Are walked by the billiard player, as he moves around the table. That is the only exercise many a city man gets. is this lack of exercise in the shut-in-life of the city, combined with irregu-lar eating and in-digestible dishes which tend to make the city man the victim of "stomach trouble."

When there is undue fullness after eating, with belching, sour ris-ings and other distressing symptoms, a prompt use of Dr Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will effect a speedy cure. In the most extreme cases of disease of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, the persistent use of the "Discovery" will result in a complete cure in nine-of every hundred. "The praise I would like to give your 'Golden Medical Discovery' I cannot duter in words or describe with pen," writes James B. Ambrose, Esq., of 120314 Midfin Street, Huntingdon, Pally was taken down with what our physicians said was indigestion. I doctored with the best around here and found no relief. I wrote to you and you sent me a question blank to fill out and I did so and you then advised me to use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I took three bottles and I felt a) good that I stopped—bring, as I think, cured. I have no symptoms of gastric trouble or indigestion now."

An American man-of-war's man, ashore at Gravesend, hear London, awoke the ther morning to find himself attired in the iniform of a British soldier. No seoner had be wandered out into the street than a picket stepped him and told him to button up his tunic or he would be taken to barracks. He sought refuge in a police station, where it was discovered that a deserter had changed clothes with him while alive with wildcats, and it was intended to ave a hunt and clean them out, as their nightly noise has interfered seriously with week-day prayer meetings and Sunday night services.

A hait was called by John Hey of Winamac, who believes that the prowling felines can be used to help operate the new electric ine. In brief his plan is to arrange chutes brough which the cats will be driven. In these chutes will be a series of revolving brushes, which will be low enough to scrape each cat's back.

This brushing will produce electric sparks, which by an ingenious contrivance will be conducted to a storage battery. From whence in turn it will go to the trolley feed Tied Can Explodes. Two boys, a battered tin can, a piece of string, a homeless dog, the mother of one of the boys and her infant-these were the dramatis personae in a lurid melodrama in Rush county, Ind. The boys, George Goudy and Cornelius Winship, found the can near an abandoned gas well. With a piece of string they attached it to the tall of the dog. Mrs. Winship opened the door, attracted by the howling of the dog. Enter dog. Explosion. Mrs. Winship and infant hurled through doorway, badly hurt. Two cooms demolished. Crib and furniture wrecked. Can contained nitroglycerine. Whereabouts of dog unknown. Damage.

Thrilling Death Song. Singing with his last breath the words of the hymn he loved so well, "Jesus, Lover of My Soul." Enoch Montgomery Richards. a musician of Wilkesbarre. Pa., died on the 9th instant. He was stricken with pneumonia several days ago, and when it became evident that he was to die he sent for his pastor and some members of the church and asked a quartet to sing the hymn. As he made the request his voice was a mere whisper and could barely be heard.

As the hymn started he motioned to the

I had contemplated having a small bottle of ale with my roast beef, but I ordered milk instead. While I am a believer in personal liberty I do not permit my theorics to inflict themselves upon others. I ordered milk instead of beer and the waiter spilled much of it on me and the table as the train swung around a sharp curve. The old lady noticed my mishap. but her face bore no trace of slightest interest. With her in hearing distance I would not have risked laughing at anything. In the cold, business-like voice of the class leader she ordered-I could have told what it would be before she said a word-she ordered two eggs boiled medium. dry toast, and a pot of hot tea. "It must called, as he turned away. "before you bring the eggs I want a Scotch highball." That is what she said. The car made particularly wild lurch just then, which helped me to hide my surprise. That was all that saved me.

Menn. Menner, Mennest.

There were four of them in the smoking ompartment of the car when the traveler from Chicago happened to say: "That reminds me of a man out in my town who is so mean that he makes the members of his house write small hands in order to save ink:

"A friend o' my father's, suh, wuz even was than that," same promptly from the Baltimorean. "He stopped the clock at night, suh, because o' the wear and tear on the works."

Then the Philadelphian: "Well, there's a good old Quaker out in Wayne who won't read the papers. Wears out his glasses, says he.

All three looked inquiringly at the man from New York, but he merely smiled and rang for the waiter to take the orders. Smart Set.
