THE OMAHA SUNDAY BEE

FOUNDED BY EDWARD ROSEWATER.

VICTOR ROSEWATER, EDITOR.

Entered at Omaha postoffice as second-class matter.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. Bee (Without Sunday), one year. 44.00 Bee and Sunday one year. 5.00 ay Bee, one year. 5.50 ay Bee, one year. 5.50 DELIVERED BY CARRIER.

Bee (including Sunday), per week. 15c Bee (without Sunday), per week. 10c Evening Dee (without Sunday), per week to Evening Dee (without Sunday), per week to Evening Dee (with Sunday), per week ... No Address all complaints of Irregularities in delivery to City Circulation Department. OFFICES.

OFFICES. Omaha-The Bee duilding. South Omaha-City Hall Building. Council Buffa-15 Scott Street. Chicago-1640 Unity Building. New York-1508 Home Life Issurance Bidg. Washington-501 Fourteenth Street. CORRESPONDENCE.

Communications relating to news and edi-torial matter should be addressed. Omaha Bee, Editorial Department.

REMITTANCES. Remit by draft, express or postal order, psyable to The Bee Publishing Company. Only 2-cent stamps received in payment of mail accounts. Personal checks, except on persons mha or eastern exchange, not accept THE BEE PUBLISHING COMPANY.

STATEMENT OF CIRCULATION. State of Nebraska, Douglas County, Ss. Charles C. Rosewater, general manager of The Bee Publishing Company, being duly sworn, says that the actual number of full and complete copies of The Dally. Morning, Evening and Sunday Ree printed during the month of April, 1907, was as follows:

selves.

WINCESS OF NY MEL
1	33,670	17	35,090
2	34.090	38	35,090
8	34,110	19	34,840
4	34.390	20	35,010
8	34,330	21	and a second second second
6	34,330	22
7	31,400		the second se
8	34,280	24
9	34,450	25
10	34,500	26
11	34,410	27
12	35,720	28
18	35,520	29
14	32,400	30
15	34,690
16	34,820	Total	1,038,410
Less unsold		turned copies
Dally averag	Ø		24,234
CH	ARLES	S C. ROSEWA General M
Subscribed	In my	presence and Bubscribed in my present April, 1997, before me this 20th day of April, 1997, (Beal) M. B. HUNGATE, Notary Public,

WHEN OUT OF TOWN. Subscribers leaving the city tempornrily should have The Bee mailed to them. Address will be changed as often as requested.

"Where will woman stop?" asks a New Mexico paper. Wherever it suits her sweet will, thank you.

Speaking of the dearth of good fiction, how about that story of two men dying of sunstroke in St. Louis?

Mayor Schmitz of San Francisco says he is being pursued by grafters. He bught to know a grafter when he sees one.

pretty soon whether he is in favor of tract calls for, the outcry that would for mixing too much fiction with his ultimate or penultimate government be raised immediately against such facts. Mr. Roberts' latest animal story, ownership of railroads.

Pennsylvania is preparing to get be- of the city to evade the obligations Roberts is writing fairy tales for the hind Senator Knox's presidential boom of a valid contract will be successful, nursery contingent. in earnest. The favorite son crop such attempts cannot fail to prove dismay also be a record-breaker.

THE SPIRIT OF REPUDIATION. The Bee would have Omaha compel Southern women were cutting up their paign-spellbinder out of business. Audi- vancement assured. every franchised corporation enjoying carpets to make blankets for the sol- ences will no longer sit by the hour concessions at the hands of the city diers and the cobs were ground with listening to paid political orators and to fulfill every obligation and bear corn to supply the meal which was the life is too short for the average voter it necessary to say that Mr. Bryan every responsibility growing out of its staple and almost the sole article of to waste time reading speeches respecial privileges. It would force food on the southern soldier's Ell of printed from the Congressional Record. each franchised corporation to give fare. Good fare for the prisoners The intelligent voter is very largely in the fullest measure of service and to could not have been furnished, much the majority and he is satisfied to se- the presidency of for any other posipay taxes without shirking on every of the time, even if the officials had cure his information and form his tion. It is careful, however, not to dollar of its reasonable market value. desired it. Appreciation of these con- views from reading the newspapers, say whether, if he were to discuss the It would require a full equivalent for ditions has induced congress, in which rather than pin his faith and vote to question, he would or would not enevery additional favor asked and it the union soldier element has always biased documents furnished by camwould enforce without discrimination been strong, to take one more step to- paign committees. According to Mr. suspicion somewhere that Colonel literal compliance with the conditions ward the final bridging of the war gap Root's estimate, about $2,800,000 was Bryan's preferred candidate, although of its franchise, by marking the graves of the confed-

In dealing with the franchised cor- erates who died in northern prisons. porations, however, Omaha should apply the same rules of fairness and rec-

EXPOSING THE "NATURE FARIES." iprocity which would be applied in President Roosevelt has taken a pot business dealings between private conshot at the camp of that little coterie cerns. There seems to be a growing of writers who have been flooding the disposition on the part of our mu- country for several years with stories nicipal authorities to regard a fran- of wild animals and their habits and chised corporation as having no rights accounts of daring exploits in hunting all political parties. Inducements for however, which will follow when both which the city is bound to respect. In | wild game in the Rockies, in the woods other words, a spirit of repudiation is of Maine, in the fastnesses of the Hud- held by all political parties, for the son bay country and on up into the public good. In the work of party being manifested by which the city authorities undertake to hold the fran- wilds of the Klondike. Jack London, chised corporations to their agree- Ernest Seton-Thompson, William J. ments while denying the binding force | Long, Charles G. D. Roberts and two for the legitimate expenditure of a of the same contracts upon themor three other writers have been building up comfortable bank accounts by The most flagrant example of this filling the shelves of the juvenile sec- that any money for the education of repudiation idea is found in the treat- tions in the nation's libraries with ani- the voters be used through regularly ment of the Omaha Water company. mal stories which President Roosevelt Notwithstanding the fact that the declares shamelessly misrepresent the water company was operating under a habits of the animals of the wilderness, franchise, stipulating a maximum deceive and mislead the children and schedule of rates to be paid for a contain stories of exploits that might period of twenty-five years, the Water have been dreamed in a comfortably and Teachers"-the French alias for Their candidate must have had his board summarily issued an order re- warmed office, but never could have dancing masters-have been engaged wings clipped, or at any rate he failed ducing the water rates below the been pulled off in the neighborhood of in the illuminating task of procuring to develop the speed necessary for schedule and sought to enforce its the haunts of wild beasts.

In reviewing these fake animal what he was talking about when he order in the courts. The result was an adverse decision with a severe restories the president takes them up declared: buke from Judge Sanborn of the cirseriatim and points out their defects. cuit court of appeals, who declared Jack London's story of a bulldog putwithout mincing words that the city ting up a stiff fight with a wolf is decould not take advantage of one part clared by the president to be "the very of the contract regarded as beneficial sublimity of absurdity-a closet proand refuse to submit to another secduction." And he strengthens his contion of the same contract which had tention by reference to the well known become burdensome or detrimental. traits of the wolf and the buildog. Notwithstanding the disastrous ex- showing how it would be impossible perience of the Water board in its at- for the two animals to get into such tempt to repudiate the rate schedule a conflict unless in a cage. London's in the water works franchise, the story of a wolf being beaten by a lynx mayor and council propose now by or- in a fight is likewise proved absurd dinance to make it a misdemeanor to and untrue. William J. Long's thrilling charge more than $1 per thousand recital of the wolf's killing of the caricubic feet for gas in the face of the bou by biting it behind the shoulder franchise held by the gas company, loses most of its thrill under the presiestablishing a sliding scale under dent's explanation that every fighting which the point of consumption has animal has fixed habits and rules of not yet been reached that would enconduct and that the wolf never bites title us to a dollar rate. The gas com- behind the shoulder. "Nothing except pany's franchise contains many stipu- a shark or an alligator," says the presilations supposed to be binding on both dent, "attempts to kill by a bite beparties to the agreement. Should the hind the shoulder." Seton-Thompson, company, for example, refuse to pay the president admits, knows something It will be up to Mr. Bryan to decide to the city the royalty which its con- about wild animals, but is criticised repudiation could be easily imagined. the heroes of which are a lot of lynxes, While it is not likely that any effort is excused on the theory that Mr.

to have a law passed prohibiting real-President Roosevelt is an ardent astrous to the reputation and credit sportsman, a lover of life in the woods or allowing a debutante to trip the declarations that our productive facilities or in the open, and has had a wide experience in hunting big game in all has had her chance. Nonresidents intimate that, if the gas company ob- parts of the country. He is a student might be barred from South Dakota jects, they will retaliate by giving a of animal life and is naturally incensed ball rooms and Newport might have franchise to another gas company. that any writer should take such libera special rule compelling a man to But who would take a franchise and ties with animal characters without dance with his own wife at least once invest money in a city which only knowing them or their habits. Yet it a season. Undoubtedly good may makes contracts to break them? If is hopeless to expect any reform. The come from proper use of the informathe purpose of a second gas franchise wild animals of the west and north tion thus furnished, even if the process were to stipulate one dollar as the will have to stand for the misrepremaximum charge, what would prevent sentations in fiction, just as the cownot clearly defined. boy, the miner and the "bad man" of the border must submit to the dis-DEMAND FOR BETTER WORKMEN. torted portrayal of their characters by the novelists and playwrights. It is a The inefficiency of American workpart of the game-and it pays. men is asserted by a prominent New York banker to be the most unsatisfactory feature of the business situa-EDUCATIONAL VALUE OF CAMPAIGNS. tion of the day. He declares that po-Secretary of State Elihu Root has litical agitation, anti-railroad legislathe sole claim to distinction as a detion, crop uncertainties and financial fender of the liberal use of money in stringency in Wall street are all inpolitical campaigns. True, he condisignificant as disturbing factors comtions his defense upon the restriction pared with the failure of labor, skilled that the money is not raised by illegal and unskilled, clerical and profesor corrupt means and that it be used sional, to meet the demands of the for "educational purposes," in the discomplex and trying conditions of the tribution of literature and speakers for business life of the day. This banker, the instruction of the masses in the who has been a student of economic intricacies and value of the issues beconditions for many years, declares fore the voters. For that purpose, acthat in all lines of employment those cording to Mr. Root, there "is no more whose services are in demand at betuseful expenditure of money from the ter prices than ever before paid show public point of view." In a recent adsigns of becoming more slack in their dress at Yale Mr. Root said: performance of duty, less attentive to The greatest, most useful, educational the interests of their employers and ever known in the world occurs every four years in the United States, when more skillful in devising methods of during a presidential election some 15,000,000 shirking daily tasks. voters are engaged for months in reading The arraignment is severe and yet and hearing about great and difficult quesgreat cost, let us set about to get it in tions of government, in studying them, in apparently but echoes a complaint too considering and discussing and forming generally heard from employers. That matured opinion about them. In the last labor was for many years underpaid presidential election the expenditure, according to official statements, amounted to in this country is generally conceded. about only 3% cents per capita for the That it is being well paid now is not people of the United States on one side disputed. That the employe, under and probably somewhat less on the other. The great bulk of it was applied to the the improved conditions, should not political education of voters. lose in efficiency as he gains in com-The public protest, which has caused pensation goes without saying, but contract for 20,000 headstones to a revision of campaign methods, has perhaps the opposite is a logical result mark the graves of confederate sol- never been so much against the use of of the new conditions as a penalty diers who died in northern prisons money in political campaigns as against paid for prosperity. The day laborer, during the civil war. It will surprise the abuses practiced in raising and ap- the salesman, the high-priced clerk, many persons in the north to learn plying such funds. But Mr. Root will every wage-earner understands that that the number was so large. All have difficulty in convincing the people his services are in demand and anare familiar with the stories from that he has not overestimated the im- other position, possibly at advanced Libby and Andersonville and Castle portance and necessity of an educa- pay, awaits him if his present em-Thunder and those other southern tional campaign in national election ployer manifests dissatisfaction. Unyears. Mr. Root, we fear, has over- der such circumstances the employe looked the changes wrought in the last naturally becomes more or less indifcriminal prosecution, he has certainly speakable, but the cold fact remains decade in ways and means for dis- ferent and impairs his efficiency. transformed the Union Pacific railroad that the death rate among the confed- seminating information on political and The situation but emphasizes the since he took its remnants out of the erate prisoners in the north was also all other subjects. The growth of the fact that in no time in the nation's hands of the receivers. That work very high, some southerners claiming newspapers, the development of the history has the young man, dependent to have statistics showing it was rural free mail delivery service, the upon his own resources and exertions. For professional services, $42,750. higher than the death rate of northern extension of the telephone into rural had so many and promising opportunidistricts, the development of the inter- ties for advancement. In every line Time has healed many of the urban trolley systems and similar en- of activity there is a constant and ing Wall street broker $58,000 worth wounds of the war and dispassionate terprises have rescued the rural voters urgent demand for young men who of securities so worthless that they investigation shows possible extenua- from the isolation that was theirs for aim to produce something more than make the common garden variety of ting circumstances, even in the cases many years. The farmer, even in the required by the reward paid for their watered stock look like Standard Oil of Libby and Andersonville, in the most remote districts, now enjoys daily labor. The enthusiastic young man shares. He should have had himself treatment of federal prisoners. It is or at least his semi-weekly or tri- who secures employment, makes his for regular business, the star-cycl goddess incorporated under the laws of New not denied that union soldiers were weekly mall. He is supplied with news- employer's interests his own and de-Jersey before he began operations of starved to death in those holes, but at papers and magazines and is in keen votes his undivided energy to the em- chased up a tree a man who sported red

THE OMAHA SUNDAY BEE: MAY 26, 1907.

Of course, there is a class of voters who read neither the newspapers nor the campaign committee publications, their "education" might well be with-organization, registration and actual election day expenses there is room large amount of money, but the conditions in this country today demand

DANCING TOWARD THE ALTAR.

promotion of matrimony. It appears that the 4,000 professors who are members of the academy questioned

1,500,000 pupils, in a diplomatic manner, and the London Times has been allowed to print the result of the inquiry. The returns show that in Germany 80 per cent of the marriages owe their inception to the dance, while in

The figures, would be more interest-data furnished by the dancing masters in checking some of the ills from which society suffers. It might help established newspapers.

chance, to dance.

dreamy waltz.

confederate soldiers in the field. free delivery has almost put the cam- it finds promotion and financial ad-

Colonel Bryan's Commoner thinks never discussed with anybody the possible candidacy of Thomas Fortune Ryan for the United States senate, for courage Mr. Ryan. There is a lurking spent by the republican national com- using the same letters, spells his name mittee in 1904, most of it for educa- with one more letter than does Mr. tional purposes. If his estimate is cor- Ryan. rect much of the money was wasted.

Every reference to Senator Stephenson, recently chosen to represent Wisconsin as the successor of Senator Spooner, explains that he is a follower Their "education," it is suspected, is carried on through other channels by of LaFollette. There, is no telling, sit as equal colleagues in the senate chamber.

> A former governor of Nebraska immediately on his retirement from office transplanted himself to a lumber mill in the state of Washington. When Governor Sheldon reaches that country along with the Omaha trade excursionists the people up there will see the difference.

> The democratic members of the Wisconsin legislature cast their ballots Press agents of the "International in the recent senatorial contest in that Academy of Choreographic Composers state for State Senator G. W. Bird.

statistics to prove that Pope knew such a high flight. Charley Edwards, secretary of the democratic congressional committee, True case in wooing comes from art, not charged with stabbing Senor Gardo of As those wed easiest who have learned the Peruvian legation in the lung with a knife, has proved that he had no This Parisian head of the world's knife. It is now up to Senor Gardo, dancing masters has been conducting who is also trying to make light of the a series of investigations to ascertain affair, to prove that he had no lung. how much of a factor dancing is in the > Senator Hopkins of Illinois says the republican platform next year will contain a plank favoring tariff revision. Senator Hopkins has his own way of knocking the Cannon presidential

Outward Cheerfulness.

Chicago Record-Herald. The healthy optimism of the American

England, France, Austria and the United States an average of about 60 people in exhibited by the fact that so many of them can be cheerful in spite of per cent of the marriage ceremonies the necessity of keeping their furnace fires were the culmination of affinities disgoing nine months in the year. covered during the mazes of the

A Suspicion Confirmed. Kansas City Journal.

The announcement of the commissioner ing if supplemented by results of anof corporations that the Standard Oil comother inquiry showing what percent- pany is a monopoly does hot come as a age of divorces find their inception in complete surprise. There have been occadancing. But even in the absence of sional vague rumors of that kind for some time. such data it may be possible to use the > Room for Some More. Indianapolis News.

That Japan has been allowed to purchase $12,000,000 worth of steel rails, cars and locomotives in this country seems pretty anxious about putting up a good front. dents of Pittsburg from dancing at all tough when we remember the repeated True religion deals with men as in the

June Brides

Will find much to select from at my shop. Complete lines of Silverware, Watches, Cut Glass, Rich Diamond Jewelry, Etc., Etc.

Your inspection is solicited

Mandelberg's ...GIFT SHOP ... 1522 Farnam Street

SERMONS BOILED DOWN.

There is no sanctity without service. The thoughtless never are harmless. Large sorrows come from little sins. The heart is bankrupt when it has no ove to spare.

Lazy folks lose a lot of energy telling how busy they are. It takes a brave man to be willing to be called a coward. The weariest people are those who are running from duty.

You never taste the wine of life until some of its fruits are crushed. It's a great pity that the people who invent troubles do not patent them. In the temple of a great and good life almost all the bricks are small.

Conscience never makes cowards of us until we turn out backs on it. Many a man goes back by being too day morning.

DOMESTIC PLEASANTRIES.

"Charlle said he would die for me." "You don't mean Charlie Gossyp, the with bore?" "Yes."

"For goodness' sake let him die."--Cleveand Plain Dealer "Is Willie still paying attention to Tillie?"

"Did he jilt her?" "No; he married her."-Puck.

"Papa, how did you get acquainted with

I married her, my son; I married her."-Houston Post.

"There are a lot of things which women can't do as well as men. A woman could never be a prize fighter." "Why couldn't she?"

"Because she would never stick to the rules.

"But then she would always come up to the scratch."-Baltimore American. Influential Member-I am glad to notice doctor, that your wife never turns her head to see who comes into church late on Sun-

The Ray. Dr. Goodman-No-but she makes me tell her all about them after Anyway, the purchaser may have the consolation of seeing straw hats and hammocks make their first appearance at "summer clearance sale" prices.

The lecture business has proved so profitable for the editor of Bryan's Commoner that the associate editor is also working his way onto the lecture platform.

The census shows that there are about 14,000,000 women bread-win- price schedule and passing an ordiners in America. Statistics of the number of women bread-makers are not furnished.

The Kansas Druggists' association pany, fixing a maximum scale of telereports that its members make a profit of less than 2 per cent on their sales. If the spirit of repudiation runs riot This colored wrapping twine must be we may see an effort within a short very expensive.

The museum managers might as contract agreement. Omaha has also well give up looking for their desired attraction in the person of a speculator who has not made less than an even $100,000 in wheat this spring.

The peek-a-boo shirt waist has been an Ohio town. Yet ministers will go on preaching guess work sermons on "Why Men Do Not Attend Church."

A large proportion of the pioneers of Nebraska were veterans of the civil war. Memorial day in this state will always commemorate their great achievements in peace as well as in war.

Congressman Birdsall of Iowa declares that President Roosevelt is really the only great man ever born GRAVES OF CONFEDERATE PRISONERS. in New York City. It might be added that he was born there because he could not help himself.

Fashionable tailors need not build any air castles on the strength of the report that Hetty Green is developing a passion for dress. Hetty also has a well-developed faculty for suppressing any desire whose indulgence would cost money.

cannot be undone.

New York for unloading upon a trustthat kind.

of our city. The sponsors of the proposed repudiation of the gas franchise the same repudiators in a year or two denying the binding force of their own nance making it a misdemeanor to charge more that 50 cents?

Omaha has just voted a franchise to an Independent Telephone comphone charges for twenty-five years. time to reduce telephone charges still lower by ordinance in disregard of this from time to time made contracts to borrow money by issuing bonds bearing interest of from 4 to 5 per cent a year. The same spirit of repudiation might with equal propriety prompt a notice to the bondholders that the indebarred from one of the churches in terest rate agreed on is too high and that henceforth no more than 3 per cent will be paid. That such refusal to pay would be quickly followed by a judgment for the full amount as per contract goes without saying. If there is any way to get dollar gas for Omaha honorably and at not too a straighforward way. Fanning the spirit of repudiation, however, can only do the city more harm than good.

Under authority of an act of congress the War department is about to Whether or not Mr. Harriman has prisons in which so many union soldone anything that will subject him to diers died or survived hardships un-

A young man has been arrested in men in the southern prison pens. that they fared little worse than the touch with public affairs. The rural ployer's business as though he owned socks.

light fastastic until her older sister are not large enough to prevent a freight of men. congestion every now and then.

boom.

Political Rooters Hit Hard. Cincinnati Enquirer

This journal is perhaps the first to introduce to the public the philosopher and prognesticator who is sure that the attendance at the national conventions next year will be very much smaller than the crowds of to be employed in accomplishing it is pass is no longer a reality, or indeed even > illionth of 1 per cent about anything." How pitiful seems the egotism of the rest of us, boasting of the knowledge we

> Science and invention are in their infancy. Mystery still surrounds us on every side. There is plenty for the mind of man to learn. When one thinks of the possibilities of discovery during this century, he can but wish that he could live to see its

In Letter and Spirit.

herence to his interpretation of the pure only serve to strengthen the intense desire food law puts an end to the large traffic of those who are striving to get Mrs. in rectified whisky for the general product | Eddy's assets away from their present of the distillery. If the blended whisky conservators and "conserve" them thembetter than the pure article, as the selves. In very truth the whole thing rectifiers pretend, there is no reason why becomes more and more a sordid struggle it should not go to market under its for the possession of an old woman's proper description, and this is all that the money by rival gangs who would cheerdecision of Attorney General Bonaparte fully allow her to go to the poor house amounts to. In short, let the pure food if she were penniless. The less said about law be enforced in accordance with its "conserving" the better.

PERSONAL AND OTHERWISE. A partial knockout for 80-cent gas in New York worked an outburst of laughing gas in Consolidated circles. A St. Louis girl disguised as a boy gave herself away when she attempted to strike a match in the old reliable way.

Snaky electric signs working overtime around the midnight hour serve a good purpose. Convivial rounders are scared off the block or induced to swear off.

Printed pictures of John R. Hegeman, the New York insurance magnate, show him with a Buffalo Bill crop of hair, which ten indictments are likely to curl nicely. The phenomena of a hen laying eggs with news items embossed on the shells is grade Planos. reported in Ohio. Evidently the Buckeye hens are laying low for scratched tickets. A society of dancing teachers has put out statistics showing that most marriages Plano a lower price than you could are due to dancing. Terpsichorean pedalgogues are conceded artists in manipulating figures.

The Seat trust stood up more or tack in the right spot and followed it with a surgical operation on the trust treasury.

The peach crop in Michigan and Delawara may be all in, but the country's crop of the real article will be larger and more fetching than ever. He who doubts should attend the school commencements.

Things are going from bad to worse in 'our old Kentucky home." Some eighty counties have installed the water wagon pleads eloquently, but vainly, for old tunes and old policies, and a capricious bull sight of God and with God as in the sight There is only one way to happiness, and that is found by looking for chances to help other folk .- Chicago Tribune.

SECULAR SHOTS AT THE PULPIT.

St. Louis Republic: A St. Louis priest Dealer. is to call his divine flock to service with Young Wife (bidding him goodby at the train)-You know I am going to be away orly two weeks, dear, and that will soon roll around. Young Husband-You het it will! Two weeks will bring the first of next month and you know how many things we've got the aid of a talking machine. Is this other days. He hints that the railroad modern inventive age going to do away with church bells?

Baltimore American: The Presbyterian general assembly has blown the bugle of and you know how many things we've got in the house that were bought on the Inrevolt against Sunday newspapers. Bugle stallment plan.-Chicago Tribune. blowing is now relatively easy even for Presbyterians who once did possible things instead of attempting the impossible.

New York Tribune: The traveling revivalist in Georgia who lashed his 12-yearold son nearly to death because the little fellow played base ball last Sunday probably thinks that he has inculcated in his offspring the Christian idea of kindness and forbearance. Six months of hard labor on the rock pile may clear up the befogged brain of the fanatic who has been living off his own plous shoutings and the collections of his congregations. Chicago Chronicle: Those who are "conserving" Mrs. Eddy's fortune declare that, so far from being squandered, it now aggregates more than $1,000,000. This will own.

own.

You Can Get More Satisfaction in Our Piano Store Out of Less Money Than Anywhere Else

That's a big statement, but we can | can induce the makers to prepay the show you that every word of it is true. freight charges. And there again the In no other store in the United States

In no other store is the One Price therefore goes without saying that the system maintained. Ours is not a best factories in the country are happy sliding scale system, we mark on each and eager to have us represent them.

We are factory distributers for obtain in any establishment for the twenty-five of the most desirable same class of goods and we do not Pianos known to the American market, We have in stock today more than 300 In other store is the pernicious Pianos. It will pay you to call and painfully when a Chicago court placed the system prohibited of inducing a "third examine Kranich & Bach, Krakauer, party" for a "consideration" to inveigle Kreil, Kimball, Hallet & Davis, Bush costumers into the favored place. Ours & Lane, Cable-Nelson, Conway, Whitney, Bell, Kensington, Imperial, Every Plano we buy from the fac- Cramer, Schullhoff, Kingsbury, Inner, tories is paid for in spot cash. And Player, etc. etc .-- a wonderful display, because of this the discount we obtain a real privilege for the people living enables us to offer lower prices than in this vicinity because of the ecoare usually asked. Besides we often nomical price-that our plan has de-buy Planos in such large lots that we veloped.

budge a dollar from that amount.

is a NO COMMISSION PLAN.

WE SAVE YOU $50 TO $100 ON A PIANO A. HOSPE CO. 1513 Douglas St. WE DO EXPERT PIANO TUNING AND REPAIRING.

customer is benefited. can you find a better, a larger, a more varied stock of absolutely high

Not only is ours the oldest but the largest Plano store in the city, and it

No Joy where'er you go, And in all the merry world you are alone? Then seek some helpless soul, And find comfort to console Somebody else's sorrows than your own. Are you looking for a good

Fate has still from you withstood. Fate has still from you withstood. Throwing to starved heart or mind a poor. bare bone? Ge, enrich your poverty By relieving misery; Get returns from filling needs not all your Ab, if this great law Divine In the acts of men would shine, ow human love would hush all human moan! We soon would learn how light We could make with fate our fight, we only beload hear husdens not our

We could make with fate our fight, If we only helped bear burdens not our we go home .- Chicago Tribune.

A RECIPE.

Baltimore American.

When you suffer so, life seems but one long

Does your fate seem one of woe, care How a painful lot to bear,

Then case and comfort gain groan?

In

Ev the les

Would you give much thought and y the lessening of pain wone's ills and sufferings not your

"What do you take when you're coming lown with a cold."

down with "Whisky." "Wife object?" "Gertainly not. "Certainly not. She doesn't want me to be sick." "One more question. What's the easiest av to start a cold?"-Cleveland Plain ### a delusion. The World is Young. Wall Street Journal. When a genius like Edison says: "I calculate that we know one seven-have gained. The world is young-6,000 years young.

close.

Philadelphia Record. Attorney General Bonaparte's firm ad-letter and (distilled) spirit.