DOYLE WANTS A NEW TRIAL

Over Hundred Reasons Why One Should Be Granted Him.

NUMEROUS ERRORS OF COURT ALLEGED

Misconduct of Opposing Attorneys Jurors and of Defendant Are Set Out as Other Reasons for Rehenring.

The motion on behalf of the plaintiff for a new trial in the Doyle-Burns mining suit was filed in district court yesterday. It is a voluminous document, covering fifty-five pages of typewritten matter, and embodies a number of affidavits. Some sensational charges are made and ascribed as reasons why plaintiff should be granted a new

In addition to the motion filed yesterday Doyle's attorneys will later file a motion to take additional evidence in support of the application for a new trial at the time of the hearing.

The motion contains 106 alleged reasons why a new trial should be granted and the jury that C. S. Thomas, one of the Bluffs. counsel for the defendant, used language of the record and not warranted by the also used language outside the record in making his argument to the jury; that conduct in the same alleged manner as Mr. Thomas; that Congressman Smith was also guilty of misconduct in interrupting Mr. Baldwin several times in the latter's closing arguments to the jury.

It is also alleged that there was misconduct of the jury during the progress of the trial and that there was misconduct of the defendant prior to and during the trial in influencing public sentiment against Doyle and influencing the jury against the plaintiff. In support of these assertions affidavits from John N. Baldwin, George S. Wright and A. W. Askwith, counsel for Doyle; J. M. Shea, E. J. Ryan, F. C. Hardin, J. J. Fraincy, L. T. Alberti, Attorney S. B. Wadsworth, Freeman L. Reed, County Attorney J. J. Hess, Henry Bedurtha and the plaintiff himself are filed with the motion

It is further claimed that the court was without jurisdiction to hear and determine the suit because of the fact that it commenced in the January term and continued through to the March term, the law not permitting of two terms of district court being held in the same county at the same time, at the same county seat, and that in fact at the time of the rendition and reception of the verdict in this suit by Judge Thornell there were two district courts in actual session simultaneously in the same court house.

The charge is made that the defendant procured and induced the publication of numerous articles in a daily paper published in this city during the progress of the trial commenting on the merits of the and highly prejudicial thereto, garbling and misrepresenting the testimony and en- | closed here today with the election of ofdeavoring to mould public sentiment in favor of the defendant and inflaming the passions and prejudi s of the jurors against Doyle.

The jury is also charged with misconduct in reading the articles as published in this paper and in reading other papers containing accounts of the trial and comments thereon, and in indulging in intoxicating | Clark, Red Oak; auditor, Mrs. Maria C. liquors while considering their verdict.

Substance of Affidavits.

The allegations contained in the several findavits are substantially as follows: The allegations contained in the several affidavits are substantially as follows:

That W. B. Fisher and Gus Lotz of this city were paid by the defendant to circulate reports to the effect that Doyle was an enemy of union labor, and that he had been a member of Governor Peabody's staff during the trouble with union labor in the mining district. in the mining district.

Grocers Well Pleased. Before leaving for his home at Newton vesterday morning President A. M. Hough of the Iowa Retail Grocers' association expressed himself as greatly pleased with the lavish entertainment which had been provided for the members of the convention by the local association. "I merely echo the feeling of every delegate and officer when I say this," stated Mr. Hough, "At no time before in the history of the association has it been more royally entertained than it was during its three days' session in Council Bluffs, and we all return to our homes deeply thankful for the many courtesies shown us during our short stay in the city."

Secretary Ira B. Thomas, in bidding goodbye yesterday, said: "Council Bluffs has throughout the state the reputation of being a royal entertainer, and it certainly sustained this reputation during our visit

A. Linger, Keokuk. The morning business session accomplished several important amendments to the constitution. Among them was one combining the general officers and district chairmen in a body to be known as the board of directors, and the forming of a second body to be known as the council which shall include the board of directors, club president and chairmen of standing committees. The former unsatisfactory provision of securing a nominating committee by nomination from the floor, was overcome by an amendment proposed by Mrs. Cutler of Council Bluffs, which provides that one delegate shall be appointed from each district to make up a nominating committee. The time and method of selecting of this representative to be left to the discretion of the districts. Article v, section 2, was amended to provide that the annual dues of clubs of twenty-five members or less be $3; clubs of twenty-five to fifty, $3, and for each additional fifty members or major fraction thereof, an additional $1. The board of directors was empowered to appoint at its first meeting after the bienzial, an executive committee of three, of which the president shall be the chairman, to transact routine business and act in the case of emergency.
