RHEUMATISM

The Cause and Cure.

Uric acid is introduced into the system by food and drink. Normally, the excessive amount of the acid is excreted through the regular channels, but the amount that is retained and absorbed in the tissues is the cause of rheumatic troubles.

The Rheolite treatment possesses that peculiar quality to form a soluble compound with the Uric Acid and in this form it is carried from the system. Rheolite is easy and pleasant to take and is highly successful in all forms of Rheumatism, Gout, Lumbago, Lame Back, Kidney, Headache and such diseases arising from excessive Uric Acid.

TALK OF SERVANTS FILLS IN TIME

House Men Instead of House Maids Now Under Discussion Among the Folks Who Employ Domestic Help.

Evening Up. Though worldly, Lent is in a way to her a living issue. She's cutting out two meals a day To sacrifice some tissue.—The Maid

MONDAY—Daughters of American Revolution meeting at the residence of Mrs. A. P. Taylor. Miss Blanche Sorenson, Treble Clef club; Miss Jean Bonnell, La Douzaine club; meeting of Temple Israel sisterhood; Mrs. Van Gilder informal party for Dr. Mrs. Henry Le Merc.

During these quiet days one wonders what some of the society women are doing. One young matron who lives out West Farnam way is seeking a perfect maid now while she has the time to try them out. Last week she tried five and she is still seeking. Two matrons on the hill, who have very large houses, thought they had the "eternal question" solved by having Belgian house men instead of housemaids, but the matter was not at all alike. One is still giving perfect satisfaction, while the other imbibed rather freely, and upon being dismissed decided that "misery likes company" and invited the coachmen of the neighborhood to a party.

Miss Florence Lewis, whose marriage to Mr. Sherman Canfield takes place Monday evening April 13, will be honor guest at several prenuptial affairs. Some of those planned for this week are a supper Sunday evening given by Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Fairfield, a luncheon Tuesday evening by Mrs. E. D. Van Court, and a dinner the latter part of the week, which will be given by Mr. O. C. Redick after the arrival of Mr. Arthur Lewis.

The many friends of Mrs. Lola Rustin and Captain William Doane regret very much that they have had to change their plans. Captain Doane, who is stationed with the Twenty-second regiment at Fort McDevall, Angel Island, San Francisco, Cal., will have such a short leave of absence that the wedding which was to have taken place in Omaha in June will have to take place in California, where both Mrs. Rustin and Captain Doane have a great many friends.

"The Echo Social Club" is the name of a new organization, which was organized at a meeting in the Holmes hall, Twenty-fourth and Burdette streets, Friday evening, for the purpose of the club being as the name implies, for social intercourse. The club will have dances and other parties and starts out with a large membership. H. W. McVeja was elected president and Mrs. O. F. Hoffman was chosen secretary and treasurer of the Friday evening meeting, the next meeting to be on Friday evening of next week. Those present at the organization of the Echo club were Mrs. H. E. Kiebbis, Mr. and Mrs. E. Ryka, Mr. and Mrs. H. Homan, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. McVeja, Misses Dora Smith and Helen Gould, and Messrs. N. A. Hoffman, George Vallan, E. L. Hoffman, D. Senter and H. Kendrick.

Social Chit-Chat.

Miss Leah Mandelberg is seriously ill at her home, 204 North Twenty-second street. Mrs. W. H. McCord has returned from New York, where she has been for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Dixon, who moved into their new home on Thirty-ninth street, are now settled. Born to Mr. and Mrs. William Lincoln Byrne, formerly of Omaha and now of St. Louis, March 2, a son. Miss Faith Foster sailed Saturday from Liverpool for New York on the Lusitania. She has been touring France and England for several weeks with friends. They will spend a week or ten days in New York, after which Miss Foster will return to Omaha. Miss Amy Gilmore, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Gilmore, will spend her Easter vacation in New York City with a number of the other students from the National Park seminary of Washington, D. C. They will be accompanied by Miss Blount, one of the instructors of the school. Mrs. C. F. McGraw will leave for Washington Sunday, April 12, to meet her daughter, Miss Alice Carey McGraw, who is attending school at Mrs. Somers'. They will go to New York to spend the Easter vacation. Mrs. Murray will return with her daughter to Washington and remain there during the month of May.

Miss Elizabeth Murray, who will be at the Orpheum this week, will be the guest during her engagement in Omaha of her cousin, Mr. J. D. Weaver and Mrs. Weaver. On her previous visits here Miss Murray has been much feted, but the daily matinees in the Tipton Tribune that Miss Whitmore has won new friends through her musical ability. Miss Whitmore played at a club musicale which was given at the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. F. Dickey of Tipton.

Miss Eugenie Whitmore, who is the guest of her fiance's mother, Mrs. John Shirk in Tipton, Ind., has been honor guest at a great many social affairs given by relatives and friends of Mr. Shirk. We learn from the Tipton Tribune that Miss Whitmore has won new friends through her musical ability. Miss Whitmore played at a club musicale which was given at the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. F. Dickey of Tipton.

Pleasures Past. Mrs. Hugo Brandeis entertained very informally at bridge Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Charles O'Neill Rich invited a dozen friends informally Saturday afternoon to have tea and meet Miss Dodge and Mrs. N. P. Dodge. The Lohengrin club was entertained Friday evening by Miss Nancy Hare. The next meeting will be Friday, April 10, with Mrs. O. G. Middleton. Miss Hurst was assisted by Miss Ethel Henderson. Those present were: Mrs. Shockey, Mrs. Bell, Mrs. Hoett, Miss Curtis, Miss Pixon, Miss Corey, Miss Stemm, Miss C. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. J. Harpater, Mrs. F. Busch, Mr. C. Harpater, Misses A. Harpater, P. Brader, F. Harpater, E. Nelson, Messrs. J. Funk, D. Harpater, E. Hassel, R. Harpater and J. Dougherty.

About forty members of the older high school set were guests of Miss Alice Woodworth at a card party given at the Woodworth home on St. Mark street Friday evening. Mrs. E. Harz was the game of the evening, and the prizes were awarded to Miss Louise Northrup, Mr. Walter Griffith, Miss Gladys Gifford and Mr. Harris Vance. The score cards were very novel and attractive, being white hearts with a view of the high school building printed on them in old, faded colors. The colors were also used in the decorations, and the same idea was carried out in the refreshments. The Alternate card club was entertained Friday afternoon by Mrs. F. J. Jurgensen. Three tables were placed for the game of high five, and the high scores were made by Mrs. J. P. Poyer and Mrs. F. J. Jurgensen. Mrs. J. P. Halsey was the guest of the club. The members present were: Mrs. G. N. Douglas, Mrs. I. A. Stevens, Mrs. W. T. Hoover, Mrs. C. V. Smith, Mrs. Charles Stevens, Mrs. Bruce, Mrs. C. N. Walker, Mrs. A. K. Dettwiler, Mrs. F. L. Armstrong, Mrs. Fred Ehrlich and Mrs. J. P. Poyer. The next meeting will be April 15 at the home of Mrs. W. T. Hoover, 299 Dewey avenue.

A farewell party was given on Thursday evening by Mrs. Thomas Croft at her residence, 282 Charles street, in honor of the Misses Mildred and Marjorie Johnson, who are leaving Omaha to reside at Minneapolis. Mrs. J. W. Austin assisted the hostess in entertaining. Several amusing and pretty games were played, in which all participated. Dainty refreshments were served about 10:30 and the party then dispersed. Easter Opening Delightful, fascinating Paris, that long cherished source of inspiration in dress, has created wonderful beautiful models—each charming but different in that intangible so characteristic of the Parisian manner born, but she is no more alone in her style supremacy. New York City with her present air of our eastern style, has also created artistic and beautiful modes—all are here for your choosing, exclusive models that were created here or abroad. It is truly a magnificent display, representing the best thoughts of the renowned artists of the world.

This is a showing of high art apparel which will be at once accepted as being indicative of the correct trend of fashion and showing the stamp of the high Okrin standpoint. These new styles will be quickly adapted as proper and will illustrate in the very broadest degree the new great resource of Orkin Brothers' organization. Every woman should see our splendid display of new Easter styles and an hour or so spent here will give one a correct interpretation of what will be worn this season.
