This dispatch will further intimate that under certain conditions Sir Thomas is prepared to send another challenge. The decision was reached after a long conference with William Fife, the designer, who, as stated by Sir Thomas yesterday, possibly refuses to design a yacht to race for the cup under the old rules of tire New York Yacht club. Fife, however, is willing to design a ninety-footer for that purpose, under the "universal rule," which has been in use in America for three or four years.

Now, the Tigers, Sox and Naps journey eastward with fear and trembling. The Tigers are hitting the ball hard all the time. The opposing pitchers are daily setting their bumps good and plenty. If Wahoo Sam or Ty Cobb don't make it hard or them along comes O'Leary or Rossman and makes two or three hits per game. The Bee is called many times during the ovening on the long distance 'phone to tell the result of the ball games. The interest in the American league race seems to be unparalleled, especially out at Wahoo. The George Davis says; "One advantage in Detroit's favor is Donovan. Without a shadow of doubt he is the greatest pitcher in the business today. Another consistent winner like him on the club and Manager Jennings would not have to worry much about the pennant. 'Bill' was never better in his life."

There is quite a tip floating around Chicago that Bobby Lowe, the Tiger utility player, may next year take Fred Tenney's place as manager of the Boston Nationals.
