Cal Lindsey, charged with the same offense, will have a hearing at 4 p. m. All cases will be heard before Police Judge King. These trials have been postponed from time to time.

Chief of Police Briggs expresses the opinon that the accused will be acquitted, and he believes that the saloons should be closed on the evidence at hand. He says the jury selected is composed of men in the saloon and kindred kinds of business, and that the offenders will not be punished by such a jury as they should be.

Chief Briggs is very outspoken in the natter. He declares the selling of liquor to minors is a most common evil and he ontends that the fire and police board's order against such violation of the law should not be treated lightly, as has been done. From the manner in which the chief spoke last night, it is not improbable that he will take the matter in his own hands and, on the evidence he has, close the offenders for the time being at least. Members of the police board say they will revoke the license of any saloon man who sells, or permits to be sold with his knowledge, liquor to boys under the age of %. There seems to be a real sentiment igainst the permission of boys to buy iquor at meny drinking places. It is aid that the law in this respect is violated in many instances, and by many saloon men throughout the city. The result of the hearings today may have some etfect upon the future conduct of saloon men in this respect.

The Board of Review. The Board of Review will begin sitting toorrow morning in the Murphy block, acording to present plans. The board is mposed of the city tax commissioner, T. O'Neil, John F. Schultz and J. M. Tobias. The indications are that the board will be as busy as usual, although it has been intimated that the usual tilts with the corporations will not be repeated at this session. Will Park Twenty-Third.

The present intention of the residents along Twenty-third street, as expressed in the Northeastern Improvement club meetng, is to park Twenty-third street, if it can be done, but first and for certain to curb and gutter that thoroughfare. Some of the members favor parking the street from A to Q, and making it the driving boulevard of the community. It is the intention of the members of the Northeast club to file their petition with the council for the curbing and guttering at once, as the required number of names has been ob-

A great many fine catches of fish are being made daily at Cut-Off lake. A new daughter has arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce McCulloch, Twelfth and Q streets.

The Highland Park Improvement club held an interesting meeting last evening at the Lincoln school. Joseph Cahill of Los Angeles was mar-ried Wednesday morning to Miss Ella K. The class also has decided to repeat the class play, "Esmeralda," at an early date. Twenty-five Italian laborers in the employ of the Union Pacific in South Omaha struck yesterday and refused to work because the water boy received but $1.25 and they $1.50. Farnam street just west of Fortieth, last night. Judge Estelle was pressed into service as the presiding officer, but he didn't have much to do, as Prof. West, with his string orchestra of young people monopolized the greater part of the evening with very excellent music.

The program opened with a couple of numbers by the orchestra, and Frank Dunlop followed with a couple of dialect recitations that were greeted with enthusiastic applause. Mrs. Frank Slabaugh sang a delightful solo, accompanied by Miss D. Beulah Shimer. E. A. Benson made his debut as a poet, reciting an original production depicting his recent experiences

UNITED AFTER YEARS APART Widow and Widower, Pair Who Loved in Youth, Meet in Marriage Bonds.

John C. Regan of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. J. J. Walters of Omaha were united in marriage in this city at noon Thursday. A wedding luncheon was served shortly after the ceremony at the Her Grand hotel, which was attended by a few special friends of the couple. The wedding possesses a special interest in the fact that the bride and groom were lovers of the long ago, when their lives were in the morning of their youth at their childhood's home in Ottumwa, Ia. In the lapse of years both had married and had become widow and widower. Their lives drifted far apart and their early sweet heart days remained but a memory. Regan had in the meanwhile removed to Washington, D. C., where he became a prosperous contractor. Business relations secasionally brought him to Omaha, and ne day last winter he learned that his old-time sweetheart, now a widow, was in Omaha, connected with the millinery department of one of the leading department stores of the city. They met by chance "the usual way," and love's old story was

THIRTY DELEGATES FROM TWELVE CLUBS

Mrs. E. L. Davis of Chicago, National Organizer, Participates in the Proceedings and Her Experience Proves Valuable.

Thirty delegates, representing twelve or gantzations of colored women of Omaha, South Omaha and Lincoln, are in session at St. John's African Methodist Episcopal church for the purpose of effecting a federation of colored women's clubs of Nebraska, the primary object of which shall be the elevation of the home and the promotion of good citizenship. The majority of the organizations represented were church auxiliary societies.

The following organizations were represented: Clenians Woman's club of South Omaha, Omaha Colored Mothers' club, Art beautiful picture of the Castle of Chillon, Club of Omaha, Sorosis Colored Women's club of Lincoln and the aid societies of the following colored churches: Zion Baptist, and Miss Jessie M. Towne received an ex-Third Christian church and Quinn chapel, all of Lincoln: Mount Zion Baptist, Mount Moriah Baptist and St. John's Methodist of Omaha, some of the churches having more than one society.

Mrs. W. I. Coston and Mrs. L. B. Moore of Lincoln, elected chairman and secretary at the preliminary session Wednesday, were re-elected when a permanent organization was effected. Committees were appointed to draft a constitution and bylaws, which will be voted upon Friday morning. Mrs. Elizabeth Lindsey Davis of Chicago, ociation of Colored Women, representing 20,000 women in twenty states, was present and directed the business session and organization. Attorney Silas Robinson was introduced and spoke on the "Duties and Opportunities

an organizer sent out by the National As-

We must nake a place for our sons and daughters who are finishing school and we must impress upon them that any work is honorable and dignified that needs to be done. The white race is as charitable to the colored people as we would be to them if the conditions were reversed and we must harbono bitter feelings against them, but rathe thank them for what they have done to help us help ourselves." After a two hours' intermission for dinne the program was resumed, an address by Miss Maude Sybel Wannall of Lincoln on tions by Mrs. Davis of Chicago being

> BIDS FOR ARMY BUILDINGS Proposals for Structures at Fort Omaha Are Received at

> Headquarters. Bids for the construction of the ten new government buildings at Fort Omaha were opened Thursday morning at the office of Constructing Quartermaster Major M.

> The proposals contemplate nearly $200,000 worth of new structures. The bidders were almost exclusively Omaha contractors, there being nine bidders in all, as follows: L. C. Keefe, Ed O. Hamilton, Bock & Mc Donald, Park Johnson, B. J. Jobst, P. Soderberg, W. Peterson of Omaha, G. W. Sprague of Falls City and A. J. Zithreil of Webster City, Ia. Messrs L. C. Keefe, E. O. Hamilton and W. Peterson made bids on the whole ten structures, while the other bidders bid upon but a portion of the buildings. All of the bids with one exception came under $180,000 for the entire set of buildings, and there was less than $200 difference between the lowest and next highest bidder.

The bids will have to be tabulated and sent to the office of the quartermaster general of the army at Washington before the name of the successful bidder can be announced. It can be pretty safely as serted, however, that the contract will come to Omaha concerns.

NEW ELEVATOR ACROSS RIVER

Transmississippi Grain Company De cides Not to Erect Building in Omaha.

Although the officers of the Transmississippi Grain company are not prepared to give out any information, it is generally understood among the grain men of the city that the company is planning to build its new elevator in Council Bluffs. Ever since the burning down of the old elevator at Council Bluffs several months ago it has been hoped that the new one might be built in Omaha, but the management evidently has different plans. It is thought that the company will not erect an elevator on the old site, but will select a place where there are better trackage facilities.

GIFTS FROM SENIOR CLASS Colored Women of Advanced Thought Get | Statuary of Greek Gods and Goddesses Presented to the Alma Mater.

> This afternoon the senior class presented to the Omaha High school six pieces of statuary, very beautiful in appearance. The statue of the goddess Minerva stands nearly seven feet from the ground and represents her as armed; that of Clio, the muse of history, is in a sitting posture; those of Apollo, Diana, Clytic and Antinous are ousts. The president of the class, Curtis Lindsay, after giving a brief history of the class and of its work, made the presentation. Principal Waterhouse accepted the beautiful gifts on behalf of the school and paid a tribute to the present class and former graduates for the beautiful spirit that animated each by leaving beautiful memorials at the school upon graduations. At the conclusion of this portion of the program the leaders of the two sides of the seniors presented the teachers of the opposing sides with beautiful tokens of remembrance. Mrs. I. Maggie Murray, taken out of a house of bad repute Wednesday evening by Officer Boyle, has come to the conclusion she wants to return to her mother at Rock Island, Ill. In accordance with this wish Police Matron Anderson is arranging for the girl's departure some time Thursday. Miss Murray says she is 18, but her looks belie her statement. She was arrested on the charge of being a disorderly woman and fined $5 and costs in police court. In a talk with the police matron she told the story of her life, with the result that she has seen the better way and is anxious to return to her mother, whom, she says, knows not of her recent whereabouts.

Constable Under Charge.

Attorney DeBord on Thursday afternoon had a hearing before the county commissioners on his charge of misfeasance in office against Constable J. C. Kenworthy. The charge is that the constable served a summons with no names of defendants written in and no amount of claim written on the outside of the summons. Afterward Kenworthy made affidavit that the names and amount were written or the summons when he served it, but the paper gave no indication of erasure. County Attorney Slabaugh sat with the commissioners and after hearing Mr. DeBord's statement said he would consider the matter with a view to either prosecuting Kenworthy for misfeasance in office or for perjury, as might seem best under the law. Health Thus Lost Is Restored by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

How many women do you knew who are perfectly well and strong? We hear every day the same story over and over again. "I do not feel well; I am so tired all the time!"

More than likely you speak the same words yourself, and no doubt you feel far from well. The cause may be easily traced to some derangement of the female organs which manifests itself in depression of spirits, reluctance to go anywhere or do anything, backache, bearing-down pains, flatulency, nervousness, sleeplessness, leucorrhœa.

These symptoms are but warnings that there is danger ahead, and unless heeded a life of suffering or a serious operation is the inevitable result. The never-failing remedy for all these symptoms is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Miss Kate McDonald, of Woodbridge, N. J., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham;
"I think that a woman naturally dislikes to make her troubles known to the public, but restored health has meant so much to me that I cannot help from telling mine for the sake of other suffering women.

"For a long time I suffered untold agony with a uterine trouble and irregularities, which made me a physical wreck, and no one which made me a physical wreck, and no one thought I would recover, but Lydia R. Pink-ham's Vegetable Compound has entirely cured me, and made me well and strong, and what a splendid medicine it is. If you are ill, don't hesitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write to Mrs Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice-it is free and always helpful.
