$1.00 Cash—Balance Three Years THE LAND OF LAST GREAT OPPORTUNITIES

The official publication of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway states: "It is ossible that no other area in North America can equal this portion of British Columbia in her natural resources. It is in truth a northern Eldorado, which future events are bound to verify. The climatic conditions have in the past been supposed to be severe during the Winter season, but the fallacy of this impression is rapidly being made known on account of the reverse conditions actually existing, due in large part to the proximity of this territory to the Pacific Ocean and the influence of even narrower. The smartest design for morning wear or with any tailored suit is white, with a narrow hemstitched edge enclosing a band of solid color in a deep shade. For instance, dark brown, dark old rose, deep watermelon pink, dark wistaria, apple green, etc.. And, as the bands are from one to two inches wide, such handkerchiefs will be a conspicuous detail of the toilet. For that reason alone it will be wise to choose these accessories either to match or harmonize with the gown with which

No less assertive in regard to coloring are the handkerchiefs for afternoon, for although the tones are lighter than those four colorings are printed on the one small white handkerchief. In some designs the corners will be blocks of solid color, in such tones as yellow, old rose, pale pink and pretty shades of bue. These form a background for contrasting colors in such designs as polka dets, broken bars and flowers conventionalized.

Others are hemmed with a color and display a border inside in the designs mentioned. The variety of colors and designs seem to be endless, so there will be no

For general use, white cross bar hands kerchiefs are preferred to the plain. The wear better, I believe, owing to the strong threads that form the bar. These sell at all prices from 20 cents the half dozen up-

The tiny weath enclosing an initial is a favored decoration, and pretty handkerchiefs on this order in varied designs can be bought for 25 cents.

In the expensive handkerchiefs are filmy pieces of hand spun linen trimmed with real Valenciennes lace. The cheapest is $3.65, and at this price the lace is only half an inch wide. A more elaborate hand-kerchief can be purchased for him and one can pay much more if she choose
