NEW YORK STOCKS AND BONDS

Market Opens Strong and Active, but Values Crumble on Heavy Offering. REVERSAL OF TONE IS DECISIVE. While Losses Are Comprehensive They Are Not Sufficient to Wipe Out Wednesday's Gains.

NEW YORK, May 25.—The strong opening in today's stock market was the over-optimistic reaction to a vigorous recovery. The buying however, did not last long. The market opened at 100 1/2¢ for the Dow Jones industrial average. The market was strong and active, but values crumbled on heavy offering. A reversal of tone was decisive. While losses are comprehensive they are not sufficient to wipe out Wednesday's gains. The market opened at 100 1/2¢ for the Dow Jones industrial average.
