal Missionary Conference Opens Its Sessions Today.

The women will begin work of the body plans for entertaining distinguished men who will be here as delegates to the conference.

The preliminaries of the second annual conference of the Sixth Missionary district of the Episcopal church have been engaging the attention of the local churchmen for some days. Chairman Philip Davidson, Secretary Clement Chase, Assistant Secretary Robert Turner and Treasurer Henry W. Yates have been busy as the law requires and the nine committees have done all that can be done to prepare for the day and evening. Bishop Hare of South Dakota came in late in the day. The Women's auxiliary will have the floor today and a considerable number of the delegates will not try to get here before the Thursday morning session.

The Women's auxiliary meeting will be held today in the cathedral. The opening of the conference is set for 10:30 o'clock. Bishop Williams will be celebrant of this service and Bishop Brewer will be the preacher. A luncheon has been arranged for the afternoon in the parish house and they will be allowed until 2 o'clock before the quarterly conference of the auxiliary begins in the cathedral crypt. In the district conference, which begins an hour later, Bishop Tuttle, Mission Rev. A. S. Lloyd, New York, Bishop Rowe of Alaska and Miss Julia Emory of New York will have addresses. The duty of the church to the colored people, the relation of the auxiliary to the board of missions, the work of women in Alaska and the operators come which women have in the church and home will be considered.

Plans for the Evening.

The evening will be spent in two ways. In Brownell Hall, beginning at 8 o'clock, will be the missionary meeting of the auxiliary and the junior auxiliary. Miss Julia Emory, who is the general secretary of the auxiliary, will have charge of this meeting.

A rather more informal dinner will be held at the Millard given by the Nebraska church club to the bishops and the visiting clergy and delegates. This dinner will be one of the social features of the conference and it is expected a large number will be seated when the operators come on. Paul Charlton is to be the toastmaster and the following is the program:

Address of welcome, Rt. Rev. A. L. Williams, D. D., Typical Western Experience, Rt. Rev. R. M. Hildreth, D. D., Missions in the District, Hon. James M. Woodworth, Rt. Rev. J. D. Morrison, "Church Clubs," Mr. Frank O. Osborne of St. Paul; Rt. Rev. E. Rowe, D. D., "The Flora of North Dakota," Rev. C. M. Cameron, D. D., "The Quiet Life," Rev. Irving P. Johnson.

The reception which is to be given Thursday night at Brownell Hall will be one of the popular social events of the conference. This reception is given for the purpose of giving the public a chance to meet the bishops and the delegates. Those who desire to attend should call on the auxiliary and an invitation will be given.

Prominent Members of Conference.

The most prominent of those coming to Omaha will be, of course, the bishops. Of these Bishop Tuttle of Missouri, presiding bishop of the church, will be entertained at the home of C. W. Lyman. Bishop W. H. Hare of South Dakota, Bishop E. A. Atwell of Kansas City are to visit J. M. Woodworth. Bishop J. D. Morrison of Duluth and Bishop R. L. Brewer of Montana go to the A. J. Poppleton home. Bishop A. R. Graves of Laramie and the Philip Potter, Bishop E. R. Mitchell of Kansas will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Davis. Bishop T. W. Morrison of Iowa stays at the J. D. Barklow home, Bishop Cameron of North Dakota, H. W. Yates; Bishop C. Olmstead of Colorado, Hermon Knoutz, Bishop P. T. Roy of Alaska, Bishop Williams; Rev. A. S. Lloyd, general secretary board of missions, Clement Chase; Miss Julia Emory, general secretary of the Women's auxiliary, Philip Potter.

Among other important attendants at the conference will be Rev. W. R. Andrews of Mito, Japan; Rev. J. N. D. Davidson, city missionary of Chicago; Rev. J. C. Sage of Dubuque; Rev. Carroll M. Davis, secretary of the Sixth Missionary district, and Hubert Carleton, general secretary of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew.

List of Delegates.

Among the delegates will be the following: Colorado—Rev. Maurice Rywater, Rev. H. E. Hildreth, Rev. J. M. Melby. Duluth—Rev. F. Parshall, Rev. W. J. Moody, Rev. E. S. Murphy and Rev. A. T. Young. Iowa—Rev. C. H. Biggs, Rev. R. P. Smith, Rev. Allen Judd, Rev. N. F. Douglas and G. R. Kinney. Kansas—Rev. John Bennett, Rev. A. P. Randall, Rev. Lou Burk, M. M. Meade, J. S. White, Rev. G. M. McKennon, Rev. Robert Talbot, Rev. A. W. Wood, Rev. T. B. Foster, Rev. J. S. Smith and C. O. Kelly. Louisiana—Rev. James Cope, Rev. L. A. Arthur, Rev. E. R. Earle, Rev. John Gray, W. Wells and Rev. W. Andrews, Rev. W. Minnesota—Rev. W. H. Knowlton, Rev. C. E. Smith, Rev. J. E. Blaudin, Rev. E. Lofstrom, Rev. C. E. Haupt, Rev. G. O. G. Missouri—Rev. G. D. B. Miller, Rev. F. M. Weddell, Rev. B. T. Kimerer, Rev. E. R. McKenney, Rev. G. Thornton, Rev. E. H. Hentz and Rev. E. H. Kinney. Montana—Rev. T. E. Dickey. Nebraska—Rev. W. R. Kinney, Rev. George Hesse, Rev. A. M. Griffin, Rev. R. Talbot, W. D. Mitchell. North Dakota—Rev. G. H. Cornell, Rev. Robert Doherty, Rev. Edward Ashley, Rev. A. E. Clark and Rev. Adam Ross. North Dakota—Rev. William Watson, Rev. Owen F. Jones. Oregon—Rev. James W. Rev. C. F. Chapman, Rev. A. Mulligan, C. J. Phelps, H. W. Yates, Clement Chase, W. W. Kinney, G. O. G. The local chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew held a business meeting last evening in the parish house. A full attendance passed on numerous matters in relation to the part which the brotherhood is to play in the entertainment and the programs of the conference.

Sheriffs in Convention.

PIERRE, S. D., Jan. 17.—(Special Telegram.)—The Sheriff's association of the state is in session and will hold another meeting tomorrow. Eighteen counties are represented. The officers are: Jesse Brown of Sturgis, president, and Howard Cole of Aberdeen, secretary-treasurer. They are discussing matters of legislative interest to the association.

Movements of Ocean Vessels Jan. 17.

At New York—Arrived: Finland, from Antwerp; Rydam, from Rotterdam. Sailed: George, for Liverpool; Kron Prinz Wilhelm, for Bremen. At St. Thomas—Arrived: Princess Victoria Louise, from New York. At Sydney, N. S. W.—Arrived: Ventura, from San Francisco.

BEE WANT ADS BRING BUYERS

SALEM, Neb., Jan. 16, 1905.—Bee, Omaha.—Gents: About a month ago I advertised my practice for sale in your paper. I received several answers and succeeded in not only selling my practice, but my residence also in about three weeks after ad appeared. Yours, DR. J. E. WALLER.

ELIAS CASE IS ON TRIAL

Absence of Defendant Does Not Stop Opening of Suit for Damages.

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—The trial of the suit of John R. Platt, the octogenarian millionaire, to recover from Hannah Elias, a negro, nearly $50,000 which he alleges she extorted from him during a period extending over more than two years, began before Justice O'Grinn in the supreme court today. Mrs. Elias was not in court when the case was called. Mr. Platt was present with his counsel, however, and it was decided not to allow the absence of the defendant to delay the proceedings.

In opening the case for the plaintiff Attorney G. R. Warren said that Mrs. Elias, sometime before proceedings were begun against her, succeeded in getting from Platt a number of letters and books which would have been extremely valuable to him in proving the case against the defendant, but that he hoped even in their absence to prove their contents and thus establish the justice of his claim. Former Governor Black, senior counsel for Mrs. Elias, moved that the case be dismissed on the ground that the plaintiff had been guilty of inexcusable delay in bringing his complaint. The motion was denied by Justice O'Grinn, as was another motion asking for a jury trial.

When Mr. Platt arose in response to a call from his counsel he appeared to be very feeble and was assisted to a chair in the witness stand. Guided by questions from his counsel, he testified that he had known Mrs. Elias, more than twenty years ago, when, as president of the volunteer firemen's association, he took the visiting California firemen out "to show them a good time." A rather more incident which occurred during their long friendship, which was practically the same as that told when he was on the stand in the magistrate's court last summer, when the proceedings against Mrs. Elias were begun. His memory of the incident was not clear and he could not remember the amounts of money he had loaned to Mrs. Elias.

Mr. Platt said he had no unfriendly feeling against Mrs. Elias and that he would never have brought this suit. He declared that the present suit was brought by his brother. When Mr. Platt left the stand the hearing was adjourned until tomorrow.

OVERTHROW OF AUTOCRACY

Samuel Woolner Predicts Revolution in Russia as Result of Assassination of Jews.

CHICAGO, Jan. 17.—"The overthrow of the Russian autocracy will be the last echo of the voice of Kishineff." This was a prophecy made in passing over the subject of Jewish civil and religious rights in America by President Samuel Woolner of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations in making his report to the nineteenth council of the organization today. He advised united effort to oppose possibly future immigration legislation which might be inimical to Jewish interests.

Speaking of the work of the board of delegates on civil and religious rights President Woolner said:

"While the Kishineff protest was not official, the work of our board of delegates, yet our chairman, Simon Wolf, was one of the workers who, together with the late Isaac H. Wise, brought this historical document and stirred the American citizen to indorse it in righteous wrath. The overthrow of the autocracy, from whom the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department of State, will be the result of certain foreign governments of the world when presented by American citizens of formal petition that the matter has been brought before the new Russian immigration bill, from which the world now expects a favorable recommendation to the United States and the Department