DOYLE STILL ON THE STAND

Cross-Examination of Tlaintiff in Famous Buit Long Drawn Out.

SEEKS DISCREPANCIES IN TESTIMONY

Admits He Swore to What Was Untrue in Former Case in Colorado and Dtd So in Interest of Burns.

The trial of the Doyle-Burns suit was resumed yesterday morning in district court with Doyle on the witness stand and his cross-examination was not concluded when court adjourned for the day. It is expected his cross-examination will last all of today. During the morning session Mr. Thomas directed his cross-examination to show that Doyle's testimony in the present case was completely at variance with that which he gave in the trial of the suit of O'Haire against Burns in the Colorado courts. In the afternoon Mr. Thomas directed his efforts to disprove the statement of Doyle while he was secretary or one of the directors of the corporation. Doyle proved an excellent witness for himself and met most of Mr. Thomas' questions with the reply: "I don't recollect," or "I can't say that I did."

that he had little or nothing to do with

One question of Mr. Thomas caused i laugh among the large audience in the lobby, which was largely composed of fashionably dressed women. In answer to and these were ordered placed in the care a question why he had given his money to Burns, Doyle replied: "I treated him the same as a boy would his father." This prompted Mr. Thomas to ask the witness, "Were you calling him (Burns) 'papa' in those days?"

Identifying His Signatures. Much of the afternoon was taken up in having Doyle identify his signatures to certificates of stock isssued by the Portland company during the time he was secretary of the company, also to identify certificates of stock belonging to him issued to Kate Burns as trustee. This was done by the defense in its efforts to disprove the statement of Doyle that Burns alone handled an of the stock and that all he did was to sign his name as secretary when called upon An affidavit made by Doyle in the O'Haire-Burns suit, in which Doyle referred to Burns as the owner of the Bob Tall No. 2 claim, was offered by the defense in evidence, also the copy of an affidavit which Jensen Brothers of this city, on their bid is now in the land office in Washington of $24,467.00. The scene almost reached the dramatic when Mr. Thomas asked Doyle when he had repented of giving, as he now admitmer building was constructed by Wickham | ted having done, false testimony in the O'Haire-Burns suit and to which question Doyle, looking squarely into the face of his cross-examiner, replied: "Mr. Thomas, this is the only wrong thing I have done in my life and I have repented exceedingly and extremely, and God knows I have repented.' Charles J. Hughes, jr., senior counsel from Colorado for Doyle, who arrived here

Sunday, was obliged to return to Denver yesterday afternoon. He announced he would return in time at least to take part in the argument, even if he had to leave the case in which he is now engaged in Denver.

VALUABLE PAPERS ARE MISSING Safe in Lawyer's Office Robbed of Bo:

of Documents. When A. T. Flickinger of the legal firm of Flickinger Brothers opened the safe in their office in the Shugart block yesterday marning he discovered that a tin box containing valuable papers had been stolen. The papers, which belong to the William Saar estate, comprised among others, promissory notes of the face value of $11,000 and a time certificate of deposit issued by the First National bank of this city for $254.60.

While unable to direct suspicion against any particular person, Mr. Flickinger is of the belief that the box was stolen some time during Saturday afternoon during his and his brother's temporary absence from the office. The safe at that time was unlocked and possibly the door was slightly open. The stenographer was in the adjoining room but she failed to hear any one enter the office. Mr. Flinkinger locked the safe on leaving the office for the day Saturday evening, but before doing so did not look into it to see if everything was all right.

Mr. Flickinger stated yesterday that the papers were absolutely of no value to but the administrators of the estate, Fortunately Mr. Flickinger has a complete inventory of all the promissory notes and other papers, as one was readministrators of the estate. The loss of the papers, however, will cause considerable annoyance and trouble, and Mr. Flickinger states he is willing to give a reward for their return and will ask no questions.

REWARD OFFERED.

Reward will be paid for the return of tin box and contents taken from the safe in Flickinger Brothers' law office on Saturday, March 18, and no questions asked.

Peterson came in town one day to get the mail and a supply of groceries and has not been seen since. Meeting to Select Inspector. STURGIS, S. D., March 10 .- (Special.)-There is to be a meeting of the cattle owners of Meade county on Saturday, March 25, for the purpose of choosing a cattle inspector for the county, the same being made necessary by a law passed by the last legislature. Only bona fide and actively engaged stock raisers can participate. The duties of the inspector are not by any means easy, for there must be attendance at every vat while dipping is in progress so that proper certificates can be given. In the rush season this will necessitate constant work or the inspector must appoint deputies enough to carry out the

THE REAL ISSUE

To the People of Nebraska:

There is an attempt now being made by the combined railroad, line elevators and line lumber yard interests gathered at Lincoln to cause the enactment of a law known as HOUSE ROLL NUMBER 255 by which the taxes of the people will surely be increased, and the home administration of their county expenditures for bridges will in part be removed from the hands of their local authorities. NO SIMILAR LAW HAS EVER YET BEEN ENACTED BY ANY STATE IN THE UNION.

THIS LAW IS FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE LUMBER AND GRAIN TRUST NOW OPERATING LINE ELEVATORS AND LUMBER YARDS THROUGHOUT THE STATE, and to the end that such trusts may inflict upon the tax-paying public of this state the same heavy exactions they are now inflicting upon the people of this state, in their lumber purchases. Preliminary to accomplishing this purpose they must have some law through which they can wipe out the business of parties engaged in furnishing material and constructing bridges in this state. This they have found in House Roll 255. Notwithstanding the large amount of money spent for bridges, none of the men engaged in such work have ever been able to acquire more than a moderate competency in such business. This is of itself the best guarantee of the fidelity and care that has been used in the expenditures for bridges by our county officials now charged with the care of such matters.

Engaged in an unequal fight at Lincoln with these combined trust forces is Robert Z. Drake, owner of the Standard Bridge Company. WE APPEAL TO THE PEOPLE OF THIS STATE TO HELP HIM BY THEIR ADVICE, SYMPATHY AND ANY OTHER HONORABLE MEANS TO PREVENT THIS INIQUITOUS MEASURE FROM BECOM-ING A LAW.

We are, in the interest of honest home administration of home affairs, and always in the interest of fair play.

Very respectfully,
