Sixteenth Street Property Owners Ask Injunction Against Mayor Dahlman.

Sixteenth street property owners have sought the aid of the district court against Mayor Dahlman, because of his veto of the creosote paving ordinance. A petition is filed asking that the veto be declared illegal and that the mayor be enjoined to sign and approve the ordinance, which provided for the paying of Sixteenth from Farnam to the viaduct.

The plaintiffs in the action are J. E. George, A. J. Beaton, the Miller Hotel company, and the J. R. Webster com-

ABERDEEN, S. D., Aug. 9 .- (Special.)-While driving a colt, with a number of other horses in a grain cutter with a header attached John Ehresmann, a Mc-Pherson county farmer, received serious, a a possibly fatal injuries. The colt, became frightened and the horses all ran away. Ehresmann was thrown from the machine and the "bull wheel" of the header was dragged over his body several times, bruising and cutting him severely. Eliresmann was unable to extricate himself until the colt fell and the machine was stopped.
