> TECUMSEH, Neb., June 12 .- (Special.)ing of better roads leading into Tecumseh was inaugurated last evening at a representative meeting of business men, held at the Commercial club rooms at the close of the meeting of the Fourth of July comnittees. About thirty were in attendance Mayor H. J. Enders having canvassed the business section of the city in the interests of the meeting during the day. The result was the organization of the "Tecumseh Good Roads Association," with the following officers: President, Dr. J. Bowman; vice president, O. J. McDougal; secretary, C. J. Canon; treasurer Frank Dafoe.

The gentlemen present aired their views upon the condition of the roads and as to the manner of improvement. It was stated that the board of county commissioners the Tecumseh men in making the roads better. The excellent work that is being carried on at Cook was cited and the method of procedure here will be about as it is there. The local association will devote its energies to dragging the roads, taking the main traveled ones which lead into the city first and eventually branching out to side roads. A motion prevalled that the chair appoint a committee of five to represent the association, this ommittee to go before the county board at the next regular meeting, Tuesday, and to outline the work as planned and ask the co-operation of the board. It will also be the work of the committee to take charge of the affairs of the association, look out for its finances, etc. President lowman appointed William Ernst, C. M. Shaw, Dick McLanahan, E. A. Young and J. L. Sherman as the members of the committee, and upon motion it was decided to make the president and secretary members as well.

Those present signed the membership roll and expressed their willingness to pay $5.00 each to start the movement.

Confidence in Congress Lost. Because the special interests are in politics we as a nation have lost confidence in congress. This is a serious statement to make, but it is true. It does not apply, of course, to the men who really represent their constituents and who are making so fine a fight for the conservation of self-government as soon as these men have won their battle and consultated that year. government as soon as these men have won their battle and consolidated their victory confidence in congress will return. The overshadowing question before the American people today is this: Shall the nation govern itself or shall the interests run this country? The one great political demand, underlying all others, giving meaning to all others, is this: The special interests must get out of politics. The old-style leaders, seeking to switch public attention away from this one absorbing and overwhelming issue are pitifully ridiculous and out of date. To try to divert the march of an aroused public conscience from this of an aroused public conscience from this righteous, inevitable conflict by means of obsolete political catchwords is like trying to dam the Mississippi with dead leaves.

Conservation of Nature's Resources Applies as well to our physical state as to material things. C. J. Budlong. Washington, R. I., realized his condition, and took warning before it was too late. He says: "I suffered severely from kidney trouble, the disease being hereditary in our family, I have taken sour bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy, and now consider myself throughly cured. This should be a warning to all not to neglect taking Foley's Kidney Remedy until it is to late."-Sold by all druggists.

Former Secretary of Treasury Tells Hawkeye Club "Standpat" Idea is Only Logical Principle.

CHICAGO, June 12 -Leslie M. Shaw, former secretary of the treasury, speaking before members of the Hawkeye Fellowship club here today, secred "insurgents" in the republican party, declared "standpat" ideas guests of honor at a reception and banquet the only logical principles of government given by the St. Paul Roosevelt club at the and stigmatized the south as ignorant on

Mr. Shaw's remarks regarding the south were given an unexpected dramatic twist with a miniature train propelled by electri- when a southern born newspaper man who was reporting the address so far forgot Justice E. A. Jaggard of the Minnesota himself that he shouted:

"It isn't so."

"It is true," responded the former socretary, as he reiterated his statements, "The south is the best place in the world to make a speech," he said, "because the people are so ignorant of political questions.

nor greater eagerness to know." Championing "standpat" methods of legislation, particularly in regard to the tariff

"The people can't make the tariff. It would be as wise to expect the stockholders to run a railroad.'

Earlier in his speech he took occasion to make this statement regarding the "lusurgents" in the republican party: "I have no more respect for those people who style themselves republicans and are not than for those democrats who live in Florida and pretend to be democrats and are not. Mr. Shaw had announced that he would speak upon the subject, "Evolution in Politics." His digressions from the subject, however, became vastly more interesting.

"When I was nominated for governor in Iowa in 1897," he began, "my canvass cost me exactly $250, and a great democratic paper said that the machine was broken. My canvass cost me $250. No man in my state today could be elected without a machine behind him unless he spent $500,000.

"This is evolution in politics. "In Illinois not long ago a resident of the state of Waskington entered the senatorial contest and he got 20,000 votes. "This, too, is evolution in politics,"

Athletic Burglar Proves Mystery

Claims to Be Raymond Wiley, Former Pennsylvania Star, but Story is Doubted.

LOS ANGELES, June 12 .- So many discrepancies have appeared in the various statements made by Raymond M. Wiley, the burglar captured last night at the home of James Yankee in this city, that the detectives who have been looking up his record are now in doubt as to whether he is the former college athlete and son of a wealthy family that he claims to be, or an imposter who may have a long criminal record. Few of the statements made by Wiley thus far have been verified. Even the spelling of his name casts doubt upor his story.

Wiley's appearance would bear out his Because of doubt as to his antecedent his arraignment was delayed until Monday. Arming himself with a revolver, he came to this city yesterday, visited a number of saloons, and in the evening walked into the residence district and selected the Yankee home for the beginning of his operations. Following the athlete's surprise by Mr.

Yankee and the summons of assistance, it required the efforts of tweive men to subdue and bind him. Wiley when searched had three diamond rings and a gold stickpin and a gold necklace which he had taken from the Yankee

Mrs. Sage Comes to Rescue of Robins

Contributes Money for Campaign of Education Against Slaughter of Birds in the South.

NEW YORK, June 12.-Mrs. Russell Sage, who can frequently bee seen feeding the squirrels in Central park, and who is a devout nature lover, has given $15,000 to the National Audubon society to help the campaign of education in the south against the slaughter of robins. In the southern states the robin ranks only a little below the quall as a game bird. This, it is understood, is only the first of Mrs. Sage's contributions to the work of the Audubon societies. Other money will be spent in the west and northwest to create a public sentiment against the wanton slaughter of birds and wild animals for food. Mrs. Sage said today in speaking of her gift: "The minds of the world's greatest statesmen are today seeking a solution of the question as to how to bring about per manent peace among nations. Why would it not be a step in the right direction to put a stop to the warfare against the harmiess and beautiful creatures of the field and forest. It is abhorrent to me to think of the slaughter of birds and wild animals for the sake of so-called sport: It is real pleasure to do all I can to put an end to it. The work of the Audubon society is good work and I am glad to be able to help it."
