

JUROR FAILS IN HOT TOUCH

Effort to Borrow Money from Attorney Brings His Discharge.

PECULIAR MISCONDUCT BROUGHT TO LIGHT

Judge Kennedy Questions Man Accused and Dismisses Him from Service After an Investigation.

There is one vacant chair in the jury box in Judge Kennedy's court room. It was occupied by one George Wood up to the time of the adjournment of court Tuesday evening. After the adjournment Mr. Wood went to one of the lawyers in the case and asked for the loan of a dollar. It does not appear as if Wood had been guilty of any reprehensible in the highest degree. He would not, however, inflict any greater penalty than to discharge the juror from any further service on the case and from the panel. After consultation the attorneys agreed to proceed with eleven jurors. A rumor, which seems to have some foundation, is circulating about the court house to the effect that Wood has heretofore borrowed money from a man who has a case pending. As yet it does not appear that any action one way or the other is to be taken in the matter.

On ascending the bench Judge Kennedy referred to Wood's offense as too serious to be overlooked. He emphasized the need of keeping the jury box above suspicion, and to all the jurors he said that such an offense as Wood had been guilty of was reprehensible in the highest degree. He would not, however, inflict any greater penalty than to discharge the juror from any further service on the case and from the panel. After consultation the attorneys agreed to proceed with eleven jurors. A rumor, which seems to have some foundation, is circulating about the court house to the effect that Wood has heretofore borrowed money from a man who has a case pending. As yet it does not appear that any action one way or the other is to be taken in the matter.

When Wood was drawn on the jury in Judge Kennedy's court he gave his occupation as structural iron worker and his residence as 413 North Thirteenth street. He said he is 39 years old. His name does not appear in the 1904 directory.

HON. ASMUS BOYSEN. TO ALL WHO ARE INTERESTED

Through these lines I wish to call your attention to the special Act of Congress which passed the House on March 2nd, 1893, whereby I exchange my 178,000 acre coal lease which I held with the Shoshone and Arapahoe Indians in Wyoming for 60 acres of mineral lands, containing copper of immense value. Write for my booklet giving the full history of my valuable concessions and of THE ARMUS BOYSEN MINING COMPANY, incorporated in the state of Wyoming. Bear in mind, this is one of the greatest opportunities ever offered the most skeptical investor. Write at once.
