GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Breater Activity and Better Prices with Encouraging Cables.

COUNTRY ADVICES ARE BULLISH

Reports Show Decided Shrinkage in Surplus Stocks of All Kinds-Wheat Makes Strong Cleatng.

OMAHA, Jan. 14, 1908.

The grain market shows greater activity today and values are pushed higher, with a more general buying trade and encouraging cables.

Country advices are bullish and show a decided shrinkage in surplus stocks of all strains.

decided shrinkage in surplus stocks of all grains.

Wheat started a little over yesterday's close on stronger cables and country advices. Some good buying, induced by the steady opening and the coming back by the sellers on Monday, gave the market a good tone and values were higher at the close. May wheat opened at $1.00%, and closed at $1.00%.

Corn opened steady to strong on good demand and wits affected by the strength shown in wheat. There was good demand for the cash corn and trading was more active and an increased trade in futures. May corn opened at $4% and closed at $55%.

May corn opened at $4%c and closed at $5%c.

Oats opened strong and advanced easier than either corn or wheat on good buying spurt. Bidding was strong on active trading and forced prices up. May cats opened at $3%c and closed at $5%c.

Primary wheat receipts were 1,25,000 bushies and shipment were 26,000 bushels, against receipts last year of 48,000 bushels, and shipments of 214,000 bushels.

Corn receipts were 1,125,000 bushels and shipments were 555,000 bushels and shipments were 555,000 bushels and shipments of 22,000 bushels, against receipts last year of 820,000 bushels and shipments of 322,000 bushels.

Clearances were 80,000 bushels of corn, 5,000 bushels of cots and wheat and flour squal to 814,000 bushels.

Die higher. Provisions were lagified to die higher. The wheat market displayed some weakness during the first hour because of a decline of nearly ic at Liverpool and because of increased receipts in the northwest. Toward the middle of the session the market became strong, chiefly as a result of a sharp advance in corn. Sentiment continued bullish the remainder of the day, although some recessions were made owing to sales brought out by an increase of 200,000 bushels in the world's visible supply, compared with a decrease of 201,000 bushels in the world's visible supply, compared with a decrease of 201,000 bushels in the world's visible supply, compared with a decrease of 201,000 bushels in the world's visible supply, compared with a decrease of 201,000 bushels in the world's visible supply, compared with a decrease of 201,000 bushels in the world's visible supply, compared with a decrease of 201,000 bushels in the world's visible supply, compared with a decrease of 201,000 bushels in the world's visible supply, compared with a decrease of 201,000 bushels in the world's visible supply, compared with a decrease of 201,000 bushels in the world's visible supply, compared with a decrease of 201,000 bushels in the world's visible supply, compared with a decrease of 201,000 bushels in the world's visible supply, compared with a decrease of 201,000 bushels in the world's visible supply, compared with a decrease of 201,000 bushels in the world's visible supply, compared with a decrease of 201,000 bushels in the world's visible supply, compared with a decrease of 201,000 bushels in the world's visible supply, compared with a decrease of 201,000 bushels in the world's visible supply, compared with a decrease of 201,000 bushels in the world's visible supply, compared with a decrease of 201,000 bushels in the world's visible supply, compared with a decrease of 201,000 bushels in the world's visible supply compared with a decrease of 201,000 bushels in the world's visible supply compared with a decrease of 201,000 bushels in small quantity of wheat still remaining in farmers' hands, the average reserve being estimated at from 10 to 30 per cent of the amount held a year ago. The close was steady. May opened 26%c lower to a shade higher, at $1.04% 11.04%, advanced to $1.05% and closed at $1.04%. Clearance of wheat and flour were equal to $18,500 bu. Primary receipts were 1,205,000 bu., compared with $16,000 bu last year. The visible supply decreased 600,000 bu. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 44 cars, against 350 cars last week and 271 cars one year ago.

lis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 447 cars, against 380 cars last week and 271 cars one year ago.

Lower cables and liberal receipts caused light weakness in the corn market for a brief period early in the session, but sentiment became bullish before the end of the first half hour and continued to favor the bulls the remainder of the day. The principal factor responsible for the atrength was the likelihood that the movement would soon show a considerable decrease indicated by reports of small acceptances in the country. A forecast of warmer weather also inspired some demand. Cash houses were the chief buyers. The market closed strong. May opened 160% to local accepts were 779 cars, with eight of contract grade.

Outs were firm because of small local receipts. Trade was very dulet, offerings being meagre. An advance of 160% in the price of cash grain tended to strengthen the options. 55%c. advanced to 55%c0644c and closed at the 55% local receipts were 173 cars. Provisions were strong all day owing to active buying by shorts. The demand was due to much smaller receipts of live hogs resulting in an advance of 10020c in prices of local market. At the close May pork was un 20c, at $13.624. Lard and ribs were tach 150174c higher, at $8.12468.15 and $7.7367.20 respectively.

WEATHER IN THE GRAIN, BELT

WEATHER IN THE GRAIN BELT Fair and Warmer is the Soft Song of the Poet-Prophet. OMAHA, Jan. 14, 1907. OMAHA, Jan. 14, 1907.

The eastern disturbance has moved off the upper Atlantic coast. An area of high pressure has spread over the central valleys and south to the Guif. This high pressure is rapidly moving eastward, and is the cause of a decided fall in temperature everywhere east of the Missouri river and throughout the southern states. Fair weather now prevails east of the Rocky Mountains, but rains and snows are general on the mountain plateaus, with rains on the Pacific slope. Temperatures are higher west of the Missouri river, and the weather will be warmer in this vicinity tonight, with probably continued fair tonight and Wednesday. Growing Abundance of Funds Facilitates Speculation.

MARKET GENERALLY HIGHER At Times Movement is Irregular, but

General Trend is Upward and Close of Market is Strong.

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—The growing abundance of funds in the money market afforded facilities for the conduct of speculative operations and was taken advantage of freely by NEW YORK. Jan. 14.—The growing abundance of funds in the money market afforded facilities for the conduct of speculative operations and was taken advantage of freely by a considerable number of the professional class. The result of these operations was the maintenance of prices at a level slightly above last night.

The business was mostly unevenly distributed and the price movement was a checkered one and notable for some of the omissions from the list of stocks affected as much as for those that showed conspicuous strength. Reading and the Hill stocks were fed out in about equal proportions today and at all times, so that the movement of these stocks was restricted, notwithstanding a continuance of a share of activity in them. These were stocks which have been the features of the speculating and the resulting realization of profits in them with the opportunity offered by the sustaining effects of the new points of strength was obvious. The points of strength were developed in relation, one stock or group being advanced for a time and then falling back to give place to a new point of attention. This is the favorite method of operations of the professional class. Much stress was laid on the sale of new Central equipment trust notes, for which J. P. Morgan & Co. have invited bids for $30,000,000, running from one to fourteen years. Reports point to a rapid allotment of these securities to bankers and dealers, but the demand from investors was not so much dwell on, although the notes are being offered to yield $\frak{2}\tau$ to $\frak{2}\tau$ points of strength was electroment. New York Central itself led the day's advance in the stock market. Reports of tardiness in making payment to equipment companies by some of the reading railroad companies of the country have been a depressing factor in Wall street ever since the Westinghouse Electric company receivership and a ready sale for equipment companies by some of the realis of projected economies of the realison of projected economies of the realison of the brisk

LONDON, Jan. 14.—Money was duil and the demand was quiet today. Discounts were easy. On the Stock exchange dealers were occupied with the settlement in which the carry-over rates were easier, those of Americans being from 4 to 6 per cent. But business rather increased and the tone was generally firm and prices were quoted fractionally in the British market. Americans, after the adjustment to parity rates, ruled steady with a hardening tendency. Union Pacific, Atchison. Topeka & Santa Fe and United States Steel preferred shares revelved considerable attention despite the pessimistic forecasts of poor December carnings. Advices from New York depressed the mar-

HOGS-barring a few early sales hogs today were loc higher than yesterday morning and lic higher than yesterday's morning and the higher than yesterday's close. In other words the market was a big ite higher or 10gife higher than yesterday's general market. The bulk of the hogs today sold at and right around $4.50. It will be remembered that the great big bulk of the hogs yesterday brought $4.056, 4.10. Today's top was $1.30, which is 15c higher than anything brought yesterday. The trade was reasonably active at the advance noted as most of the hogs changed hands in very fair sesson in the maring. Some late arrivals dids not fare as well, the market easing off after the more urgent orders were filled, so that late arrivals orders were filled, so that late arrivals orders were filled, so that were more or less neglected.

NOTES ON OMAHA SOCIETY

SHEEP-There was another liberal run of sheep and lambs this morning, but some of the trains were late in arriving which delayed the trade somewhat, so it was later than yesterday before a clearance was affected. Desirable kinds of killers were still in very good demand and the market opened reasonably early as well as active, with the best kinds commanding sheady prices. Thus good lambs sold up to $7, the same as yesterday, some right good light yearlings brought $6, with old wethers as high as $5.50 and western ewes up to $5.10. The common to medium grades and everything that was unfinished was a little slow to move at prices. If anything, a little easier than yesterday. As the best of the thing that was unfinished was a little slow to move at prices, if anything, a little casler than yesterday. As the best of the offerings naturally sold first, leaving the comounter kinds to the last, it followed that the market closed easier.

LAST MEETING AT VICKSBURG

D. M. Haverly and Old Comrade Reunite After Forty-Five Years of Separation.

Parted in 1863, just after the fall of Vicksburg, County Clerk D. M. Haverly and Ser- and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Nash. geant C. H. Silvernail met for the first time since then Tuesday morning, when Silvernail walked into Haverly's office in the court house and called him by name. The two had lost all trace of each other, but Mr. Silvernail recently saw an article written by Mr. Haverly for the National Tribune and the article gave him his old comrade's address.

Mr. Silvernail is 81 years of age, but, armed with a number of letters from his in friends in Phillips, Wis., where he lives, he is on his way to Denver to visit a sister. The letters were given him in case any accident should befall him. He and Mr. and clothing. A part of the time they were in the famous Libbey prison at Richmond.

"When the order to retreat came a Shiloh," said Mr. Elivernail, "I was lying behind a log. The bullets were kicking up the dust just back of my heels and were plowing into the log. I was the last man to retreat, because I was afraid to leave the log. My gun was loaded and I saw the confederates coming. I just took one shot at a man on horseback and then ran. I bumped into a camp where I saw stacks of someone told me to throw down my arms. Then I knew I was captured."

While held as a prisoner at Macon, Ga. he broke his leg. He and Mr. Haverly and given up for dead, but finally recovered. Fred E. Hall, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Mc-
