DUNDEE

There are many reasons why Dundee is a most desirable place in which to live. Omaha is growing westward. Land values in the West Farnam district are high. In Dundee from three to six of the best lots, each 50x125 feet in size. can be had for the cost of one of the best West Farnam district lots. In Dundee the lots, blocks and streets have and the price at which we offer lots includes trees, cement eldewalks, city water, electric light, etc. Dundee, as a whole, is high and affords a fine view of the surroundtions are in no way prohibitive, but of such a nature that protected. Dundee is a village, consequently has no city taxes to nay. This suburb is less than twenty minutes' ride on the West Farnam Dundee car suburb for home building, but offers opportunities for safe and profitable investment. Structures, He Considers Third. A $25,000 building is a possibility for the southwest corner of Seventeenth and Dodge streets, where the Campbell homestead stands. F. D. Wead, who heads the syndicate owning the property, says he will take a vacation soon and when he returns the syndicate will seriously consider the matter of building. Mr. Wead has met such success in leasing the buildings he has erected at Twentieth and Farnam and at Eighteenth and Furnam that he is encouraged to enter upon another venture. If the syndicate decides to make improvements it may erect a $25,000 structure where the frame house now stands, or it may add two stories to the brick buildings on the back of the lot.

TIDD WILL NOT STOP DEAL Lobeck Says Envelope Factory Will Proceed Whether He Comes or Not.

So far Omaha business associates of A W. Tidd have heard nothing from him regarding his trouble at Cincinnati, but they are expecting word at any time. C. O.
