Colonel Hogeland Speaks to the Congregation of All Saints on the Danger to Children.

At All Saints' church Sunday morning Colonel Alexander Hogeland, "friend of the newsboys," originator of the curfew law and promoter of the welfare of the urchins who earn their livelihood on the streets, delivered a short address to the congregation on behalf of the curfew and its enforcement in Omaha. He asked the co-operation of his hearers in promoting the curfew movement in Omaha and doing their share toward its enforcement. He Totals...... 5 10 27 9 1 Totals...... 1 7 24 15 2 said in part: "I think that about three-fourths of the population of the citles are raising their children properly, and that the other onefourth are bringing up their young boys and girls for either a term in the reform school or the penitentiary. It will thus be seen that the greater part of the fault with children falling in the way of wrongdoing lies with the parents and not with the child."

Colonel Hogeland then told of some of the statistics which he had gathered, which show that the cost of prosecuting criminals is nearly as great as the expenditures for bread consumed by the peo ple of the country. He ended by urging that all take an interest in the curfew aw and assist in its enforcement.

expire and the mayor will have the appointing of the successors of those who retire. Those whose terms expire are Bruce McCulloch, Rev. Mr. O'Hern and Mrs. C. L. Talbot. Mayor Koutsky has not given any indication of the persons he proposes appointing and probably will not until he has reached a decision. It is stated that the present board is working together nicely and that under the able management of Miss Jane Abbott, librarian, the affairs of the Library board are being conducted in a satisfactory manner.

City Weighmaster Needed. Some weeks ago J. W. Cress, for years

There Omaha, Neb. will be no closing at the Exchange, business being transacted as usual. The letter can riers will make one delivery in the forenoon, the same as on other holidays.

Uncertain About Meeting. There seems to be some uncertainty about the city council meeting tonight. There was some talk yesterday about meeting and adjourning until Wednesday evening. inal program, however, will be carried out It is thought that possibly Mayor Koutsky will return from Creté by Wednesday and that it would be better to defer the meeting until the chief executive of the city is present. In case there is a meeting the May pay roll will be allowed and the Twenty-ninth street Burlington trackage ordinance will come up for third reading.
