Remark of President that He Will Continue Commission Criticised. WASHINGTON, May 16.- The bill providng for the continuance of the Inland Waterways commission introduced Thursday by Representative Burton of Ohio, was passed by the house today under suspension of the rules. A remark attributed to President Roosevelt that he would continue the commission whether congress authorized it or not, was the subject of much adverse criticism from he democratic side, particularly by Messra. Clayton (Ala.) and Williams (Miss.).

Mr. Burton (G.), a member of the com litee, came to the defense of the president and said that the members of the commission stood ready to again volunteer their services. "We hope," he said, "to accomplish a degree of order where now a degree of chaos exists."

CHEYENNE, Wyo., May 16 .- (Special.)-Captain Weish, quartermaster at Fort D. A. Russell, has engaged fifty men for work at Fort Russell in parking the grounds, planting trees, etc. It is proposed to make posts in the United States. An irrigating ditch, taken from Crow creek, runs through the post grounds, and from this the entire post will be irrigated. The grounds will be plowed up, leveled and seeded, and the large parade ground will be made as level as a floor and seeded with clover and blue grass. To the north and west of the post five rows of willow, spruce and pine trees will be planted this season, and in a few years these trees will form an excellent windbreak, not only for Fort Russell, but also for Cheyenne, for the prevailing direction of the wind is from the west, and the an additional 10,000 trees will be planted in rows parallel with those set out this year, sall will be surrounded by a small forest. 1886
