DISPATCHER SMITH IS BLAMED Employee Said to Have Failed in Supplying Correct Orders.

INVESTIGATION NOW UNDER WAY Officials of Railroad Will Sift Responsibility to Core.

DEATH LIST IS NOW TWENTY-ONE Two Injured Passengers Die from Injuries and Other Fatalities Are Probable Within Few Hours.

CINCINNATI, O., July 5.—Interest in yesterday's disastrous wreck at Middletown, O., in which more than a score of lives were sacrificed, was transferred to this city today.

A statement from J. W. Wall, pilot engineer of the Big Four passenger train which crashed into a freight train of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton railway, placed the blame for the wreck on Train Dispatcher Smith of the latter system, at Dayton, and in this he was partially confirmed by E. A. Gould of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton.

Investigation to Proceed. "But, before I can say anything definite the investigation will have to be carried further."

Local officers of the Big Four road were not yet willing to attempt to account officially for the wreck. A misunderstanding of orders was mentioned by some, but whose misunderstanding it was they did not state.

Ballinger at Beverly to Talk Reclamation Work

Secretary He Did Not Bring Any Plans and Will Not Leave Any.

BEVERLY, Mass., July 5.—Secretary of the Interior, Richard Ballinger, arrived in Beverly this morning to discuss reclamation work with President Taft at Beverly, Mass., tonight and tomorrow.

The members of the new board of engineers appointed by President Taft to examine and report on the various projects to be carried forward under the reclamation act are under orders to report to the secretary of the interior at the earliest possible moment.

The secretary would not discuss today whatever reference his call on the president might have on the status of F. H. Newell, director of the reclamation service or the part he is to play in the reclamation of that service. It is no secret that Mr. Ballinger is anxious that the reclamation work shall be taken out of Mr. Newell's hands.

Stock Market Flurry is Due to Many Causes

Death of Chief Justice Fuller, Rise in Wheat and Bank Statement Factors in Sharp Decline.

NEW YORK, July 5.—There was another flurry in the stock market early today as the joint effect of a jump in the price of wheat, the death of Chief Justice Fuller and the threatened delay in the hearing in the Sherman law cases, the discussion of a strike of the Pennsylvania railway employees, and the impairment of cash holdings that the clearing house banks disclosed by the weekly bank statement.

HYDE'S SENTENCE PRISON FOR LIFE

Kansas City Physician Draws the Long Term for Murder of Colonel Swope.

HARD LABOR FOR CONVICTED MAN This is Form of Punishment Meted Out by Judge Latschaw.

DOCTOR AND WIFE IN COURT Couple Hold Hands Affectionately Until Fate is Read.

APPEALS TO THE SUPREME COURT Judge Latschaw Refuses to Accept Bail and Prisoner Will Remain in County Jail Until Case is Reached.

KANSAS CITY, July 5.—Dr. E. C. Hyde, convicted of having poisoned Colonel Thomas H. Swope, the millionaire philanthropist, was sentenced to life imprisonment at hard labor by Judge Ralph S. Latschaw in the criminal court here this morning.

An appeal to the state supreme court was filed by Hyde's attorneys and until it is taken up by the higher court, the prisoner will remain in the county jail here.

The noted case was called by Judge Latschaw as soon as court was opened this morning. The doctor and his wife, who had stood by him so faithfully, sat side by side and held each other's hands. Judge Latschaw promptly overruled the motion for arrest of judgment and commanded Dr. Hyde to stand up. Before passing sentence he asked the prisoner if he had anything to say.

"My attorneys will talk for me," said Dr. Hyde simply. At this point Attorney Lucas for the defense arose and told the court that he had nothing to say then. As Dr. Hyde remained standing Judge Latschaw continued: "The judgment of the court, Dr. Hyde, is that you be confined in the state penitentiary at Jefferson City at hard labor for and during the period of your natural life."

Fight Pictures May Be Barred

Probability That Washington and Baltimore Will Not Permit Them to Be Shown.

WASHINGTON, July 5.—Moving pictures of the Jeffries-Johnson fight may be barred from the District of Columbia. Police Chief Sylvester has announced that he will do his utmost to prevent the films from being shown here. He fears a repetition of the race clashes which took place on the streets yesterday when it became known that the negro had won.

Postal Bank Trustees to Meet

Members of Board Will Go to Beverly to Consult President Taft.

WASHINGTON, July 5.—Any summer meetings of the board of trustees of the postal savings banks will be held at Beverly, this has been agreed upon by the three members, Postmaster General Hitchcock, Secretary of Treasury MacVeagh and Attorney General Wickersham. No plans will be made for putting the banks into operation until the board has had an opportunity to talk over the matter with the president. It is not believed that the postal banks can be opened this year.

Arguments in Bleached Flour Case Commence

Judge A. E. Helm of Wichita Says Only Consumers Should Be Party to Make Complaint.

KANSAS CITY, July 5.—Arguments occupied the attention of the jury in the bleached flour trial in the federal court here today. Pierce Butler of St. Paul and United States District Attorney Leslie Lyons of this city argued for the government. Bruce Elliott of St. Louis and Judge E. L. Scarritt of this city spoke for the millers.

Judge A. E. Helm of Wichita, Kan., also argued for the millers. He said that although the government pure food and drug act was intended for the consumers of the country's food products, that in this case the government had not introduced as witnesses any consumers who had been injured by eating bread made from bleached flour. He insisted that the evidence had failed to prove that the flour that had been seized had been adulterated or misbranded as charged.

Pierce Butler said that sufficient and wholesome food are necessary for the preservation and proper development of the race. He said the defendants' own writings had failed to give any good reason for the practice of bleaching flour.

THIRTY-SIX BEFORE COURT

Those Who Celebrate Victory of Black Man Take Medicine.

JOHNSON'S MOTHER IS PROUD Looks Forward with Expectancy to Return of Champion—Sailors Use Flats in Norfolk and Newport.

CHICAGO, July 5.—Although Chicago is the home of Jack Johnson and most of its colored population boast, truthfully or otherwise, of some acquaintance with him, the celebration of his black man's victory did not result in overburdening the various branches of the municipal court today.

Those whose exhilaration resulted in charges of disorderly conduct and assault and battery numbered exactly thirty-six. The bluecoats were disposed to let the negroes "have their fling" and make few arrests. The judges, too, let the offenders off lightly.

Mrs. Tiny Johnson, other of the champion, received the homage of friends and strangers alike at her home, 344 Wabash avenue. She was particularly proud of a newspaper clipping in which Johnson, after the fight was quoted as saying: "I want to get home to my mammy."

BUILDING TRADES TROUBLE

Structural Ironworkers Cause Walk-out at Des Moines.

CARPENTERS MAKING TROUBLE Two Hundred Men Throw Out of Work by Rock Island Road Recently Ordered Back, and More Wanted.

DES MOINES, July 5.—(Special Telegram)—Des Moines is threatened with a lockout in the Building Trades that would seriously interfere with building operations. Because a few nonunion structural iron workers were at work on the extension of the Equitable building, the carpenters called out all their men. The contractors claim that they had an agreement with the carpenters which would forbid them considering their relations to the steel workers, and the contractors threaten to retaliate. This is supposed to be the culmination of a series of disagreements which, it is believed, will put a stop temporarily to building operations.

RING RIVALS AND FANS LEAVE RENO

Big Fighters and Their Followers—Winners and Losers—Quit Scene of Battle.

JOHNSON ENROUTE TO CHICAGO Black Champion, in Private Car, Due in Windy City Tomorrow.

JEFFRIES GOES BACK TO FARM White Man Hundred Thousand Richer, but Spirit Crushed.

FINANCIAL SIDE OF THE AFFAIR Winner Gets Hundred Twenty-One Thousand and Loser Hundred Seventeen Thousand—Promoters' Profits Large.

RENO, July 5.—Jack Johnson, with his base viol, his trainers and his camp equipment, is speeding toward Chicago in his special car, Redondo, on a train that left Reno soon after midnight and will reach Chicago Thursday morning. He is under contract to fill vaudeville engagements for a time, and says he will be glad to get another fight soon, but so far as can be learned, no man in the world is really eager to get into the ring.

Jim Jeffries, the wealthy farmer, will leave for his home in southern California, on his special car, Graymont, tonight. As a result of the fight, he is probably $100,000 richer, but he is damaged to his body and the humiliation of his spirit will be healed by time.

Most of the prize ring celebrities have departed, and Reno, yesterday the capital of the world, has shrunk to its normal size. The talk among the sporting authorities, who still remain here, deals with the amazing superiority of Johnson in yesterday's battle. It is agreed that Johnson could have put his man out much sooner, and it is said that he wished to give the moving picture men films of proper length.

Stories are told of attacks of Jeffries' camp, who hedged at the last moment, being dissatisfied with their man's condition and temper and placed bets on Johnson. The negro population of Reno is not nearly so happy today as must be expected, for many risked money on Jeffries. Johnson is not a hero amongst most of his race who have met him.

Sam Berger, manager for the defeated champion, said today: "Jeffries, of course, is bitterly disappointed. He feels as he said after the fight, that the weight of public opinion drove him back into the ring and that his failure may not be viewed leniently, although he knows he did his best."

Jeffries will return to Farm. "Jeffries is in good spirits, considering his disappointment. He is going back to his quiet home-life. We expect to spend a day or two in San Francisco and then go south. If we don't make connections with the railroad tonight, we will go down tomorrow."

Berger said that all of the losers' share of the purse and picture money had been turned over to Jeffries. Jeffries went to the baths this morning as usual. He kept away from the few visitors who traveled out to the springs, and did not appear in public. He made no statement. He has talked little of the fight since he was brought back to his cottage, a beaten, bruised, brooding figure. As he walked around his house this morning, his stride seemed noticeably unsteady, and his big head hung down on his breast.

The fight around his big eye was evident and there were numerous slight bruises and contusions around his nose and mouth, but his face showed little discoloration, the work of the rubbers and trainers have gone far to removing the signs of defeat.

Returning to the cottage, Jeffries went out on the lawn and laid down on his head hanging down and his eyes fixed on the ground. His every move stamped him as a beaten and dejected man. He took no part in the talk about him and his companions fell in with his mood. The little group sat in silence.

It was not until late in the evening that Jeffries recovered the shock caused by her husband's defeat, but she still feels the strain.

Division of the Prize. Jack Johnson was $120,000 richer when Jim Jeffries went down for the last time in yesterday's fight. He took 90 per cent of the $100,000 purse which amounted to $90,000, a bonus of $10,000, and he sold his picture interests for $20,000.

Jeffries took a fortune out of the defeat at Johnson's hands. He received 40 per cent of the purse, amounting to $40,000, a bonus of $10,000, and he sold his picture interests for $20,000, making his total $110,000. The owners of the picture films are calculating on $1,000,000 profit.

Interview with Rickard. "Well, it's all over and I am happy today," was Tex Rickard's greeting to the newspaper men when he came down to breakfast. "I went through without a hitch and we held the world's record for attendance, we had a record for receipts. I don't know how much money we took in. The bank has not finished counting it, but I figure we will clear $100,000 on the gate receipts besides our interest in the pictures. There were 30,000 people in the arena. The seating capacity was a little over 15,000. All the seats were sold except 300 or 400, possibly more, of the 150 and 140 places. But there were a couple of thousand standing around the upper rim of the arena, so I am confident we held the record of a prize fight crowd in this country if not in the world."
