Ourbing and Guttering of Twenty-Fourth Street is in Sight.

ARTIFICIAL STONE IS TO BE USED

One of the Most Serious Obstacles to be Overcome in this Work is the Henry Wash at E Street.

One sign of improvement to the street is the setting of stakes by the city engineer's department for the curbing and guttering of Twenty-third street from the city limits on the north to Missouri avenue on the south. Only recently all of the north and south lines mentioned presented a petition to the council asking permission to curb and gutter the street. The idea is to park the street and make it as presentable as possible. Some of the finest residences in the city are built on Twentythird street, and the improvement mer tioned is considered a needed one. Artificial stone is to be used for the curbing and guttering. No estimate of the cost has been made by the engineering department of the city; but when the stakes are set City Engineer Beal will figure out the

There is something to contend with this curbing and guttering, and that is the big wash at Twenty-third and E streets. At present Twenty-third street at E is about four feet below grade. An effort is now being made to compromise this grade with the city engineer and it appears as if the property owners will be given every advantage possible.

Some of the interested property owners called at the city hall Wednesday afternoon and suggested that in order to overome the constant wash at E street that brick pavement be laid on Twenty-third street from D to F streets. This suggestion meets with the approval of the city authorities and if the property owners are willing to bear the expense these two blocks will more than likely be paved.

New Fire Hall. It is expected within a short time steps will be taken to advertise for bids for the fire department headquarters at Twentyfifth and L streets. President Adkins of the city council said yesterday that he had been looking after the matter to some extent and had found that something ought to be done at once. The present headquarters building on Twenty-fourth street is badly out of repair and the owner declines to make any improvements as he wants the city to move. As the building is now the crew at headquarters say that it will be impossible to remain in the building another winter. Architects will be asked to submit bids for plans and Mr. Adkins declares that just as soon as the 1905 levy is made the matter of construction will be pushed. It is planned to erect a fire hall to cost not more than $10,000 and be so arranged that a steamer can be placed in service should one be purchased later. The ground for this building was purchased some months ago, but differences regarding the amount to be levied for fire purposes has prevented action until the total valuation was known.

At this meeting it is intended to complete arrangements for the opening of Twenty-fifth street from A street to the boulevard. Mr. Guild states that property owners in the northern portion of the city are taking quite an interest in the opening of the street since the Omaha city council has RACING RESULTS IN DENVER shown an inclination to help. The petition for the grading of F street is receiving signatures right along and the report is that when the street is graded and the proposed viaduct is built across the tracks at F street a number of important improvements will be made on F street. A report from the entertainment committee having in charge the holding of a club picnic at Highland park will be read. BANKERS KNOW NOT OF SCHEME

Fire Department Matters. The new harness for the fire department was completed a day or two ago and is now in service at the headquarters house on Twenty-fourth street. badly in need of the new hose recently ordered. He has 3,000 feet of hose in firstclass condition and several thousand feet of rubber hose that is apparently good, but will not stand the pressure, the rubber having lost its life after having been in service about six years. When the new hose comes and the rubber hose used for work about the city the chief feels that the city will be able to get along for several months unless there should be a big fire.

States Commissioner Anderson Wednesday morning and a continuance granted to July 11.

It is held by the government that Liu Sung entered the country as a laborer and is subject to deportation as such. The defense holds that the accused is a student and produced strong corroborative testimony supporting that contention. He was a student of the Omaha Commercial college and brought a number of text books, and intelligently answered numerous questions put to him in cross examination that indicated him to be a very bright young man and thoroughly Americanized.

GOOD RACES AT MISSOURI VALLEY Opening Day Sees Some Fine Spor

with the Jumpers. MISSOURI VALLEY, in., June 38.—(Special Telegram.)—The opening day at the Missouri Valley running meet was a grand success from at least a racing point of view. The weather was ominous and misty success from at least a racing point of view. The weather was ominous and misty and kept the country people from turning out, but at that there was quite a handsome gathering on hand to see the sport.

Everything passed off finely, barring the accident that befell Martin Ellis, one of the city's real estate men. He was run down by Major, the last horse in the Derby, and quite seriously injured. It was at first thought that his injuries would prove fatal, but he improved during the evening, and is again able to be about.

There were three events on the day's program, and they were horses races, every one of them, the finale, the Derby, being particularly high class.

The first event, the five-eighths, while run in creditable time, was little else than a parade, Corder leaping into the pilotage and staying there to the finish, with Randail second and Dainty third.

The second race, the half-mile and repeat, was a corker, Zoma capturing the first heat after a Garrison finish with Albert Boone, who took the second, third and the race, Zoma right with him to the wire.

The Derby was a tight one between Little Louis and Big Injus, Little Louis winning.

LONDON, June 28.—All of the Americans, with the exception of W. A. Larned, are now out of the running for the British lawn tennis championship. D. Wilding, who is a reserve member of the Australian team which will compete for the Dwight F. Davis trophy, defeated Clothier, the American player. Wilding is a New Zealander and is captain of the Cambridge university team. This match almost entirely depleted the other galleries.

Larned at the same time was having an almost equally hot struggle with another New Zealander, H. A. Parker. Throughout the match, however, Larned seemed to have something in hand and although the match went to five sets he did not exert himself to his utmost capacity.

A. W. Gore, who, it will be remembered, took the first British team to the United States, proved too strong for Beals C. Wright. Gore kept at good length throughout, was extremely accurate in placing and maintained a tremendous pace.

aintained a tremendous pace. The result of the Wimbledon tournament The result of the Wimbledon tournament has given the British players a new lease of life and in anticipation of the Davis cupplay they are already claiming certain victory for the Doherty brothers, but both Ward and Wright said to the Associated Press today that while it would have afforded them satisfaction to secure the all-England championship cup, what they came for was the Davis cup and this cup they expected to get.
